WILL ENERGY CLUBROUSE.-The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company will erect a clubhouse for the carmen near its carbains, at the south side of Sell-wood, at the Golf Linkz. Plans are being drawn for this building. It will be two-story, of brick construction, 2029 feet. This building will be used by the em-ployes of the company as a clubhouse for that part of the street railway sys-tem embracing Oregon City, Sellwood, Milwaukie, Mount Scott, Waverly-Rich-mond and Woodstock branches. In the lower part of the building there will be a reporting department, storeroom, lunch-room, superintendent's office and batha reporting department, storeroom, funch-room, superintendent's office and bath-rooms. On the second floor will be located the reading, smoking, library, billiard, recreation, lounging and several small bedrooms for use of belated em-ployee. It is estimated that the building will cost $10,000, and is one of a number of similar clubhouses the com-pany intends to erect in the vicinity of the different carbarns. Plans and specifi-callons will be ready for the figuring in a short time. WANT PARE IMPROVED .- At a meeting WANT PARK IMPROVED.—At a meeting of the Kenilworth Push Club in the Kenilworth Presbyterian Church Monday night, R. D. Merchant, presiding, it was decided to ask that the new park re-cently purchased be improved. It will be asked that the brush be cut out, and that the main portion- of the natural growth on the tract be retained. The cost of these improvements, it was esti-mated, will not be very heavy. It was decided that at the next meeting of the club the question of sewerage for Kenil-worth be considered. Two main branches of the general system will run on the worth be considered. Two main branches of the general system will run on the south and north sides of Kenilworth and to these conduits the laterals will be built. It was reported at the meeting that proceedings for these two laterals have been started in the City Council and that the plans for them have been drawn by the City Engineer. The pur-pose of the club is to have every street lateral put down in a district, as it is considered that the work can be done at less expense as a whole. ENTERTALS GRAND SIRE-Grand Sire

ENTERTAIN GRAND SIME-Grand Sire Kuykendall, of the supreme grand lodge of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, will be entartained tonight at the hall of Orient Lodge, No. 17, East Sixth and East Alder streets. There will be a short East Alder streets. There will be a short secret sension up to $ P. Today the grand size will be taken throughout Portland by the general committee ap-pointed by the Portland lodges for that purposes. He is at the Portland Model for that proses. He is at the Portland Hotel present. For the reception tonight a neral invitation has been issued by Grand Secretary Sharon to all Oddfellows in the city and surroundings.

POPULAR CARLINE.-The carline which uns from Killingsworth and Albina visues to the stockyards, on the Peninsula, has spring into popularity from the start. Sunday the facilities for handling the crowds who wanted to visit the stockyards were not adequate to the ra-guirements. A single track was built with switches to Kenton. This was ex-pected to handle the burgings, but en-

Users PURCHASE OF MORE GROUND.-The North Albina and the North East Side Improvement Associations have committees out to urge the purchase of three more blocks, or 29 lots, between the Jefferson High School building and Killingsworth avenue. J. H. Nolta, who originated the plan to secure this prop-erty, said yesterday that the city will make a great mistake if it fails to secure these lots and make it possible to have a park between the splendid new school building and Killingsworth avenue. Al-ready buildings are being projected along Killingsworth to occupy the property, which will shut off access to Killings-worth avenue. Mr. Nolta reports that the Board of Education is anxions that the city secure the property, but has not the money to buy it with, and the Park Board is being urged to purchase the lots. L. Kuykendall, grand sire of the sovereign grand lodge, Order of Oddfel-lows, will be tendered a reception this evening, by local Oddfellows. He was in Portland yesterday on his way from Se-ettle, where the sovereign grand lodge has been in session, to his home in Sarahas been in session, to his home in Shra-toga, Wyo. A large attendance of Odd-fellows and Rebekahs is expected at the reception. Judge Kuykendall was the first Probate Judge ever elected in Wyoming Territory, and was later elected to the Territorial Legislature for several terms. He organized the first hook and indder company in Cheyenne, and when Deadwood was started, took part in the first provisional government and when Deadwood was started, took part in the first provisional government and organized the first fire company in that city. He was judge of the impro-vised tribunal which in 1876 acquitted Mc-Call, the slayer of "Wild Bill" Hickok. Grand Sire Kuykendall has been an Odd-fellow for 43 years and has represented for 25 years the grand lodge of Wyoning in the sovereign grand lodge.
