

OLIVARSON JARS YOUNG PREACHERS Ministers Who Lag "to Sell Real Estate" Scored by Patriarch.

WORDS HIT SOME PRESENT

Bishop Smith Does Not Demur to Grilling by Aged Rev. Joseph Hoberg, of McMinnville, at Oregon Conference.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Sept. 16.—(Staff Correspondence.)—Commercialism and the materialism of the young men of the ministry "to sell real estate or mining stock," were scathingly rebuked this morning in the business session of the Oregon Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in session here, by Rev. Joseph Hoberg, a superannuated, patriarch of McMinnville.

"I am almost ashamed to stand here now, old and infirm as I am," said the veteran preacher, "and sustain the pernicious relation to the conference, while I can stand on my feet, there is so much to be done. But, if you will pardon me, Bishop and brethren, I must say that I am ashamed of some young men who ask for superannuated relation when we all know they intend to sell real estate or engage in some other business, and Bishop, since coming to this conference, I have heard more preachers talking about what salaries are paid in certain churches than I have about how many souls they can save for God. It makes me heart-sick."

"Father" Flynn There.

"Father" John Flynn, the oldest preacher in the conference responded to the rebuke of the superannuated patriarch as bright as ever, but perceptibly more infirm in body. He spoke briefly, in his usual witty manner, provoking much laughter. "I am glad to know what you say," said "Father" Flynn, as he arose to address the conference. "This is the first time I ever knew an infirm man who did not know what to say," said Bishop Smith, whereat the conference enjoyed a hearty laugh. "Father" Flynn then recounted briefly his pioneer experiences in the first preacher in Portland and his after life. Much business was transacted this morning. Bishop Smith is rushing things rapidly. He said today that it may be necessary for him to hold a Sunday cabinet session, although the conference, as published yesterday, adopted a resolution against this. It is evident he will do as he pleases, as he is not bound by yesterday's decision.

Hillsboro Next Rendezvous.

Hillsboro will be the seat of the conference next Fall, that place having been designated this morning, when Rev. L. F. Belknap again extended an invitation. He said he did not know whether he will be there as pastor, and Bishop Smith remarked that it would be safe, as Hillsboro probably will still be there. The conference voted down a proposition to increase from three to four per cent of the pastors' salaries for the conference chairman's fund. Fraternal greetings were read from Dr. J. A. Ellison, of the Church of South Columbia, Conference, and Dr. C. T. Wilson, of Centenary Church, Portland, was elected fraternal delegate to that conference from this conference. This afternoon a novel parade passed from the Methodist Church down Main street to the city park. It was a large wagon laden with watermelons, followed by every preacher, and his wife, who could get away from conference duties long enough. The Commercial Club furnished the feast, which was a great feature.

Anniversary Is Honored.

Anniversary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society took place this afternoon. Mrs. E. J. Abbott, of Portland, presiding. Mrs. E. L. Albright, bureau secretary of the East Central States, and Miss Laura Hepp, of Cottage Grove, who is going to India as a missionary, spoke. The principal address was by Rev. A. E. Ayres, of Bombay. Tonight the anniversary of the Board of Home Missions and Christian Extension was observed. Rev. T. H. Downs presided and Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, of Portland, and Dr. W. H. W. Rees, of Seattle, spoke. Tomorrow the anniversary of the Laymen's Association of the Oregon conference will begin. R. A. Booth, of Eugene, is president. This organization meets with the conference annually, delegates being present from every church. It will be in session two days. Bishop Smith is gradually working out his pastoral assignment with his cabinet. The impression prevails that he will use a pretty firm hand and there may be some surprises.

OREGON PIONEER PASSES

Daniel Stinson Hunsaker Dies at Home in Lane County. EUGENE, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Daniel Stinson Hunsaker, a pioneer of Lane County, who crossed the plains to Oregon in 1837, died at the home of his daughter Mrs. William Preston here this morning. Daniel Hunsaker was born in Illinois June 9, 1822. The family moved to Missouri when he was a boy. In 1847 they crossed the plains by ox team and settled in Marion County. In 1849 the young man went to California where he handled redwood lumber. In 1853 he returned to his father's home and the next year took up a donation claim in Lost Valley. He was married in 1853 to Mary E. Hunsaker who died in 1883. He has the following children: Mrs. William Preston, Mrs. Hugh Hampton, Mrs. Anthony Rooney, Mrs. Clem Parker, Mrs. Andrew Miller, Thomas and E. D. Hunsaker.

SHUSE, SPOKANE; C. J. KENNEDY, SEATTLE; PROFESSOR M. ROBERTS, SEATTLE, AND ED. JENSEN, SPOKANE, HEAD. Four more are to receive credentials to attend the Congress at their own expense.

