

PERISH IN DIXIE STORM

Casualty List in Southern Hurricane Is Steadily Growing.

MILES OF TRACK GONE

Thousands of Men Work to Restore Communication—Telephone, Telegraph and Railroads Are All Badly Crippled.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 23.—At least 100 persons lost their lives in the tropical hurricane that swept the Gulf coast Monday, according to conservative estimates made tonight.

Thousands of men worked today trying to get telegraph, telephone and railroad communication into shape, but with indifferent success.

Carcasses of cows, horses, hogs and dogs strewn the prairie for miles and hundreds of dead birds and muskrats are floating on the waters of the bayous.

The bodies of three fishermen were found today in the Louisiana marshes several miles east of New Orleans.

Two persons were killed by the collapse of a house near Clinton, La.

No traces of the crew of nine men on the steamer Seven Brothers, wrecked near the Rigolets, 25 miles east of New Orleans, has been discovered.

A relief expedition, equipped by the Louisiana Game Commission, left New Orleans today for the Gulf coast, going direct to Lake Catherine.

The dozens of more relief expeditions which left New Orleans at the earliest moment after the hurricane, are pushing their way along the coast to adjacent territory, dealing out food, clothing and emergency supplies of all kinds to the destitute people.

Although the suffering of many storm victims has been greatly relieved, a mile of coast is traversed where victims are found in a deplorable condition.

Several expeditions are expected to return to New Orleans late today, but others will be sent out to take their places.

SUPPLIES GO TO MEXICO

Flood Sufferers at Monterey Are Receiving Relief.

MONTEREY, Mex., Sept. 23.—Eight pack trains of ten mules each have been sent out from this city loaded with clothing and food supplies for the flood sufferers in the district adjacent to Monterey.

At Tampica, Consul-General Hanna chartered a seagoing tug, which has been sent along the coast to Soledad Marin.

Food Goes by Mule Train. WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Consul-General Hanna, in a report today to the State Department, says food by mule trains is being hurried to the flood sufferers in the Mexican district.

Musical Play Opens at Bungalow

"The Time, the Place and the Girl," With Good Cast and Sprightly Chorus, Well Received.

CAST. Pedro.....Jack Kingston Mrs. Telcott.....May Bouton Molly Kelly.....Elizabeth Thomas Rod Simpson.....Raymond T. Daisey

THURSDAY, Friday and Saturday is "The Time, the Place and the Girl." The Bungalow is the "Place," and charming Jessie Huston in the leading role is "The Girl."

This sparkling musical play has a real plot, an almost unheralded event in its world. Since its successful appearance in Portland last year, an introduction to "The Time, the Place and the Girl" is hardly necessary, and the audience last night was an enthusiastic attestation that the charms of the play are of the unfulfilling variety.

It is of particular interest to many Portlanders to know that Robert G. Pitkin is seen with this company in the principal comedy part, Happy Johnson. The good-natured gambler, Mr. Pitkin was here two years ago with the Kendall Musical Stock Company, and is well known in the Coast cities.

BOOZE TABOOED AT O. A. C. Faculty Also Forbids Use of Tobacco on College Campus.

BUNGO GAME HUGE

Iowa Grand Jury Indicts Gang of 84 Swindlers.

HALF-MILLION IS LOST

Victims Said to Have Been Fleeced of Amounts Ranging From $100 to $30,000 by James C. Maybray and His Associates.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Sept. 23.—James C. Maybray and 84 alleged associates were today indicted by the United States grand jury for the southern district of Iowa, charged with conspiring to defraud by illegal use of the United States mails. With the exception of Maybray and three or four others, none of those indicted is in custody, and for this reason the names of the defendants were not made public.

Although specific amounts are not mentioned in the indictment, it is authoritatively stated that the amounts lost by the supposed victims of Maybray and others named will exceed a million dollars.

As a basis of operations, Maybray and his aides used, according to the indictment, Council Bluffs, Davenport and Burlington, Iowa; St. Louis, Little Rock, Seattle, Denver and New Orleans, to which places it is charged valuable letters were sent.

One of these letters is dated from Seattle and invites "friend John," who it is said, is Maybray himself, to go to New York, declaring, "I have a town right across the river from New York in Jersey, a swell track and absolute protection. The Sheriff and prosecutor and police will be absolutely right on the job during the working hours."

In a letter written a few days later, the same man writes that the location referred to is only 20 minutes' ride from the heart of New York, and that it is "a thing." It can be done for $75 a week, "which will cover everything, that is the Sheriff, the Chief and Prosecuting Attorney."

KIEV JEWS NOT KILLED

DISTURBANCES ONLY OF MINOR NATURE.

Small Clash Between Semites and Reactionaries Starts Report of Massacre.

KIEV, Sept. 23.—There has been no massacre of Jews in Kiev, the news, however, seen some slight disorders which apparently have been the foundation for sensational reports sent abroad.

On September 7 a reactionary mob in a Jewish suburb, a number of Jews then attacked a tea-house where a reactionary meeting was in progress. They broke the windows and demanded that the leader be delivered into their hands.

Instead of complying, the reactionaries sallied forth and attacked the Jews. In the struggle a few persons were wounded. The affair was in no way serious. The Jews in Kiev knew nothing of what had transpired, in spite of the fact that Slobodka is just across the river from this city.

Again on September 21 there was another encounter of no importance, and these were promptly put down by three policemen.
