PORTLAND SOPRANO TO AP-PEAR IN "RIGOLETTO."

Verdi's Opera to Be Presented at Bungalow Tonight-"Faust" This Afternoon.

"Rigoletto," Verdi's most charming opera and one of the everlasting flowwill be presented by the International Grand Opera Company at the Bungalow Theater, Twelfth and Morrison streets.

Familiar to thousands through every medium, "Rigoletto" still remains the most popular opera of the day, and everywhere it is presented capacity houses are the rule. Madame Norelli, who will be heard in the role of Glida, who will be heard in the role of Glida, has a pure rich voice and can reach two notes beyond high C with positive ease, causing one to hold one's breath for surprise that the human voice can attain such clarity and volume.

Signor Bari, the famous tenor, sings the role of the Duke of Mantua, which is said to be his best role. Mile. G. Strauss, whom the San Francisco press refer to as the velvety-voiced American, will be heard in the role of Maddelena. Signor Arcangeli sings the title role and will be heard at his best, as in the character of Rigoletto he has made himself famous. Other members of the company who will be heard are Signor Oteri, Franscona Giuliani and Kaplan.

Instead of Verdi's "Il Trovatore,"

Instead of Verdi's "Il Trovatore," which was announced for this afternoon's performance, Gounod's "Faust"
