FIND USE FOR WASTE COAL

Dust Accumulation at Mouth of Mines to Be Briquetted.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Oct 1.—Special.)

—The Coos Bay Coal Briquetting Company has been organised with a capital of $20,000. The company has secured from W. A. Thies the patent right on the process of converting Coos Bay coal into briquets. The purpose is to establish immediately The purpose is to establish immediately a demonstration plant with a view of later making briquets on a large scale, utilizing fine coal, which is otherwise wasted at the mines. The members of the new company are Hugh McLain, Frank Laise, James Baines, Alvin Smith, E. F. Flanagan, D. J. Reese and W. A. Thies.
