He was ordered to open the safe, but said he could not. Several charges of dynamite were then placed under the safe, but with-

Northwestern Photographers Close Convention and Elect.

SEATTLE. Wash. Sept 16.—(Special.)—Photographers of the Pacific Northwest concluded a three days' session here today with the election of officers. If this convention has served no purpose but one, it has been a success in that the photographers have 'looked pleasant,' while men in their own profession told them what not to submit to newspapers in the way of copy for publication. Tonight they listened to an address by Will T. Hudson, staff photographer of a local daily newspaper, on the subject of 'Appropriate Copy for Newspapers," and they subsequently expressed their appreciation of Mr. Hudson's paper. Officers were elected as follows:

LOSS LESS THAN FEARED Damage to Flouring Mills Plant Now

Put at $300,000.

T. B. Wilcox, president of the Portland Flouring Mills Company, whose big plant was partially destroyed by fire Wednesday, has placed an estimate of the loss at $50,000. On the night of the destructive blaze the loss was estimated at $45,000. After a careful inspection of the wreck of the plant yesterday the loss was estimated at a figure amounting to $125,000 less than at first approximated.

Mr. Wilcox announced that a new mill with modern machinery and with a capacity of $500 barrels a day, will be erected on the site and will be ready for operation within six months. As soon as the underwriters complete their work, men will be engaged to remove the debris and clear the ground for a new structure. The new buildings will be of wood.

This is understood to be the correct statement of Pinchot's views. Just what will ultimately be done with him, no one seems competent to state. He may be permitted to remain, because his forestry work is good and has been indorsed by the Administration, but if he dees stay, it will be on condition that he hereafter conducts his office in strict accordance with law.

From what can be learned here, it is believed President Taft will take no action with regard to Pinchot until he returns from the West. At that time he and the Chief Forester will come to an understanding which will determine the future action.

Being thus thrown out by order of the President, Glavis cannot secure any other Government position, and it is now beyond the power of even Forester Pinchot to provide an official berth for his oversealous ally.

It has been decided that Glavis' attendance at the hearing of Cunningham coal land cases will not be necessary, as the evidence he has gathered is now in written form and will be presented by a special agent, James M. Sheridan, who will now have entire charge of this prosecution. Sheridan, after completing the hearing of the Cunningham cases, will return to Colorado.

No one has yet been chosen per-manently to fill Glavis' place.
