THE EAST AND THE WEST—WHERE IS THE LINE?

With some point and force President Taft's governor, Johnson, of Minnesota, who, with others, has been denouncing the East and calling upon the West to organize in a sectional way against the East, because the East is deriving more benefit from the governmental policy than the West and at the expense of the West.

COOK AND KANE.

The world will read with avidity the instalments of Dr. Cook's narrative as they appear. Most of what he has to tell has been told before, and yet the fact that his polar expedition has been successful, while all previous ones were failures, so far as their main object went, lends new and vivid interest to the true details.

THE INHABITANTS OF MARS.

The reported discovery of vapor of water in the atmosphere of Mars receives speculation about the existence of life on our planetary neighbor. Where there is water and a temperature neither excessively hot nor cold, there is no doubt that life may possibly live.

MAKE THE COWS HAPPY.

Anent the "clean milk" agitation, which is just now on, we quote from a writer in "Hygiene and Physical Education" (Dr. Paul W. Goldsky, of Boston), as follows: "The writer has inspected many milk farms and has seen the owners endeavor to accede to sanitary regulations, have, in the clean and whitewashed stables and orderly yards, neglected the fact that even cows may be depressed by the monotony of their surroundings and so become susceptible to infection."

night descended Kane's men all victims to the disease. No effective remedies were known, and their only hope was to drag out a miserable existence until they could obtain fresh meat in the Spring. Recent polar expeditions have not suffered much from this terrible scourge.

CURFEW FOR JOY RIDERS.

If the men and women who go whizzing about the country in powerful automobiles, late at night, were wise and good, their adventures would not be so disastrous. The fact is that few of them are good and none of them wise.

REPRESENTATIVE NOMINATIONS.

The motive that inspires the chief Democratic organ of Oregon, in its opposition to councils, assemblies or conventions, to direct party nominations, on the representative plan, is the desire to elect Democratic Senators and Governors and Mayors and other important officials in Oregon.

ANOTHER PHASE OF SUTTON CASE.

The latest and, in all kindness to those most nearly concerned, it may be feared, the last phase of the Sutton case has been reached. It was apparent from the first that the case would be given over to silence.

BYRON'S "MAID OF ATHENS."

It is just 100 years ago that Lord Byron arrived in Greece, where he wrote that beautiful poem, "The Maid of Athens," which says a Paris contemporary, every Englishman of culture knows by heart.
