An Enormous Shipment of Suits Makes Possible This Very Remarkable Bargain Offering of Ours

We consider this purchase the best one in our long record of good buys. 'Tis a lot secured at an astounding price reduction from one of New York's foremost style producers and was offered to our Miss Bernard at just about half price right through the line on condition that the entire lot go in one shipment. No other Portland store has outlet enough to handle so large a quantity—in fact 'tis a purchase that will tax even our enormous distributing resources and for this reason we lower the price to bed rock right at the start of the season and one of the greatest suit sales in Portland is launched just when the season is dawning. Most of these suits are in plain tailored styles, a few are embellished with silk or Persian braids, with buttons or soutache braiding. The materials are broadcloths, serges, homespuns, and fancy suitings. There's not one good style or color that is missing from this vast assortment. Regular values up to $50.00, special for Tuesday and Wednesday only

BODY TO BE EXHUMED SOON

Mrs. Sutton Nearly Ready for Autopsy on Son's Body.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Henry E. Davis, attorney for Mrs. James N. Sutton, said today that he was not prepared to state when the body of Lieutenant Sutton would be exhumed.

"It is probable," he said, "that I will issue a statement concerning the latest phase of the case in regard to the presence at the exhumation and the autopsy of the marine officers who were with

LEUTENANT SUTTON WHEN HE MET HIS DEATH, SHOULD THEY DESIRE TO BE PRESENT."

Mrs. Sutton said: "I do not know when we will exhumate my son's body. I wish to have time to consult Mr. Davis before any steps are finally taken to that end. According to the War Department, I can now proceed whenever I am ready. When this will be I cannot say at present, but probably it will be this week. There will be nothing done today. I hope that when we are ready there will be no further delay."

GUESSES VARY ON CENSUS

Maximum Prediction Is 100,000,000—Vast Farm Increase.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Statisticians believe that the census to be taken next year will show that the United States has a population of between 80,000,000 and 90,000,000 persons. They would not be surprised if the figures ran as high as 100,000,000. The Department of Agriculture at Washington estimates that the number of farms in this country has increased from 4,564,541 in 1900 to 6,100,000 in ### 1909; THE TOTAL ACREAGE HAS INCREASED FROM 622,000,000 IN 1900 TO MORE THAN 1,000,000,000 IN 1908, AND THE CAPITAL OF THE FARMERS IN FORM OF LANDS, BUILDINGS, IMPROVEMENTS, LIVESTOCK, IMPLEMENTS AND MACHINERY IS NOW COMPUTED AT $28,000,000,000, WHICH REPRESENTS AN INCREASE OF 75 OR 80 PER CENT OVER 1900.

Boston.—Dana Dudley, of Wakefield, Mass., to whom is ascribed the invention of the dynamite gun and torpedo tube and a disappearing gun, claims to have devised a telescope by means of which it is possible to aim guns and rifles around corners, over the tops of skyscrapers and mountains ranges and down into the ocean. He says the United States Government has adopted it.

YOUNG MILLIONAIRE DEAD

Son of Oliver C. Iselin, Aged Seven Years, Succumbs in Europe.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., Sept. 6.—William Goddard Iselin, the 7-year-old heir to $20,000,000, is dead at Baden Baden, according to a cablegram received at the home here of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin. His mother was Hope Goddard, daughter of the late Colonel William Goddard, of Providence, R. I. At the christening of the boy Colonel Goddard invested $1,000,000 in stocks ### and bonds for the child and that principal and accrued interest would have been his when he came of age. When Colonel Goddard died Mrs. Iselin received $10,000,000 outright and eventually the bulk of the estate, amounting to about $20,000,000, will be hers. Her son would have inherited most of this, as well as a large share of his father's fortune.

Washington.—A season's work in the establishment of a Government horse pasture near Front Royal, Va., by Captain C. H. Conrad, Jr., of the Third Cavalry, has convinced Quartermaster-General Alesha's belief that animals suitable for the military service should be obtained in that section.

MEXICO FEELS TREMOR

Shocks Last 15 Seconds and Extend Over Wide Area.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 6.—A slight shock of earthquake lasting 15 seconds was felt here at 4:25 o'clock Sunday morning. Reports from Acapulco indicate that the shock was widespread. At the latter place it lasted eight seconds. No damage was done.

Amoy, China.—During the fortnight ending last Saturday there were 64 deaths from bubonic plague and 35 from cholera in Amoy.
