Billy Reldy was so anxious to get at least one game from Portland that he trotted out Jimmy Wiggs to turn the trick yesterday. Jimmy, though, was enjoying one of his bad days and before he had gone far his wildness caused his manager to toss all kinds of nervous fits and finally resulted in Slim" Nelson being delegated to the nound. However, despite the change of twirlers. Al Carson managed to white wash the visitors, while Portland scored a total of four runs, three of which were started towards the register because of the erratic twirling of the tail chap. Carson was found a good deal oftener and was hit quite a bit harder than were

Wiggs and Nelson, but he was the stead-fer in pinches and only contributed one Wiggs walked a trio, while Nelson came through with a couple of tickets. All these did not count, but both twirlers made scores possible by erratic work afterwards. Carl Lewis had difficulty holding the wild shoots of Wiggs, and his first passed bill really gave the home club for Portland with a two-sack drive to center, and passes to McCredie and Fisher filled the bases. One of Wigge' shoots got away from Lewis and Johnson scored While Ort was at but and Wiggs showed ne signs of steadying down, Reidy hoisted the distress signal and trotted "Slim" Nelson to the rescue. Ort popped a fly to Happy Bill Hogan, but Lewis experienced another passed ball and McCredle regis-tered. Nelson then butted in with a wild pitch and Fisher rang up the third run

Portland's fourth tally was added in the fifth inning, when Graney reached first on Bill Hogan's low toes to Cam-eron and galloped all the way to third on a second wild pitch by the attenuated southpaw. Ote Johnson then sent a long skyscraper to Duffy Lewis and Graney

Oakland bunched three hits in the minth fining, one of which was a two-bagger, but a lucky combination of circumstances prevented a score. Carroll led off with a swipe to left, on which he tried for two bags, but was thrown out by Speas. Duffy Lewis beat out an infield tap. Maggert filed to Speas and Happy Bill hit for two sacks, but Graney retrieved the ball in time to hold Duffy Lewis at third. Cameron could not get the ball by Cooney and the game was over.

The same teams are scheduled to meet again this afternoon, and tomorrow after-noon there will be a bargain day doubleheader, with the first game starting at 2 o'clock. Jesse Garrett will pitch for Portland today, while Oakland will depend upon young Johnson, a new twirler being

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 1 .- (Special.) -Edward Kennedy, late of Iowa, stole today's game for Portland. The final score was: Portland 4, Spokane 3. But for the grand larceny performances of Kennedy, it would have been Spokane 2, Portland 0, or thereabouts Kennedy stole home twice; he stole third twice and he stole second once. There was no other base left for him to steal, but that's a new Northwestern League record as it is. He made his steals in every conceivable manner, a clean steal by a long slide, a long lead as the pitcher was winding up, a bluff steal with a runner on third and a double steal, working with a runner from first base. The last time he purloined home he didn't even slide. Incidentally, Kennedy was the only Portland man who ould do anything with Killalay.

Jack earned a shutout, and but for Burnett's errors and a slow return by James of Spencer's throw to break up an attempted double steal, he should have had his shutout. Pinnance was hard to hit in the pinches and nearly half the Indians' George Ort pulled off a fine play yesterday which helped extricate Carson out of what might have been a tight hole. He grabbed Cutshaw's hot grounder and doubled Cameron at second.

Billy Speas made nice running catches of the drives from the bats of Carl Lewis and Maggert in the eighth and ninth innings. Billy also fielded Carroll out at second in nifty fashion.

pinches and nearly half the Indians' nine accredited bingles were infield hits that were partly foozled by the Colts. Pinnance himself let a couple get away. The Indians made another sensational ninth-inning rally that all but caught the fighting Colts. Clynes was on third and Brown on second with only one out, and Brinker and Altman, two of the best hitters on the team up, but Pinnance squeezed out of any more trouble by the skin of his teeth.
