

NEW FORCES JOIN SEARCH FOR PLUTE

Willie Boy Roams Desert at Will With an Army in Pursuit.

WOMAN SIGHTS SUSPECT

Rancher's Wife Sees Armed Indian and Frightens Him Away by Flashing Shotgun—Fugitive May Be Aided by Others.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Although pursued by an army of men large enough to capture a whole tribe of Indians on the warpath, Willie Boy, the bloodthirsty Plute, is still roaming the desert a free man.

Sheriff J. C. Ralph left this morning leading a posse of ten for the desert by way of Bear Valley. Accompanying him is Dr. H. W. Mills, a British army surgeon, with a complete hospital equipment. They will reach Rock Corral Friday morning, joining Deputy Hewing's posse, which left Victorville this morning before daylight.

The departure of Ralph's posse from the County Jail was witnessed by an immense throng, which cheered the officers as they rode away. Surgeon Mills' field hospital corps brought up the rear. At 11 P. M. a telephone from Sheriff Powerhouse No. 2 far up Santa Ana canyon, reported the Sheriff's arrival there. He will push on to Bear Valley, six miles distant, before making camp. Mrs. James Bursleigh, of the Bursleigh ranch, at Houston Flats, on the desert side of San Bernardino Range, today telegraphed from a telephone booth that Willie Boy passed her place yesterday, armed with a rifle and wearing two belts filled with cartridges. She watched the fugitive some time, deciding his intention to plunder the milkhouse. She and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Bailey, displayed shotguns and the Indian fled.

Officers believe the Indian was a Plute on the way to the desert. He was notified at the powerhouse and dispatched trailers on the stranger's trail.

PITTSBURG LEADS IN RACE

(Continued from First Page.) distinction as the only pitcher to win twice in the series by amassing today's game. Adams clearly outpitched Summers, who worked for seven innings for Detroit, but he was lucky in having the team behind him hitting, as he allowed the losers for only two runs, scored two hits—two home runs, two two-baggers, and two singles, while Summers was hit safely ten times, including one home run, and one double.

Summers Donates Tally.

Davy Jones' home run gave Detroit a lead in the first but Pittsburgh tied the score because Summers gave a base on balls, with the bases full. A wild pitch by Summers allowed the second Pittsburgh run to score in the second, and another came in the third. The score remained 3 to 1 in Pittsburgh's favor until the sixth, when Detroit bunched a single and a two-bagger and, aided by Wagner's lead throw, scored two runs. Then came Clarke's home run in the seventh and the National League assumed a commanding lead. Each team scored one more in the eighth inning. Wagner had a bid day in the field, making two errors in five chances. His first error occurred when he muffed a Delahanty's grounder in the sixth and it allowed Crawford to score from second. His other misplay was a muff of Tom Jones' pop fly into short left in the ninth.

Wagner Falls at Bat.

At bat Wagner made one hit in four times up, and reached first three times. The first time he drew a base on balls, but was left on second, and in the third he singled to left, but was on third when the inning was ended. In the fifth he was at bat, and in the seventh he was hit in the back by a pitched ball. He dropped to the ground and, evidently was in great pain, but he recovered soon and trotted to first base.

Cobb Made One Hit—Single to Left in the Sixth.

Cobb made one hit—a single to left in the sixth. After getting three balls and two strikes, Davy Jones hit the ball into the center field for a home run. Bush walked but Cobb popped to Leach. Crawford's single to left sent Bush to third, as it was a hit and run play. Crawford stole second, but Delahanty struck out and Moriarity popped to Abstein.

Byrne Forced Home.

Pittsburg tied the score in their half of the first. Byrne hit by Bush and Lead led a safe hunt along the first base foul line. Clark sacrificed; Wagner drew a pass and the bases were filled. Miller struck out, but Abstein worked Summers for a pass, and Byrne was forced across the plate. Wilson ended the inning by striking out.

The winners added another to the total in the second. Gibson beat out a hit to Bush and Adams sacrificed, Summers to Delahanty. Delahanty made a wonderful one-handed scoop of Byrne's first bouncer and threw him out. Tom Jones, Gibson going to third. A wild pitch allowed Gibson to score.

