SAMUEL HANDSAKER DEAD

Well-Known Oregon Pioneer of 1853 Dies Near Eugene.

known pioneers of Lane County, died at Dexter yesterday, after a lingering illness. Uncle Sam Handsaker, as everyone knows him, was born at Hatfield, Derbyshire, England, November 13, 1831. He came to the United States in 1843, landing at New Orleans on March 25. In 1853 he crossed the plains by ox-team and settled in the Umpqua Valley near Oakland, in 1854. As soon as trouble broke out with the Southern Oregon Indians, Handsaker enlisted under Captain Laban Buoy, Company B, Oregon Volunteers, and later did service under Captain P. C. Noland. In 1855 the differences between the whites and the Indians were adjusted, and in November of that year he married Miss Sarah Johnson Cannon, at her parents' home, on Camas Swale, Douglas County, Oregon. In 1859 Mr. and Mrs. Handsaker moved to Dexter, Lane County, Oregon, where they lived until 1895, when they moved to Eugene. Besides his wife, he leaves the following children: G. W. Handsaker, of Portland; Mrs. J. M. Keeney and E. R. Handsaker, of Eugene; Mrs. J. M. Guley, of Ashland; Mrs. W. G. Guley, of Davenport, Wash.; T. S. Handsaker, of Davenport, Wash.; J. J. Handsaker, of Arleta, Or.

GRANT SEEKS HIS BONDS

CALIFORNIA MAN IS TRYING TO RECOVER $40,000. Replevins Papers He Says Were Taken From Bank by Fraud. Defendants Claim Debts.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Ulysses S. Grant, of Santiago, Cal., is in Omaha to recover $40,000 worth of Omaha Independent Telephone bonds, which got away from him through some high finance in the Far West.

The First National Bank of Omaha had these bonds in its vault here, and the bank is a co-defendant in the suit. The bonds were replevined here and the present fight in the District Court is on the merits of this replevin.

"I put the bonds in the West-Side bank of Los Angeles on special deposit," said Mr. Grant. "Homer G. Tibor, president of the bank, without my permission or knowledge, let them go to the McCormick Bank of Salt Lake City, through C. Dranga, an associate of his. The McCormick Bank loaned Dranga $15,000 on these bonds as security, and the account of Dranga's bank in Nevada was transferred to the McCormick Bank. The bonds disappeared September 27, 1904, and January of last I heard they were being offered for sale in Omaha at a remarkably low price."

Mr. Grant, through his attorney, filed in the District Court a reply to the defendants. They set up that Grant owed Dranga $15,000, and the reply denies that he owed Dranga anything or had any business relations with Dranga whatever.

WRECKERS CAUSE DEATH Lead Santa Fe Train Into Open Switch, Killing Engineer.

TEMPLE, Tex., Oct. 6.—That the wrecking of Santa Fe passenger train No. 17 early today, causing the death of one trainman and injury to seven others, was the act of trainwreckers is the opinion offered by the officials of the road who have investigated the accident.

The train ran into an open switch at Salina, a small station three miles from Temple. Engineer Macginnis was pinned under the wreckage and suffered injuries that resulted in his death late today.

NEW YORK EDITOR AGAIN CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST.

years old, and is said to have been a West Point graduate and to have served many years in the Army, mostly in the West. Y. M. C. A. Forms in High School. EUGENE, Or., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—A Young Men's Christian Association has been organized at the Eugene High School. The officers of the new organization are: Francis Moran, president; Harold Young, vice-president; Ernest Scott, secretary; Charles Hard, secretary; Ernest Armstrong, editor.

