

CITY WELLS CHIEF OF NATION TODAY

Portland Will Outdo Itself to Make President Taft and Party at Home.

SPECIAL DUE AT 7 A. M.

Honored Guest Will Ride in Parade This Morning. Review School Children on Multnomah Field. Speak at Armory at Night.

PERSONNEL OF PRESIDENTIAL PARTY. President William Howard Taft. Captain Archibald W. Hart, U. S. A. A. D. C. President's military and social attendant. Wendell W. Mitchell, assistant secretary. John Hays Hammond, noted engineer. Charles C. Wagner, James Sloan, Joseph E. Murphy, Secret Service operatives. Dr. J. J. Richardson, President's physician. Garritt Ford, N. Y. Central Road. Robert Small, Associated Press. Robert H. Hazard, United Press. E. A. Fowler, N. Y. Sun Association. William Hooper, Hearst News Service. Sherman P. Allen, N. Y. Herald. Harry L. Dunlap, N. Y. World.

(Continued From First Page.) The guest of honor at a spread, in which toothsome Oregon viands will form the menu. Covers will be laid for 121. The luncheon will consume an hour, or thereabout after which the President will be left to his own wishes. It is believed, press of private matter not intervening, he will avail himself of an invitation to play golf. Dinner will be served to him privately with his immediate party.

Speaks at Armory Tonight. At 7:45 P. M. he will be driven to the Armory, Tenth and Couch streets, with an honorary escort of troops. Here he will address the public, returning to his suite at 10 o'clock. The only other fixed event of his stay will be the dedication ceremony at the First Universalist Church, East Twenty-fourth and Broadway streets, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The forenoon and early afternoon tomorrow will be spent by him as he sees fit, probably in resting up from the rigors of continued travel in his 400-mile journey. He will depart with his party on the Presidential special at 6 P. M. for California.

No detail has been overlooked in providing for the President's comfort and pleasure during his stay in the city. The suite put aside for him at the Portland empowers the entire second wing of the second floor. The south entrance of the hotel is reserved especially for him and the south elevator will be placed exclusively at his disposal. Special attendants will look after his suite and a special waiter will attend him at his meals. In his choice of food he will at no time be confined to the regular menus. Special chefs will be prepared any dish, simple or complex, for which he may ask.

President's Sleep to Be Guarded.

That he may not be disturbed at night arrangements have been made to station a military patrol at the south of the hotel to prevent gatherings or heavy traffic. No person, except the President's party, will be permitted to enter the hotel from the south portal, and no hotel guests will be permitted to walk into the south wing on the second floor. The entrance, as well as the corridors on the first and second floors of the south wing have been finely decorated in flowers, potted plants, bunting and Fall foliage.

The city's decorations were being generously placed yesterday afternoon and last night. Flags, bunting, pictures of the President and placards bearing words of welcome were hung in profusion throughout the business district. The array will be largely supplemented this morning, as many feared their decorations might be spoiled by possible showers in the night.

Two platoons of police, in personal command of Chief of Police Cox, will accompany the President during his various public processions this morning. A mounted platoon, commanded by Captain Bailey will ride a short distance in the rear of the President's carriage and a foot platoon will march ahead of the line to clear the streets. Policemen stationed at brief intervals along the line of procession will face the crowds while the President is passing.

DECORATIONS ON EAST SIDE

Streets Over Which President Will Pass Bower of National Colors.

The East Side Business Men's Club will decorate East Morrison street between the bridge and Grand avenue, and Grand avenue between East Morrison street and Sullivan's Gulch, this morning. Large and small flags will be used. The larger flags will be hung near the middle of the street and the smaller ones along the outside. Ropes will be used between the poles along the sides of the street on which to suspend the flags. According to the plan adopted, East Morrison street and Grand avenue will be a bower of National colors, under which President Taft will pass with his escort Sunday afternoon on his way to lay the cornerstone of the First Universalist Church, on East Twenty-fourth street and Broadway. Some of the business men have begun making some private decorations. The most notable of these is that at the office of Architect Otto Kiehnman, on Grand avenue north of East Burnside street. Mr. Kiehnman made a sketch yesterday of the President, with the smile emphasized, which he has placed in his front window, draped with the National colors.

