gen, who are holding their annual meeting in this city, relaxed this evening into a fun-loving mood and turned their attention to pleasantries. The special train from Portland conveying visiting Sir Knights and ladies arrived in Baker City this morning at o'clock, and almost the entire city turned out to welcome the visitors. Decorated tally-hos, automobiles and carriages conveyed the women of the party from the station and a line of march was formed by the knights. Bands of music headed the procession as it moved up Center street to the Masonic Temple. Immedi-ately the commandery went into executive session and took up routine business.

A midday lunch was served for all visitors, including the women, at the Elka' Auditorium, after which the commandery reconvened. Reports from the different officers showed a marked gain in membership during the past year and the treasurer's report indicated a very healthy financial condition. There was no rivalry is the election of officers.

At 5 o'clock in the evening the Shriners' parade took place and attracted a large crowd. Headed by the band, Shriners paraded through the business section of the city, followed by the Arab patrol and nobles who escorted the candidates for the Shrine, dressed in grotesque costumes and thoroughly roped and tied.

POWDER RIVER IRRIGATION COMPANY FAVORED.

Surveys for Project Need Not Be Completed Before February 1, Says State Land Board.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 23 .- (Special.) -At meeting of the Desert Land Board today it was voted to extend the time of the Powder Valley Irrigation Company to February 1, 1910, in which to complete its surveys in the Lower Powder River Valley project. The Powder Valley Company is the successor of O. P. Finkelnburg & Co. At the meeting today the company made an excellent day the company made an excellent showing. Its maps and other data indicated that the work of surveying has been well done and has reached an advanced stage. The company has already expended over $20,000 in making these preliminary surveys.

The board today authorized the segregation of the land on the part of the state and appointed State Engineer John H. Lewis belecting agent, with the understanding that the irrigation company is to pay all deposits, fees and other expenses incurred by the state in segregating the land under the Carey act.

MORE MAY DIE THREE

Returning at Daybreak From Midnight Revelry at Roadhouse, Party of Four Men and Four Girls Meet Fatal Accident.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 22.-An allnight automobile "joy ride" of eight young people, four men and four women ended at Caybreak this morning when the car of the revolers, returning at furious speed from the roadhouse district south of the city, plunged through a railing of a trestie at Fourth avenue and Weller street and took fire, killing two girls, injuring another woman and two men so seriously that they may die, and causing serious but not fatal injury to a man and a woman. The dead are:

Goldie Porter, aged 17, clerk in a large department store; parents live in Sedroended at caypreak this morning when department store; parents live in Sedro-Woolley, Wash.

Jessie Mabel Johnson, aged 18, tele-phone operator; aunt of Miss Porter and also from Sedro-Wooley.

Three More May Die. The injured:
Winnie E, Fraser, aged 21, restaurant

Fleeing Chauffeur Arrested. Henry Hiser, aged 19, in charge of the machine, was only slightly hurt. He pulled one woman from the wreck and, pulled one woman from the wreck and, without further effort to help his dying companions, ran away. An hour later he was arrested at his home and taken to the City Jail to await the Coroner's verdict. He denied indignantly the statement of an eye-witness that the car was running 40 miles an hour and said the speed was not over 35. He also said that he was sober, having taken only four drinks.

A fire company took the dead and injured from the ruins of the car.

Mrs. Porter, mother of one of the wreck victims, waited long this morning for her daughter to keep an appointment with her at the Bon Marche store, where the girl worked. When her daughter did not come, the mother worried, but the department manager, who knew the truth, had not a heart to tell her. A newspaper reporter broke the news to her gently and she began the long trainp from hosand she began the long tramp from hos-pital to hospital. She gazed anxiously at each face, but not till the morgue was reached did she recognize in the cold form on the slab all that was mortal of her happy, vivacious little gilr. Miss Christina Anderson thus tells of the events leading up to the fatal accident:
"I remember that the driver amused himself, and thought he was amusing us, by seeing how near he could run to telephone poles and fences without striking them. We warned him, but he only leading the warned was all feeling pretty sould them. We warned him, but the laughed. We were all feeling pretty good. ABERDEEN MAN'S FRIENDS PICK HIM TO WIN.

Proposed Southwestern Washington Caucus Expected by Them to Nominate Him.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 23.-(Special.) The friends of Edward C. Finch, the Chehalis County candidate for the Repub can nomination for Congress in the Se ond District, express themselves as being very well satisfied with his prospects.

Edward C. Fineh, Aberdeen Canfor Congressman from Second Washington Bistrict.

The papers even in those counties which have candidates of their own acknowledge that Finch is making a strong race. Finch has lived here for something over a quarter of a century, and during that time has displayed those qualities which make his friends think he is the best man in the district to fill the place of the late F. W. Cushman. He has waged a campaign that is characteristic of him. the consented to run only after the citizens of Aberdeen and the Chehalls County Republican Committee had met and requested him to do so. Then he went into the fight in earnest, and his whirl-wind methods have kept his opponents

Mr. Finch is outspoken in favor of a southwest combine. He thinks Pierce County has dictated the politics of the district long enough, and that the time has now arrived when the smaller counties should get together and place all their strength behind one man. He wants a caucus of the entire district outside Pierce County to decide upon the man to be placed before the convention, and as the other candidates also favor such a as the other candidates also favor such a move, there is every indication that the nomination will be made on the first ballot, and that a southwest man will get it.

That Finch will be that man his friends deem certain.

Edward Corwin Finch was born in Warren County. Ohlo, in 1862, and has that first requisite for greatness as a statesman, for he was born on a farm. The first 29 years of his life were spent in Ohlo and Michigan. In the Spring of 1882 he came West, spending the first year or so in Colorado. Nevada and Callfornia, working on the rallroad section, in the harvest field and in a lumber-yard. In 1883 he took up his permanent residence in Chehalis County, opening the first real estate office in the county, at Montesano. When the fownsite of Aberdeen was opened, in 1884, he came here, and found his first employment as editor and publisher of Aberdeen's first newsand found his first employment as editor and publisher of Aberdeen's first newspaper, the Herald. He has owned and edited three different newspapers at various times. In 1894 he was married to Miss Anna M. Pierson, and three children have resulted from the union.

Since quitting newspaper work, about 15 years ago, Mr. Finch has been actively engaged in a number of useful enterprises, including the financing and building of the splendid street and interurban electric railway system in and connect-ing the three Grays Harbor cities. His latest achievement has been the erection of a large five-story fireproof office build-ing in this city, modern in every detail, and now nearing completion—the finest structure of its kind in Southwestern Washington-owned by the Finch Investment Company, a company organized b

TOWNSEND JURY FAILS Charge of Long Standing Is Tried in Umatilla County.

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 23 .- (Special.)proposal to purchase the city dock for $5,000. The Mayor and Councilmen Hiler, Brown, Cook, A. W. Davis and J. W. Davis favor the acceptance of the proposition as a means of securing a new industry for the city, and also of relieving it of a burden of interest, insurance and depreciation amounting in their council. After being out all night, the jury in the case of V. A. Townsend, of Freewater, accused of violating the local-option law, falled to agree and was discharged. Dis-trict Attorney Phelps says the accused man will be given a second trial. The offense for which Townsend was tried was alleged to have been committed about three years ago. He was indicted a year ago, and his trial has been delayed by the absence of witnesses from the state. A. W. Brown and George Darveau, the two local hotel men, have entered pleas of not guilty to the charge of violating the local-option law. It is understood, however, that their pleas will be changed to guilty when the time for trial comes. It is said they are afraid the Council would revoke their near-beer licenses if they should plead now, and that they are desirous of postponing the matter until the excitement has subsided.