HEARST IS IN RAGE

Nominated by Friends Over His Protest for Mayor. SILENT ALLIANCE CHARGED Independent Platform to Declare All Other Parties in Collusion With Tammany—Jerome May Now Abandon the Fight. (Continued From First Page.) mer opponent of Mr. Hearst," said Mr. Ivins. "I ran against Mr. Hearst four years ago and would then have regarded his installation in the New York Mayor's office as a great public calamity. But for four years now I have watched him and I am now convinced that there is not a more capable, more public-spirited or more honest man in the city than Mr. Hearst. In four years no one has been more steadfast in working for the public good and my firm allegiance to the principles of the Republican party—at least in National and state politics—does not prevent me from coming here to bear testimony to Mr. Hearst as a whole-souled, independent well-wisher of his city and its people. "New York as a municipality should have three parties. The existence of only two parties here is always a guarantee that the issues and the fruits of victory will be syndicated and divided between them. If you men gathered here tonight see fit to form an independent party with William Randolph Hearst as your standard bearer, I bid you Godspeed and hope that all your other candidates, your platform and your rank and file may be inspired and imbued by the whole-souled honesty, integrity and generosity of your leader." Mr. Ivins devoted a full half hour to the Tammany ticket, headed by Justice William J. Gaynor. Scores Justice Gaynor. "Justice Gaynor is carrying the banner for the gang," he said. "He is the stalking horse for Tammany. He leads the vilest ticket that has ever been placed before New York. In spite of his position he has for months devoted himself to a cleverly framed and adroitly executed conspiracy whereby the two beneficiaries are to be the judge on the one hand and the band of political criminals on the other. "Justice Gaynor has told us that he has a right to take any man's vote, but there are some votes that no decent man should care or dare to take. The Tammany ticket is not entitled to the serious consideration of any man who pretends to be a friend of the city." Creates Peculiar Situation. Mr. Ivins' remarks created a peculiar situation, in that Mr. Hearst in a formal statement last night not only declined to run for Mayor, but announced that he would support the candidacy of Judge Gaynor, in preference to Otto T. Bannard, the Republican nominee. The only other important development in the local political situation was a report that District Attorney Jerome, having failed to get the Tammany endorsement, and in face of the Fusionist rally in support of Charles S. Whitman, the Republican candidate, would quit his independent fight for re-election. Mr. Jerome had neither confirmed nor denied the report up to a late hour tonight. After several other speeches a resolution was adopted for a committee of five to put a ticket in the field, and the following were named by the chairman: Dr. J. D. Bush, Sylvester L. Malone, William A. Coakley, Dr. Irving I. Stowitch and Dr. Joseph H. Byrne. Third Earthquake at Salt Lake. SALT LAKE, Oct. 6.—A barely perceptible agitation of the needle on the seismograph at the University of Utah between 9:30 and 11:40 o'clock this morning gave evidence that a third earthquake shock had passed over Salt Lake Valley and the surrounding region. Continuous Music for Taft. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 6.—From the time of the arrival of President Taft in this city, October 13, until his departure, on the afternoon of the following day, it is planned there shall be continuous music. On the night of his arrival the Third Field Artillery Band will give a concert in front of the hotel where the President stops. The next morning, when the President reviews the troops at Fort Sam Houston, three military bands will be in line. When he goes to the chapel there will be music, and when he attends a reception a military band also will be on hand. Bands will accompany him to the city with several selections before he delivers his address at the Alamo Plaza, and when he returns to his hotel a two-hour programme will be given.

OSWEGO WANTS HOME RULE

Petition Asking for Incorporation to Be Presented to County. OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—For the second time the people living in the town of Oswego, between Oregon City and Portland, will make an effort to incorporate, and will file a petition, to which 29 signatures have been attached, with the County Court, requesting consideration at the regular November term. George C. Brownell and Joseph E. Hedges appear for the petitioners. Several years ago an effort was made to incorporate the town through the medium of proceedings instituted before the Board of County Commissioners, but much objection was interposed by the Oregon Iron & Steel Company, which has heavy property interests at Oswego, and declined to submit to the burden of a city tax without a strenuous protest. The petition was ultimately denied. There are 400 people living at Oswego. It is said that the objection formerly made to incorporation will not be repeated this time, as much of the property of the Oregon Iron & Steel Company, including its plant, has been left out of the proposed boundaries.