WILL STOP AT OREGON CITY

Taft Agrees to Make Appearance on Rear Platform of Train.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—The President will gladly have train stop at Oregon City five minutes Sunday evening.

This welcome message was received here by Mayor Carl late this afternoon, after he had been trying for the last 24 hours, through the medium of United States Senator Bourne and the President's secretary, to halt the Presidential train at this point. President Taft will leave Portland Sunday.

day, at 6 P. M. for California and his train will arrive at Oregon City at 6:41, remaining here five minutes. The President will not leave the train, but will probably make a brief talk from the rear platform. Mayor Carl is planning to have the overhead stairways and platforms above the Southern Pacific depot reserved for women and children and the latter will be provided with American flags. The depot grounds will be brilliantly illuminated with electric lights, and the population of this city will turn out en masse to see the Chief Executive of the Nation.

CHOICE SALMON, TAFT MORSEL

Two Royal Chinooks, Weighing 72 Pounds, Picked for Luncheon.

Two royal Chinook salmon, splendid specimens of their kind, will form the piece of resistance at the luncheon in honor of President Taft, this afternoon. The salmon, weighing 72 pounds, were selected after a search extending a week in the fishing waters about the bay. They were donated by S. Schmidt & Company who had the entire force of fishermen looking out for suitable fish during the past week. They will be especially prepared for the banquet by an expert chef.

Oregon products will form the most delectable viands of the menu at both breakfast and luncheon. Rock oysters have been forwarded from Newport for the occasion, as have fine potatoes from Coos Bay, apples from Hood River and pears from Medford.

MAKE SHORT TALK AT SALEM

Plan to Have Stop-Off at Capital Falls Through.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—President Taft's train will stop here for 15 minutes Sunday evening and the President will make a short talk from the rear of his car. An effort was made to have him come to Salem on the Oregon Electric Sunday afternoon and take his train at this point, but the plan fell through.

Tickets for Students of Davis School.

By mistake, the pupils of the Davis school, at Twenty-first and Raleigh streets, did not receive their tickets yesterday for admission this morning to the Multnomah Field, where President Taft will review the school children of the city at 11 o'clock. Professor J. MacCormac, principal of the school, has the tickets for his pupils and has placed them in the hands of the teachers to be distributed to the pupils between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning. Accordingly, all pupils of the Davis school are requested to report at the school this morning at 8:30, when they will receive tickets to the exercises.

HELD FOR SELLING PASSES

Railway Clerk and Cigar Dealer in Trouble With Road

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Charles H. Williams, chief clerk in the storekeeper's department of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and Philip Newman, a cigar dealer, who were arrested yesterday on charges of having disposed fraudulently of railroad tickets and divided the profits, appeared in Police Court today.

Both felony and misdemeanor charges have been placed against the men. Williams' position with the railroad was a responsible one and by applying to General Manager E. E. Calvin he was able to procure passes, ostensibly to be used by other employees.

The charge is that he obtained a number of these passes and sold them through cigar dealers.

EASTERN EXCURSION.

Chicago and return $72.50. Tickets on sale October 4 at O. R. & N. city ticket office. Third and Washington streets.

CURB TO BE FACED

Police Must Stand With Back to Taft.

ORDER ONE OF SAFETY

Chief Wilkie Assures Force President Approves Precaution—Details Carefully Arranged. Guard to Be Thorough.

CLOUDY, LITTLE RAIN, IS TODAY'S FORECAST.