Pittsburg added another in the third. Clarke started by drawing a pass on balls and went to first. Moriarity neatly pitched hit to left. Miller out; Bush to Tom Jones, scored Clarke.

Detroit Ties Score.

Detroit tied the score by landing two runs in the sixth inning. After Bush struck out, Cobb singled to left and scored on Crawford's double to center. Delahanty grounded to Wagner, who threw poorly to Abstein, and Crawford scored, while Delahanty continued to second. Moriarity flied to Clarke and Tom Jones popped an easy foul to Abstein.

Pittsburg Broke the Tie in the Seventh.

After Adams struck out, Byrne singled to left and went to third on Leach's hit to the same place. Clarke's home run accounted for three scores. Wagner was hit in the back, but as soon as he reached first he forgot all about his pain and stole second and then third, scoring on Schmidt's high throw. That gave Pittsburg four runs and enough to make victory certain.

Crawford Draws Homer.

Detroit scored in the eighth on Crawford's home run. Wilson opened Pittsburg's eighth with a double between Jones and Crawford, which the former lost in the sun. Wilson scored on Gibson's single to right. Gibson stole second and but was caught trying to steal third, Schmidt to Moriarity. The score:

EQUAL FRANCHISE SOCIETY FOLLOWS QUIETER WAYS.

Mrs. Clarence H. MacKay, Its President, Defines Its Aims and Outlines Her Belief.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Clarence H. MacKay, having been asked to define the purposes and the position of the Equal Franchise Society, of which she is the president, has given out the following statement for publication:

"The purpose of the Equal Franchise Society is to promote the enfranchisement of women by securing the National, state and local electoral franchise for women, because the Equal Franchise Society believes in the political and civil equality of men and women. The electorate should represent the whole Nation, and a system of government under which one-half of the Nation are disfranchised is not a truly representative National system."

"We are inviting people to become members of our society in order to contribute to the advancement of public opinion by the promotion of our cause. We feel that in order to secure the enfranchisement of women it is not necessary for us to imitate methods which are being used in other countries. American manhood has always treated American womanhood in such a way as to make us feel that we shall ultimately achieve our aim without sensationalism. I will not endorse the militant methods."

"It has been repeatedly said to me by men in public life and men in private life that the women of the United States unite in demanding the vote, they will get it. And I think that is perfectly true, and that, therefore, what is needed to further the suffrage cause is give all sorts and kinds of women the opportunity of listening to speakers who will explain just what the suffrage will mean to us all."

"The Equal Franchise Society wishes to establish a platform upon which such speakers as Bishop McVicar, of Rhode Island, Everett Colby and perhaps Martin W. Lister, who express their belief in suffrage, and for that reason we have leased the Garden Theater and arranged our course."

"We wish to enlist that part of the community, regardless of sex or creed, who will co-operate with us because of their loyalty to their country."

"Among the most recent additions to our membership are Mrs. William Schieffelin, Mrs. Milton Berger, Mrs. Rudolph Schirmer, Mrs. Archibald Alexander, Mrs. Everett Colby, Mrs. Richard Stevens, Mrs. Walter Maynard, Miss Spence, Mrs. Paul Morton, Miss Elizabeth Burchenal, Miss Dorothy Whitney and many others, as can be seen on our list."

HE ROBS BANK AND DIES

Cashier Saves Much Money. "Did you find Williams?" asked Mr. Duffy, when his visitor re-entered. "No, he was not there," the stranger answered.

Mr. Duffy then became suspicious, and his visitor went to the street and conversed with his chauffeur, returning again to the bank, while Mr. Duffy closed the front door. The side door he left open for the stranger to depart. Pleading something was wrong, Mr. Duffy hurriedly took a large amount of money and locked it in the vault. Several hundred dollars still were in the cage. As he entered the cage, Mr. Duffy was confronted by the robber, who covered him with a revolver.

"Call every one in here into that cage," said the robber, "or I'll blow your head off. Hurry up!"

Chase Ends in Suicide. Mr. Duffy complied. Miss Fitzgerald and Mr. Richards went into the cage while the intruder helped himself to all the money in sight. He carefully tucked the gold and bills into his pockets and then exclaimed: "If any of you attempt to follow me, I will kill you."

