There are likely to be a considerable number of "specials" listed before the week is over, including some of the unlisted stock shown at the Gregon State Fair at Salem this week, and some of the stuff that is entered for the A-Y-P Livestock Exposition of Seattle, from which no reports have been received. Lists will be kept open until the end of the week for the purose of giving everybody a chance to participate.

The list as given above includes between 2500 and 3000 head of livestock; it is stock such as Oregon is developing each year and which, it has been shown in former years, thrives better here than anywhere else in the United States. The great purpose of holding the meet here is to show the people of the meet here is to show the people of Oregon that this state can do as well as any other section of the country. Careful scrutiny of the nominations indicates that of the $1,000,000, worth of stuff set down so far, Oregon stock forms will be represented by about 75 forms will be represented by about 75 farms will be represented by about 75 per cent of the total.

New Bills Open at the Vaudeville Houses

Orphenm.

T THE ORPHEUM this week the bill A T THE ORPHEUM this week the bill is a delectable series of new and interesting features with not one dull It would be difficult to divide moment. It would be difficult to divide honors between Edna Aug, the charming little comedienne, and Jessie Shirley, who presents a brilliant little drama entitled, "The First Woman Governor." Miss Aug is so original and refreshing, and her presentation of "Types" is one of the kednest things ever seen on any local stuge. She is irresistibly funny in a dainty way, and possesses a personality a dainty way, and possesses a personality that walks right out and gathers her audience into one big joy incorporation with herself.

On the other extreme Miss Shirley could wring large sized weeps and sighs out of a turnip. Her dramatic tabloid, which by the way is her original composition, deals with the cussed and discussed subject of woman suffrage. The scene is laid in the Governor's private office at night and concerns the execution or pardon of a young criminal, the problem being whether a woman, occupying the highest judicial position in her state, would be ruled by heart or head in matters of vital moment.

While making no claims as a magician, Henry Clive, does some really clever sleight of hand work, to the steady accompaniment of a fire of small talk. The Big City Quartet are vocalists who the other extreme Miss Shirley is particularly good.

Davey and Poney Moore present an almost comedy called "The Dancing Tenderheel," concerning a college man who comes West in search of health and the girl he had loved "back East." On the student of the student the girl he had loved back half. On his arrival at Rouring Gulch the student is given a "rough-house" reception by his sweetheart, who before she discloses her identity, poses first as a rough cow-boy, then as an injun and later as a "Fluffy Ruffles" as which she is recognized.

The Walthour Trio are cyclists who cycle, and who introduce several unique departures.

"Les Myosotis" are acceptable combina-tions of grace and beauty with slathers of terpsichorean ability. Their pro-gramme is quite varied and includes Grand Pas de Deux, a beautiful rendi-tion of the old Vienna walts.

Grand.

THIS week's programme at the Grand L covers a wide latitude of entertainment. One of the hits is, needless to say, petite Bianche Bloan, the only and origpetite Blanche Sloan, the only and original sister of one Tod Sloan, of the turf. The death-defying and erstwhile non-chalant methods of this damsel in her midair performance are sensational and of the hair-raising variety.

Johan and Mott are musicalites who please, and Mande Caswell and Arthur Arnold are a team who present an original barrel jumping stunt.

One of the best features on any bill seen here lately is "The High-Toned Burglar's Christmas Tree," brand new in plot and chuck full of wit and repartee, as presented by James P. Dolah and Ida Lenharr.

The three vagrants are easily the big Pantages.

DANTAGES is offering this week two acts which are in a class by themseives for originality-a European ellusion and a score of remarkably welltrained cockatoos. The cockatoos, ple trained cockatoos. The cockatoos, picturesque snow-white birds, with brilliant yellow topnots, go through all manner of stunts, such as hurdle jumping, chariot-racing, trapezeing, and, last but not least, a well-executed version of the "Merry Widow Waitz."

The illusion stunt, called Mentekel,

"Merry Widow Waltz."
The illusion stunt, called Mentekel,
"The Mystery of Babylon," is presented by William Berol. This act has puzzled all who have attempted to solve it. A place on the bill is a musical potpourri given by Miskel, Hunt and Miller. The two men of the trio sing well and give pretentious numbers on the saxophone, cornets and trombones. The feminine member gives a pleasing planologue and wears some stunning costumes. Her voice is a deep contraite, of much warmth and pathos, and is especially well adapted for coon maiodies.

Mentekei, who has been featured on all the Keith & Proctor time, is recking with mysticism and therefore entitled to first honors.

The Ely-Norris Manard Manganese Steel Bank Safes, the Strongest in the

This challenge appears in all the leading papers throughout the United States. We hereby agree to put up one of our safes against any three so-called burglar-proof safes manufactured either by one firm or a collection of firms, agreeing to open all three safes in less time than is occupied in opening our safe, allowing them the amount of explosives used upon their three safes upon our one safe. We will furnish the safe free of charge and if necessary will buy the "dope" with which to operate on the safe.

The New No. 76 Rotary Mimeograph

For the reduplication of typewritten or handwritten matter, is ready for the mar-

Next in importance to the value of the Mimeograph itself as a time and labor, and, therefore, a money saver, is the new predominating improvement found in the No. 76, by which all ink-muss, possible soiling of hands or injury to clothing or office furniture from handling of ink, is forever eliminated. The last possible objection that could ever be raised against mimeographing has been overcome, and while the handling of ink was sometimes attended with more or less unavoidable " mussiness," the new automatic self-inking device removes any unpleasant part of the opera-

There has been no improvement in the process of mimeographing in twenty years that will appeal so strongly to and be welcomed so gladly by users of a Mimeograph as an attachment that takes care of the ink from the moment it is poured into the fountain until the last drop is exhausted, without the hands of the operator once coming in contact with it.
