...... MY W. J. PETRAIN. in a slow but nevertheless interesting

In a slow but nevertheless interesting game yesterday afternoon, Portland gained the decision over Spokane principally because of the good pitching of Irving Gough, and the stealing of home plate by Fred Adams with the winning run in the last half of the ninth when two men were out. The final score was 2 to 2 though Gough should have scored abutout and probably would have m shutout, and probably would have done so had his team-males not contributed a quartet of errors in the third

Two of these errors were muffed out-field files. Bassey contributed the first miscue when he dropped Brinker's fly back of third base, and then kicked the ball far enough to allow the batter to reach second. When Altman fouled out to Fournier, Brinker was caught between the bases, but Breen tossed over Casey's head and Crocker allowed the ball to roll to the fence, and Dode scored. Fred Weed followed this by singling to left of these errors were muffed out-Weed followed this by singling to left and stealing second, whence he scored when Crocker muffed Nordyke's fly back of first base. It was a comedy of errors, but after the first, the home team played

Killilay, while he was more than usual ly wild, managed to get away unscathed until the sixth canto, when passes to Casey and Bassey, followed by Mullin's force of the latter at second, and Staton's single over second, collected toll n Portland's first run. Casey again scored in the eighth, which Casey again scored in the eighth, which run tied up the proceedings. The "Moose" opened the inning with a single to center. Bassey bunted, but Killiay made the play at second too late to get Casey. This put two men on, and when Mullin followed Bassey's lead Altman muffed Killilay's toes to catch Casey at third, and all hands were safe. Billy Staton and all hands were safe. Billy Staten was again the pinch hitter and his Texas leaguer back of second sent Casey home with the run that made it two all.

ninth and he worked Killilay for a free ticket. Breen excrinced neatly, but Camey waited and was also given transportation. Bassey secured a Texas league hit to the right patch and the sacks were again populated. Mullin was unequal to the occasion and fanned, and it was up to Staton to poke out another it was up to Staten to poke out another pinch hit. Before Billy had completed his time at bat, Adams took advantage of a slow windup on the part of Killiay, and dushed for the plate. 'The pitcher's took was wide and Adams was easily Catcher Spencer, of the Spokane team, was called to Seattle because of the life ness of his father, and gostdiek had a lame shoulder, which necessitated Manager Brown going behind the bat himself. STILL another jolt was handed Bob Brown by Casey's Colts yesterday and at the same time Seattle made it five straight from Aberdeen.

Gough should have scored a shutout, for it required four errors, two of them in the outfield, to get two runs over by the Spokane bunch. Killiay split his hand in fielding a hot Jack Burnett saved "Red" Mullin an er for by failing flat on his face after hit-ting to Staton in the fourth inning. Sta-ton pegged perfectly to Mullin, but Red dropped the ball, although this may have been due to his having seen Burnett fall.

It was ladles day and a good sized gathering of the fair ones was on hand to see the fray. They enjoyed the game very much and "Handsome" Jack Killilay made quite an impression.

Fred Adams' steal of home was a daring play and is one which is nego-tated seldom. However, Fred took the chance at the opportune time and caught Killilay off his guard.

Umpire Carney was again to the bad on base decisions. If he can't do any better than he did yesterday, and must work with Drennan, why don't he allow Drennan to call the bases and remain back of the bat, where he does fairly well?

Waiter McCredie got back into the game at Vernon yesterday, but even his pres-ence failed to step the slaughter handed Garrett. Jesse does not seem to be as effective as formerly.

WITNESSES SONDER YACHT Friends of Man Who Killed Woman RACE FROM SYLPH.

Brooklyn Craft for Second Time Takes President's Cup-Light Winds Prevail.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Sept. 3.—The Joyette won the fourth Sonder yacht As the yachts were preparing for the start the little yacht Sylph, flying the flag of the President, came steaming out of the bay. On the bridge sat the Presi-

The President arrived in time to see beautiful start. Four minutes afterward the Joyette apparently took the lead. It was a long, slow, uphill battle wind-ward, in which the breezes were very Hight. As the yachts neared the home mark on the first half of the race the contest was between the Ellen and the Hevella. The fight for first place at the leeward mark was very close and the Hevella gibed around the mark eight seconds ahead of the Ellen.

ahead of the Ellen.

The time at the home mark on the first fime around was: Hevella, 12:56:12; Ellen, 12:56:20; Seehund II, 12:56:47; Joyette, 12:57:21; Wolf, 12:58:14; Margarethe, 12:58:33 The Joyette is owned by Commodore

The Joyette is owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club of Brooklyn. It was the Joyette's second victory for the Taft cup, and with the Ellen and Hevella, the Joyette will race on Monday for permanent possession of the principal incentive for the international yacht races.

President Taft witnessed the victory of the New York boat from the bridge of the Presidential yacht Sylph.

The Hevella was second, the Ellen third, the Margarethe fourth, the Sechun II fifth and the Wolf sixth.

The Margarethe, Seehund II and Wolf

The Margarethe, Seehund II and Wolf were eliminated after today's race by the rules governing the contest.

The race today was the least satisfactory of the contests, as the wind was soft and uncertain. The official times at the finish were as Joyetto, 2:24:06; Hevella, 2:28:16; Ellen, 2:20:56; Mrgarethe, 2:34:56; Seehund II, 2:35:26; Wolf, 2:26:05.

PRESIDENT BOARDS YACHT Sylph Puts Off for Marblehead Racecourse.

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 3.-For the sec ond time during the stay of the little yacht in Beverly harbor, the President's eagle-created flag was hoisted to the main-top of the Sylph this morning, and with the Chief Executive and Mrs. Taft board, the craft put off to the Marble

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, of Pittsburg: Secretary of State Knox, and Captain A. W. Butt were the other mem-bers of the party taken out on the Sylph. President was getting much better and did not expect a return of the attack of sciatica which threw his golf game "out of joint" yesterday morning, and sent him from the Myopla links with one of the worst scores of the season.