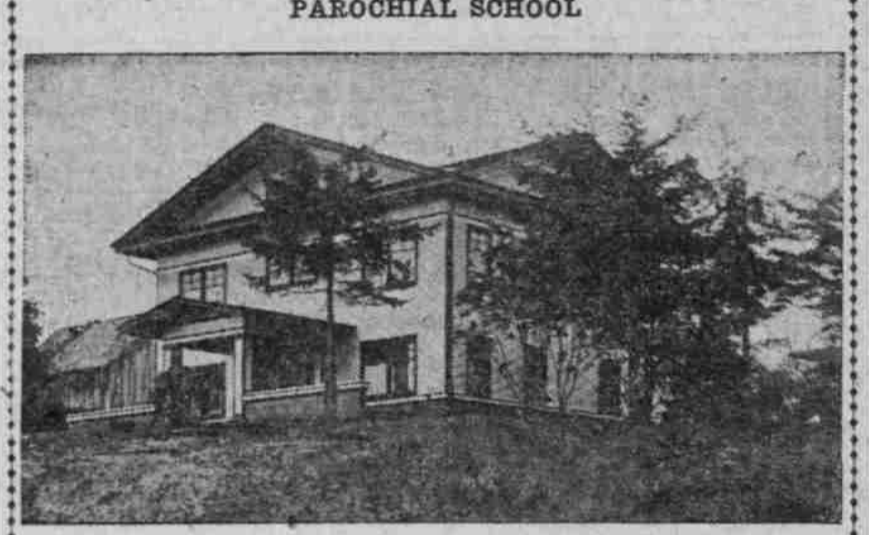

MAN IS HURT BY TRAIN

Carpenter at The Dalles Jumps and Lands on Head. THE DALLES, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—George Johnston, a carpenter, 40 years old, was seriously injured here this morning while alighting from an O. R. & N. passenger train. Johnston accompanied his sister, who was going to Hood River, to the depot, and rode as far as the Umattilla House, under the impression the train would stop there, as was the custom until recently. The train had attained a speed of 15 miles an hour, and Johnston, on alighting, struck on his head, sustaining several scalp wounds, although his skull was not fractured.

MARSHFIELD RESIDENCE WILL BE CONVERTED INTO PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

BUILDING FORMERLY USED AS RESIDENCE BY J. E. OREN. MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The residence of J. E. Oren, former manager of the C. A. Smith mill, which was purchased by the Catholic Church, will at once be converted into a parochial school for this parish. When Archbishop Christie, of Portland, visited the parish a few months ago he urged the establishment of a parochial school as one of the greatest needs of the church. The residence is probably the most handsome in the city and was erected about two years ago. It is situated on six lots on the top of a hill commanding a fine view and is across the street from the Catholic Church. The building is elegantly finished inside and has many rooms and will be well adapted to the needs of a school. There is a fine barn on the property and this will be converted into a schoolhouse for the boys. The price paid was $12,000.

COWLITZ POLITICIANS BUSY

Republicans Call Mass Meeting for September 18. KELS0, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The Republican County Central Committee of Cowlitz County has issued a call for a mass meeting to be held in the Kelso Theater Saturday, September 18, at 11 A. M. One representative will be present from each of the 35 precincts, and many other Republicans of Cowlitz County interested in the Congressional election. Fourteen delegates will be chosen at the meeting to represent Cowlitz County at Olympia, September 22. State Senator W. L. Stewart is the candidate of Cowlitz County for the office to be filled. A. E. Gwyn, chairman of the State Board of Control, is president of the Cowlitz County Central Committee, and I. N. Plimondar, assistant cashier of the Kelso State Bank, is secretary.

BOY MAKES ODD ESCAPE

Three Men Drive to Reform School. One Allights for Lad. SALEM, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Three men, driving to the State Reform School today, and one of them alighted and made place for Harry McKay, an inmate who was sent up from Portland for larceny. They then drove away.

WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

OAKLAND, Sept. 16.—Mrs. Margaret R. Rose, who says she is a ladies' tailor in business in Los Angeles, was brought to a hospital today by two railroad policemen, who said she had tried to throw herself into the bay at the Oakland mole. She had railroad tickets and baggage checks to Portland in her possession.

Catholics Plan Improvements.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The Catholic Church is planning extensive improvements in this part of the state. Recently a building for a parochial school was purchased in Marshfield and the priest in this city is to have a new home. Rev. Father Keavney, who was lately sent to Bandon by the archbishop, is planning the erection of a new church at Wedderburn, in Curry County, which is a part of the charge, and will also build a priest's house and probably a parochial school at Bandon.

Paving Causes Protest.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Another town is pricking the sides of the City Council, for after having accepted the paving work done in this city on West Main street, they were petitioned tonight to postpone further action until the matter has been investigated. Property owners, in a petition, state that the work has not been done in accordance with the specifications and do not wish it passed upon until the City Engineer has looked it over.

POSTMASTERS ARE READY

PRESIDENTIAL ASSOCIATION COMPLETES PROGRAMME. Convention to Begin in Portland September 22—Hitchcock to Address Body Last Day of Session.

CORVALLIS, Sept. 16.—The programme for the second annual convention of the Presidential Postmasters' Association of Oregon, which will meet at Portland September 22-23, is complete. The sessions will begin Wednesday at 10 A. M., Tom Richardson being scheduled for remarks at that time.

