Portland Twirler Lets Turks Round Circuit Almost as They Please.

CASEY'S MEN SCORE FIRST

Colts Start Out Like Winners, but Are Defeated by Large Score. Capron Gets First Homer of League in This City.

Table with columns for Northwest League, Yesterday's Results, and Standing of the Clubs.

Smiling Irvn Gough must have been trying to duplicate the aviation feats of the Wright brothers yesterday afternoon at the Vaughn-street enclosure, for he went ballooning in the eighth and ninth innings and issued three free tickets to first, allowed five hits, including a two-bagger by Hall and a home run by Capron. Seattle annexed a total of eight runs to two for Portland.

The home run made by Capron was the first one made this season by any of the Northwest League players on the Portland grounds. It was a beautiful clout, sailing over the fence by a goodly margin, and drove in Frisk ahead of Capron. Seattle's first run came in the sixth inning. Raymond singled and was sacrificed to second by Bennett and scored on Capron's hit in center field. The balloon ascension happened in the eighth. Raymond got his second hit of the day, threw it away. By the time it was reared Raymond had scored and Bennett was planted on third. He scored a moment later on Captain Mike's fly to Mullin.

Capron was given a pass, stole second and scored on Magee's infield hit, which Kennedy held too long. Shea got a hit and both he and Magee scored on Hall's two-base hit. Raymond ended the inning by fouling out to Breen.

There were more fireworks in the ninth. With two in the inning, Frisk batted out an infield hit and then came Capron with his mighty club and biffed the ball on the steam for a homer, scoring two more. Portland started out like a winner by annexing a run in the first canto. Adams singled to center. Breen came through with a sacrifice and both men were safe. Adams went to third on an error by Hall and scored on Bassey's sacrifice fly to Lynch. Gough's first man to bat in the third inning, hit a three-bagger to left field and scored on Adams' Texas leaguer over Raymond's head, which ended the scoring for Portland. The score:

SPOKANE INFIELD TOO SLOW

Vancouver Slips Over Three Runs in Ninth and Wins.

SPOKANE, Sept. 15.—Vancouver took a hot chestnut out of the fire by the slowness of the Spokane infield in handling bunts in the ninth inning today. Three runs coming over on Flanagan's long single and an infield out. Paddock was generally effective, only one run being earned. Score:

FANDOM AT RANDOM. THERE was far too much profanity employed during the game yesterday afternoon by some so-called fans. An officer should be stationed in the stand and when these drunken rowdies get too boisterous they should be arrested.

Billy Stator still keeps up his good work around the short field and is hitting like a band these days. He speared a high throw from Fournier and stuck it on Frisk in the fourth inning, retiring the side.

Frisk made a beautiful catch of Fournier's fly to right in the second inning. He backed up against the fence and reached up and grabbed it.

Kennedy is still sure death on foul. He caught a foul from the bat of Magee in the fifth inning after a long run.

"Red" Mullin made a bonhead play in the sixth. Raymond was on second and scored on Capron's hit. Mullin hung onto the ball, though Raymond was still rounding third and he had plenty of time to catch him.

Raymond robbed Mullin of a hit in the fourth. He ran over back of second and scooped it up and caught his man by a close margin.

SLUGGING MATCH WON BY BEAVERS

Cooney Proves Shining Star, Scoring Two and Sending One Home.

WALKS TURN INTO RUNS

Wiggs Careless and Free With His Passes—McCredie's Three-Bagger Sends One Home in Sixth Inning.

Table with columns for Pacific Coast League, Yesterday's Results, and Standing of the Clubs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Three times Portland took the lead in today's game and three times the Oaks came fast enough to tie the score. In the end, however, it was the Portland team that scored the decisive run, winning the game by a 5 to 4 score. Much of a slugging contest it was, with the Portlanders making nine hits and the Commuters ten. Jimmy Wiggs was careless, however, with his passes to first base and two of these walks were turned into runs. Jess Garrett was much the staidier in the box and the Oaklanders lacked the ability to poke the ball for so many bases as did their opponents.

Paul Cooney was a shining star, scoring two runs himself and sending another home, with a total also of three stolen bases and a perfect record in his fielding. McCredie was in fine form and his three-bagger to center field in the sixth inning resulted in one of the Portland inns.

There was something done all the while in the run column. Cooney opened the battle in the first, when he walked, stole second, went to third on an error and scored on McCredie's single up right back in the same inning. The center fielder walked, stole second, and, with two out, was scored by Cameron, who drove the ball into center.

In the third, there was plenty of action. Claire fumbled Cooney's grounder and threw wild to first. Cooney promptly stole second and scored. Olson hit one to center that Magart allowed to get away from him. A single to left by Graney and Olson was around the bases.

For the Oaks, Cameron came right back to center and Carroll whipped a two-bagger just inside the third base line, both men having plenty of chance to score when Cameron hit a drive to center that came so low it almost knocked down Umpire Jimmy Toman.

In the sixth McCredie hit for three bases into deep center and after Fisher had walked, scored on Ote Johnson's out by way of the shortstop.

