Portland dropped both games of the Sunday bargain matines to Seattle yesrday, simply because the erratic work noticeable throughout the week continued. Errors were responsible for most of the scores recorded for the visitors. Joe Haggin, the Rainler recruit, lost his first game since joining Casey when he dropped the opening contest of the dogblo-header by experiencing one bad in-ning in which Seattle collected four runs to one lone score for Portland.

The second game was a joke, and became so right off the reel, for Irvin Gough had nothing more than a glove and very poor control. This combination contributed nine runs to the visitors on seven hits, while Portland's best effective or the second seven hits. forts with 13 hits was a quartet of tal-

In the opening game young Haggin was applanded all through the game, and, even though he was more or less respon sible for the quartet of runs registered against him in the fourth inning, he continued to hold the admiration of the tinned to hold the admiration of the fans. However, Haggin was doubly unfortunate in being sent against Gus Thompson on a dark day, for the big Settle man's fast ball made the Portland batsmen appear as pigmies, and during the engagement he fanned an even dozen. He only allowed four hits, and two of these were not forthcoming until the state between and ware fortiless.

error and Shea's Texas leaguer back of short, which, with a couple of outs, gave Scattle four runs. After that Joe was invincible and pitched gilt-edged ball. Portland's lone run was collected in the first on Adams' double, Breen's sacrifice and Casey's squeeze bunt.

The second game was a comedy of er-rors and loains, which disgusted the crowd. Had it not been for the number of hits secured by Portland, it is doubtof his second one would have remained throughout the contest.
