Casey's Colts butted into a surprise when they faced the supposedly weak Vancouverites yesterday afternoon, and the result of the Labor day bargain double-header was two defeats for the aspiring ones. Both were whitewash engagements wherein the Canucks won engagements wherein the Canucks won by 6 to 0 and 5 to 0.

It was simply a case of where Casey's pitchers were entirely outclassed by Faddock and Hickey. The latter, in the second game, held Portland to one lone hit, and, while the former was found for six bingles, none of them counted. "Chief" Pinnance started the first game for Portland, but in the third inning the Canucks landed on him for five healthy hits including a triple and five healthy hits, including a triple and a double, which netted a quartet of runs. Casey then relegated Pinance to the water-bucket brigade and sent Lee Samuels on the hilitop, but it was too late to save the day.

A fine crowd was on hand to see the double-header, and every one entermined the hope that Casey's squad would reach the 500 mark, but the crew captained by "Old Joe" Sugden did its youthful leader proud. In fact, when Paddock got through with the Colts they looked like a collection of burchgrassers, and Jack Hickey added insult to injury by making the comparison e injury by making the comparison

Ole Snyder, who enjoys the reputation of being the hitless wonder of the Vancouver club, opened the disastrous third inning of the first game by bealing out an infield tap. Paddock sacrificed and then the Canucks began the slaughter.

Payls bursted and heat it out. "Must" Davis bunted and beat it out. "Mutt" Cartwright slammed one for three bases scoring Snyder and Davis. Quigley sin-gled to right and Cartwright crossed. and a double by "Cupld" Swain put Quigley over with the fourth ace. This was enough for Casey, so he chased the Indian and substituted Samuels, who got away with what he had for the balance of the game

In the second game Tom Seaton asked permission to go against the Canucks, and Casey was the accommodating manager in assenting. Seaton had some bad luck at critical times, and it was also his misfortune to have his team-mates fall for the offerings of Jack Hickey like a schoolgirl sweeps the "Handsome" Jack simply kept the home bunch guessing all the while, and Vancouver managed to bunch a couple of hits occasionally, which netted five runs off Scaton. The feature of the second engagement was "Cupid" Swain's homer, which was converted into a circuit clout by reason of its taking a high bound over Crocker's head. LOS ANGELES, Sept. 6.—(Special.)— Happy Hogan's gang went all to pieces today before the Portland team and dropped two games, with little chance of catching up at any time in either contest. Portland outplayed Vernon in all departments of both games and especially in the afternoon did the McCredie crew outclass the locals.

Ten runs to none shows how thoroughly were the Hooligans trimmed, while a to 2 does not indicate the full extent of the remorning defeat. It was not altogether Vance's fault that he lost the afternoon game, for with proper support he might have been a fit opponent to Harkness, who, as usual, had the locals guessing. Four times the bases were full of Port-land men and several times there were at least two on bases. In the first inning the whole team batted, filling the bases twice and scoring five runs, settling the result right there to the disgust of the big holiday crowd. In each of the last two innings the bases were full of Bayers.

Brick Devereaux was the chief Ver-non offender, having three errors charged against him at critical times, charged against him at critical times, and missing what should have been an easy assist in the first inning. The misplay gave Cooney a hit. He was sacrificed by Olson. Graney was hit on the right arm. Fisher poked a hard one at Deversaux, which the latter failed to field, and the bases were full. Johnson sent a bouncer to Eagan back toward second, and Cooney scored, Brown dropping Eagan's throw. Ort hit toward first and Graney was forced at the plate. McCredle poked one out to Martinke's head, clearing the bases and going to second himself. Harkness popped to Deversaux.

In the fourth Cooney singled, stole second and went to third on a low pitch. After Olson popped to the catcher and Graney fanned, Fisher hit to Deversaux, who fumbled and Cooney scored.

sacrificed by Fisher and went to third on Vance's had throw to eatch him off the keystone sack. He scored on Johnson's single. In the eighth McCredie singled and went to second on a wild pitch. Cooney walked after Harkness had flied to right and Olson singled.

Graney sent an easy grounder toward third, and Mott, in his eagerness to make the play, fumbled and McCredie scored. The side was then retired with a foul and a fly, with the bases full. a foul and a fly, with the bases rule.

In the ninth Ort singled. Speas was hit. Ort was forced at third by Mc-Credie, Vance to Mott. Harkness flew to right. Councy singled and Speas acored. Olson walked and when Graney hit infield McCredie scored on the fleider's choice. The bases were filled when Fisher grounded to Eagan at secwhen Fisher grounded to Eagan at sec Cooney and McCredleystarred in the hitting line. Cooney fathered six hits on the day in eight times up.

The morning contest was fairly even up to the minih, when the Beavers scored twice on a double by Pitcher Guyn and twice on a double by Pitcher Guyn and singles by Cooney and Fisher.

In the first round, after Cooney had singled to center and been forced at second by Olsen, the latter stole second and scored on Fisher's single to left.

in the fourth Johnson was struck by a pitched ball, reached second on Willett's error and scored on Guyn's single to cen-ter. Vernon came back in their half and Martinke walked, took second and third respectively on Brashenr's and Engan's singles, scoring on Devereaux's out at first. The Beavers pulled off a freaky double play at this period. Devereaux drove to Cooney, who fumbled the ball, and then apparently tost his head, for with "Truck" Eagan within a few feet of the Initial station, and plenty of time for a double play, the Beaver second baseman threw to Ort at first, retiring Dever-eaux. Ort then threw to second to nail Eagan, and "Kitty" Brashear, who was on third attempted to score on the play, but was thrown out at the plate by Olson. Vernon scored also in the sixth. Brashear reached second on Cooney overthrow of first, and scored when Mo Credie fumbled Eagan's drive.

With the score a tie in the seventh,
Graney singled and scored on singles by Fisher and Johnson.

Betting on the outcome of the morning game stood at evens when the umpires announced Keulbach as Chance's choice for the firing line. In days gone by the big hight-hander has been a stumbling block before the local sluggers, and they went on the field looking for a tough argument. And in this they were not at all disappointed, although Adams pitched rings around the Cub star in the early stages of the grind.

Ninth Ties Forenoon Game.

Pittsburg had the morning contest well in hand until the ninth round, when Chance headed a rally with a double over Chirke's lid, the ball colliding with a brick fence in left field and bounding back enough to cut off an extra base. Harry Steinfeldt thereupen came across with a single to center, sending Chance nome with the tying run.

In the tenth, with one down, Evers duplicated Chance's feat. Sheckard fouled duplicated Chance's feat. Sheckard fouled out and Schulte shot a single to left. Magee Suspended Without Pay. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. d.-Sherwood Magee, the star outfielder of the Philadel-phia National League team, was suspend-ed indefinitely without pay by Manager William Murray for alleged insubordina-tion. In Saturday's game with Brooklyn Magee.is said to have disregarded in-structions to play close to second base instead of taking a long lead. Mages was finally caught between the bases. Mages declares that if anything is deducted from his salary he never will play again in a Philadelphia uniform.