Cutshaw replied for the Oaks with an infield hit that he beat out by inches. McKune, who had come to bat, went to third on McKune's out, scoring as Claire put the ball into left.

The windup came in the seventh. Speas flew out to McKune and Garrett walked. Cooney's two-bagger to right put Garrett on third and Graney dropped one into a vacant spot in center that scored Garrett. Score:

PORTLAND: Cooney, 2b; Graney, 1b; Fisher, c; Olson, lf; Magart, cf; McKune, 3b; Garrett, p. Total: 5 runs, 10 hits, 2 errors.

OAKLAND: Cameron, 1b; Carroll, lf; Fisher, c; Olson, lf; Graney, cf; McKune, 3b; Garrett, p. Total: 4 runs, 10 hits, 1 error.

Summary: Three-base hit—McCredie. Stolen bases—Cooney, B. D. Lewis. Two-base hits—Graney, Carroll, Cooney. First base on called balls—Ote Johnson, Graney. Struck out—By Garrett 4; by Wiggs 6. Hit by pitched ball—Carroll. Double plays—Cutshaw to Cameron; Ote to Cooney; Cooney to Olson or Ote. Passed balls—Fisher. Time of game—Two hours. Umpires Van Halten and Toman.

Minnesota Crew Wins Race. NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 15.—A 15-oar open-mile cutter rowing race between crews from the battalions Minnesota and the Vermont for the fleet championship today was won by the Minnesota crew by a length and a half.

San Francisco 7; Vernon 7. LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—The game between San Francisco and Vernon today was called at the end of the 12th inning account of darkness. At the time the score was 7 all. Score: R.H.E. San Fran. 7 1 0; Vernon 7 12 2. Batteries—Shaner and Hogan; Durham, Browning and Williams.

Sacramento 8; Los Angeles 3. SACRAMENTO, Sept. 15.—The Angels were not in the running today when Sacramento won by a score of 8 to 3. Elman was a little wild, but Hope put the ball just where the locals wanted it. A total of 16 hits, including a home-run by Shinn, a triple and two doubles, together with Hope's error, accounted for the score. Score: R.H.E. Sacramento 8 0 0; Los Angeles 3 8 2. Batteries—Hosp and Smith; Elman and La Longe.

Turn Verein Instructor Returns. Rudolph Hochull, Jr., instructor of gymnastics at the Portland Social Turn Verein, returned home Monday, after a three months' tour of the Eastern and Southern States, and on Monday evening he was tendered a banquet by the members of the Portland association at the hall, Fourth and Yamhill streets. Professor Hochull, accompanied by William Engle and Professors Richard Gensowski and Robert Krohn, attended the big National Turnerbund at Cincinnati last June. Hochull and Engle represented the Portland Turn Verein in the athletic tests, and Professors Gensowski and Krohn acted as judges. After the Cincinnati sports, Hochull toured the principal cities of the Continent. He returned home in time to commence active work with his classes at the Turn Verein as soon as the season commences next week.

VANCOUVER DEAL DENIED

MacFarlane Still Deliberating Over Dickson's Offer.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—President W. R. MacFarlane, of the Aberdeen Baseball Association, today emphatically denied the report emanating on the Puget Sound that he has purchased the Vancouver baseball franchise in the Northwestern League from A. R. Dickson.

MacFarlane admits, however, that Manager Dickson has made him a proposition to sell the franchise, but that the matter has not yet been considered and will not be until after the matter of the expansion of the Coast League is decided.

MacFarlane thinks that the Vancouver franchise is a good thing if the Northwestern League remains intact, but he wants nothing to do with it if the Coasters invade Northern territory.

BROOKS OFFERS WAGER

VERNON MANAGER CHALLENGES RIVALS FOR $1000. Wants Series of Five Games for Big Purse—Seals and Beavers After the Coin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—The challenge of Jim Brooks, manager of the Vernons, by which he is willing to have his club play a series of five games with any club in the Coast League for a size bet of $1000, has awakened considerable joshing on some hands and serious attention on others. Brooks stated that the preferred play the Angels, but if Berry denied the issue that the same offer would go for any club in the league.

"The Seals will take that up," said Cal Ewing tonight. "And what is more, to make it good sport, we will spot the Vernon club two runs every game."

"The Beavers take it more seriously. 'Every man on the club would like to play such a series,' said Walter McCredie tonight. 'More than that, they all want to take a piece of that $1000 side bet. If Vernon really wants to play we will agree to a series of seven games, but will not play all of the games. But if Brooks wants to play it must be a winner-take-all affair with us.'"

COUNTRY JAY LOWERS RECORD

Trots Mile to Saddle in 2:05 1-4 Against Own Time.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Trotting to saddle, Country Jay lowered his own world record by 2 1/4 seconds in the third day's grand circuit meeting here today. With The Raffles as pacer, Country Jay covered the first quarter in 30 3/4, but it was not until the Raffles harness broke and the Country Jay was compelled to go it alone for the rest of the journey.