Addresses will be made as follows: "Postal Education," Squire Farrar of Salem; "Fishing with a Better Net," F. W. Yallie, superintendent 11th division, Seattle; "Sins of Omission and Commission," E. C. Clement, Postoffice Inspector, Portland. Thursday's sessions will be marked by the presence of Postmaster-General Hitchcock, who will give the postmasters pointers under the general heading, "The Postoffice Department." Other addresses during the day will be as follows: "Groceries and Hobbits," George W. Donnan, Grants Pass; "A Neglected Department," H. W. Johnson Corvallis; "Practical Suggestions," T. P. Randall, Oregon City.

The work of the association will end the afternoon of September 23 by the election of officers. The association now numbers 85 members.

Alaska Humphbacks Caught.

CASTLE ROCK, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Fishing was never better in the Cowlitz River and the stream emptying into it than it is at the present time. There is a fine run of salmon, and the salmon trout are in the river in large numbers, many fine catches being made by local sportsmen. The fish range in weight from one to five pounds and are fat, juicy and game. A local net fisherman has captured several Alaska, or Humphback, salmon, a species almost unknown in these waters.

May Bridge Lewis River.

WOODLAND, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—State Highway Commissioner Dowdy, accompanied by Chief Engineer Miller, of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, looked over the situation here today relative to a bridge across the north fork of the Lewis River. They did this at the instigation of the County Commissioners, and in connection with the proposed state road to commence at Seattle and run to Vancouver.

Falls Dead at Work.

GRESHAM, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—H. A. Kent, a recent arrival in Gresham, died suddenly while working in his yard early this morning. Death was due to heart failure. Mr. Kent was born in England, 25 years ago, and came to Portland in 1903, where he lived until his removal to this place only a few weeks ago. A widow, four sons and four daughters survive.

John Welsamand Succumbs to Tuberculosis at Oregon City.

OREGON CITY, Sept. 16.—(Special.)—John Welsamand, 78 years old, a resident of this vicinity since 1849, when he crossed the plains, died here today of tuberculosis, after a long illness. He is survived by a wife and three children, one of the daughters being Dr. Mrs. J. H. Howard, of Portland. The other children are Mrs. Dan Lyons and John Welsamand, of Oregon City. Mr. Welsamand was born in Germany in 1832 and when 16 years old went to New York, from which point he crossed the plains to Oregon. He was widely known throughout the state. He lived at 1229 Eleventh street, this city.

SALOONS LOSING IN IDAHO

Fremont County Votes Dry by Big Majority. REXBURGH, Idaho, Sept. 16.—The verdict of Fremont County people on the question of local option is overwhelmingly against the saloon. Returns from 34 precincts in the county, including St. Anthony, the county seat, show that 296 votes were polled for prohibition, as against 602 in favor of saloons.

Expert Teaching Packing.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The apple-growers of Coos County are going about their harvesting in a more systematic way this year than ever before. An expert packer from Portland has been secured and, with a number of men, will visit the different ranches and take charge of packing the apples. The organization of the County Fruit-Growers' Association resulted in the co-operation of the orchard owners in marketing their fruit.

BOY IS STRUCK BY TRUCK

Carl Bandroy Injured by Fire Apparatus. While playing in the street near his home at 274 1/2 Montgomery street yesterday afternoon, Carl Bandroy, the 5-year-old son of Charles Bandroy, was struck by Truck No. 2 of the Portland Fire Department, and badly injured. The child was knocked to the street by the horses and the front wheel of the truck ran over his arm which may have to be amputated.

Young Bandroy, who was playing with some other children, became excited when the apparatus went by in response to a still alarm, turned in from the Portland Lumber Company, foot of Lincoln street. He ran to the middle of the street just as Truck No. 2 dashed up. Driver "Billy" Taggart veered his horses sharply in an effort to avoid striking the boy, but could not prevent the accident.

Aviators After $10,000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Entries having closed yesterday, it was announced today that three aviators will participate in the $10,000 airship speed race from New York to Albany during the Hudson-Fulton celebration. Competitors will be Captain Thomas Baldwin, with a dirigible balloon; John Roeder, of White Plains, N. Y., with a combination aeroplane and dirigible balloon, and George E. Tomlinson, of Syracuse, N. Y., who will be accompanied by Horace R. Wild, of Chicago, in a dirigible.

Bleriot Promises Sensation.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—M. Bleriot, the French aviator, who is on a visit here, was the guest of honor at a banquet given last night by the Aeroplane Club. The Lord Mayor presided. Bleriot, in a speech of thanks, said he hoped that he would soon make a flight that would make his channel flight seem easy. The Lord Mayor, in behalf of the club, presented him with a gold cup.

Two Great Police Systems.

(William McAdoo's "The London Police from a New York Point of View" in the Century). There is one grave and radical difference between the conditions in these two great police systems—the reputation of the London detective for honesty, whatever it may be for efficiency, is absolutely unquestioned by either the public, whom they serve, or the law-breakers against whom they operate, and equally so is the honesty and integrity of the heads of the department, who make the selections and promotions in the force. This difference between the two forces is radical and far-reaching. The estimate in which the public hold the police is the measure of police efficiency. The New York po-