He started for the door and Mr. Duffy immediately telephoned the Marshall's office across the street. By the time the robber reached the automobile the side door was running toward the bank. The chauffeur had allowed the machine to grow cold and before he could crank up the thrilling chase had begun. All the money was recovered.

The men are believed to be the same men who murdered the Chief of Police at Kenosha several months ago.

It was learned tonight that the dead hand had registered at the Avenue House, in Evanston, Wednesday night, as "J. C. Wilson, Milwaukee, Wis.," and that the automobile which took him to the bank had been loaned him by J. E. Keely, a wealthy mining man of Goldfield, Nev., who lives in Evanston part of the year.

The man under arrest is Keely's chauffeur. His name is Fred Schwab, and he has been a trusted employe of Keely's in the West and Chicago for years.

Schwab declared he knew nothing about the character of his passenger, and that he had suspected nothing until he saw him fleeing from the bank. Keely told the police that Wilson had gained his confidence in a talk at the hotel Wednesday, relating to him incidents of life in the West with which he was familiar. He told Keely his name was in San Francisco.

SIX LIVES LOST IN GALE ON SUPERIOR

Captain Howell, of Steamship George Stone, Goes to Death in Lake.

TEN FROM WRECK SAVED

Part of Crew From Ill-Fated Ship Reach Shore—Two Other Boats Reported Ashore—Distress Signals on Michigan.

DETROIT, Oct. 13.—While attempting to reach shore in a yawl, after their ship had gone ashore near Grubbs Reef light, six members of the crew of the steamer George Stone were drowned in Lake Superior today. Captain George Howell is one of the dead.

Ten men from the wrecked steamer reached shore safely in a small lifeboat. They brought the story of the death of their companions. The six men left the wrecked steamer during a gale. The bitter wind was lashing the water of Lake Superior into a mad fury and the giant waves breaking over the stranded ship were rapidly pounding her to pieces. Captain Howell asked for volunteers to row to shore in an effort to secure aid and possibly save part of the Stone's cargo. Less than half a mile from the wreck the yawl was overtaken by a big wave that tossed it about like a chip. The little boat rose on the crest of the breaker, balanced for a minute and then capsized. The six passengers were seen no more.

Three of the bodies have washed ashore. One is that of Peter Daley, a passenger, and the others are a cook and officer of the Stone, names unknown.

When the worst of the storm had passed the ten men who stood by the wreck and saw their companions drown put off for shore in a small lifeboat. They reached Point Pelee in safety and came to Detroit today. One of the ten survivors, John Diederich, was knocked into the Detroit River by a crowd of strikers on the docks and narrowly escaped drowning, after his arrival here.

ANTILLES' PASSENGERS SAFE

Wireless Message Brings Assurance From Southern Wreck.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 13.—Although a wireless message early today, from the steamship Antilles of the Southern Pacific line, which went aground off the Grand Banks of the Bahama Islands on Monday night, stated that the vessel had been wrecked and that the passengers would be landed in small boats, it is believed those on board are in no immediate danger.

A relief vessel is expected to reach the scene from Havana some time today and a wrecker boat from Charleston, S. C., will reach the Antilles tonight.

This morning the steamship Comus of the Southern Pacific line left for the scene of the Antilles' grounding to take on the passengers of the latter ship. The Comus should reach the Antilles Friday night.

SHIP FLIES DISTRESS SIGNAL

Unrecognizable Steamer Goes Ashore on Lake Michigan.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—An unrecognized steamer with hoisted distress signals, off Lake Huron, a lake-shore suburb, last night, may be the first victim of the fury of the storm which swept down upon Chicago from the north yesterday morning. Efforts were being made to reach the vessel early today, as she was believed to be in serious danger, and life-saving crews along the shore were notified to be in readiness for an emergency.

ELEVEN OF TUG'S CREW LOST

Two Small Boats Go Down in Tropical Hurricane.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 13.—News reached here late this afternoon of the sinking of the tugs Sybil and Sadie at Bahia Honda during Monday's hurricane, and the loss of 11 members of the crew of the Sybil, including Captain Parker.

The loss of life on the tug Sybil includes, besides Captain Parker, Engineer Fox, Pilot Whitmore, Engineer Peterson and seven deckhands.
