Days Dugdale, the cherubic magnate from over Scattle way, who entertains visions of pennants and things like that, sat in the grandstand yesterday aftersoon and saw his hirelings win a game a couple of times and then hand it back in the 15th inning to Pearl Casey, although a great deah of this gift busilittle Portland manager in his neverceasing efforts to make his hired help do the right thing at the right time. The final score of the engagement, after it had been tied up by Seattle in the fourth and by Portland after Scattle had put one over in the tenth, was 5 to 4, for Casey's bunch went the leaders one better in the matter of runs scored in the last of the extra inning. George Engle formerly a local favorite, who is now drawing pay from Dug, was sent against the Colts by the chief Turk, Lynch. George had bad luck in the first. though it was only good fortune for him that the Colts did not take advantage of an opportunity of making a flock of runs instead of the two and cinching the game then and there. Previous to the brace collected by Casey, Scattle had brought Pinnance's error and a good hit by Miquel Lynch.

Pinnance on Hilltop.

"Chief" Pinnance held down the hilltop for the home guard, and, while he was hit often, he managed to keep the bingles for enough apart to prevent the deluge of runs that is Seattle's custom when in the "cigar-box" at home. At Seattle 12 hits would have meant at least

On the Vaughn-street lot the visitors on the vaught-street by see easy, and do not find the run-getting so easy, and this series, on that account, should be GARDNER FAILS IN SEVENTH interesting. Seattle tled Casey's brace of runs made in the first by putting another over in the fourth, when Emil Frisk secured a flukey hit and scored on a healthy bump by Magee.

Things progressed nicely until the tenth, when Tealey Raymond's infield hit spokane was a full or a double by Frisk Spokane safe for six innings, giving but the fillers of the state of the st was followed by a double by Friek which scored Raymond, and Dug smiled serenely. He changed expression quickly when Billy Staton singled and took third or "Red" Mullin's clout through Bennett. Johnny Fournier was delegated to but for Armbruster and his long fly to Frisk put Staton over and the score was tled up again.

Seattle's Last Chance Nipped.

Three hits in a row filled the bases for Seattle in the last inning, and then Pin-nance walked Shea, forcing in Frisk with another leading run. A fast double play from Casey to Fournier to Kennedy nipped whatever chance Seattle had to exore again in that inning.

In Portland's half, Fournier beat out ar infield tap, and Gough, batting for Pinnance, fanned. Adams forced Fournier at second, but Bennett's wild peg in trying to complete the double sent in trying to compete the double sent tips runner to second. Tealey Raymond heaved Breen's tap to the bleacher fence and Adams scored, while Dicky trotted home on Casey's single over Magee's head, which ended a bard-fought and ex-

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Special.)—Sports have been discussing the question whether Stanley Ketchel, if knocked out by Sam Langford, would Croffroth still give him a chance at Jack Johnson. Croffroth said today: "Should Langford put over a lucky blow, as Papke did in Los Angeles, and lay Ketchel low. I would go on with the Johnson-Ketchel match just as though the Michigan boy won the bout. This is becauses when everyone was sidestepping Johnson after his victory at Sydney, Ketchel came to the front and deposited $5000 as a guarantee we would meet the negro whenever I could arrange the fight. This was covered by Johnson, and these amounts now represent side bets on the fight.