Threatening weather, cloudy but without much rain, is the official prediction issued by District Forecaster Beals for today. The chances that rain will dampen the celebration outlined in honor of President Taft are slight. The special forecast for today as issued by Mr. Beals, follows:

"Portland is near the northern boundary of a rainy area which is central over Northern California and drifting very slowly eastward. In the last 24 hours moderately heavy rains fell in the Sacramento Valley and in Southern Oregon but none of consequence fell in the Willamette Valley. The proximity of this rain area, however, causes cloudy weather in this vicinity and the indications are that it will last another day and that Saturday, while cloudy and threatening a good part of the time will be a day without much rain."

Elaborate plans have been made by Chief of Police Cox that every member of the Police Department may lend every effort toward the safety of President Taft's party in the two days of its visit to Portland. All the men on the force will be required to do extra duty, and, aside from the details made to police the streets at every public appearance, the department, as a whole, has been instructed to keep a sharp lookout for undesirable who are sure to be among the throngs.

Dress coats and white gloves with either military or turndown collars and black ties have been ordered for the department. Acting upon the suggestion of John W. Wilkie, Chief of the Secret Service the local police have been instructed on all occasions to face the crowds instead of the President. As the President will understand the necessity of this arrangement no discounting will be felt by him.

The Municipal Court will be held at 8:30 o'clock this morning, instead of the usual hour, and that policemen who have made arrests which would require their presence in court may be excused, they have been instructed to write out full reports of each case and leave them with their captain at the time of the arrest.

Instructions have been issued to keep the streets entirely clear along the lines of march for the President's parades, and vehicles and streetcars will not be allowed on the streets where the Executive party passes. In connection with the parades, Captain Moore will have charge of a company of 25 men to head the line of march. Captain Bailey will superintend policing of the streets, Captain Glover will remain in charge of police headquarters, and Captain Baty will direct the movements of the detective staff, whose duty it will be to safeguard the public, principally from pickpockets.

For the entry of President Taft into the city, seemingly no precaution has

A permanent mounted escort of two men will ride next the President's carriage on all occasions.

CAUSE SPOKANE DROUTH

Drys Expect Victory Before Christmas in Washington Towns.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—"Within three weeks petitions will be started calling for a local option election for the unincorporated portion of Spokane County and before Christmas this county will have gone dry 2 to 1," says District Superintendent Lewis R. Horton, of the Anti-Saloon League. "In order to secure an election we must have petitions signed by at least 20 per cent of the qualified voters. The election will be held before Christmas."

"Between now and Christmas 24 towns in the State of Washington will vote on the local option issue, according to present figures, and it will swell to 50 towns in the near future. About half of this number are on the east side. Stevens County will undoubtedly go dry on November 2. The only question now is the size of the majority.

"There will be a big fight on in Davenport December 21. There is a political hotbed there, with the politicians inclined to the dry side. The tendency of the campaign in this county is along business lines."

RIVALS BLOW OPEN SAFE

Water Users' Association Records Are Taken by Force.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—The fight in the Umatilla Water Users' Association was brought to a climax last evening, according to reports received from Hermiston today. The trouble has been between the so-called "old" and "new" boards, and while F. A. Yates, secretary of the old board, was in Pendleton, in answer to a summons requiring him to appear and show why he was not in contempt of court for failing to turn over the records and seal of the association to George Upthegrove, the new secretary, members of the new board broke into Yates' office, dynamited the safe and took the records and seal.

That this will lead to further suits and more litigation is inevitable, though no legal steps have been taken as yet. The controversy between the rival boards of managers dates from the annual meeting last January, which broke up in a quarrel and resulted in the selection of two boards. So far the "new" board has been successful in the courts, though the "old" board has appealed from every decision and is still fighting.

PIG SMUGGLER IS FINED

Sumas Farmer Pleads Guilty and is Fined $800.

TACOMA, Oct. 1.—William Reese, a farmer of Sumas, Wash., near the international boundary line, was fined $800 and costs in the Federal Court this morning for having smuggled a dressed pig across the border from British Columbia to the United States. He pleaded guilty and paid the fine.
