coupled with a suspension o two would be the right thing for Man ager McCredle to do in the case of seeral alleged ballplayers to whom he is paying salaries, and who behaved like a lot of quitters yesterday, when Vernon wan a farce of a game by the score of it to 4. As McCredie is the original "easy mark" as far as the behavior of his players is concerned, the musits of yesterday will be permitted to get away with their rotten work without interference on the part of the management.
The chief offender in diagracing the game yesterday as well as offending the patrons who paid to see a real game was Catcher Gus Fisher, who seems so badly afflicted with self-inflation that he imagines the team cannot get along without him. Fisher not only gave the most miserable exhibition of catching seen on the grounds this season, but he gut sore because the fans rousted him for his poor work, and when he loafed after deliberately having a passed ball, Man-ager McCredie chased him from the game and substituted Tommy Murray back of the bat. After being canned it this disgraceful fashlon, Pisher displayed his true character by resorting to rowdy tactics and had to be escorted from the field by a police officer. If he had received his deserts he would have been landed in fall because of the vulgar language he used in the presence of the big ladies, day crowd. ladies' day crowd.

As for the game itself, there was not a feature in it worth the while, and but for a misfortune in the shape of a collifor between Martinks and Jesse Stovall Fortland would have had but two runs George Ort's liner to center was the cause of Martinke and Stovall trying to occupy the same space at the same time. with the result that both were knocked out and Ort got a home run, sending Johnson home ahead of him. Stovall was so hadly jarred that he had to be relleved by Roy Willett, but Martinke managed to continue through the game. heravise of darkmens

Jesse Garrett started for Portland and he was good for one inning, but in the second the Hootigans put him out of the running by hard litting and a couple of places of poor outfielding by Jack Graney. Chenault was sent to the mound in the third, and after that it seemed like the whole team deliberately tried to throw him down, for Fisher loafed continually until canned by McCredie, and Cooney and Olson could not stop a ground ball with a net. They also passed up oppor-tunities of making outs by falling to cover second, but this was due mostly to Fisher, who was acting badly back of the plate. In the face of such actions Vernon scored at will, and the only mystery is that the Hooligans did not tally

Brackenridge did not pitch such a marvelous game himself, for he was hit quite frequently, but he managed to be on the job in the pinches. Several times Portland had the bases full, but the Vernon midget heid the whip hand and closed them out without trouble.

Garrett or Harkness will try again for Portland today, while Vance will occupy the hilltop for the Healigans.

At Opening of Interscholastic Football Season Neither Team Has Much Advantage Over Other

Beginning the season of interscholastic football, the game played yesterday afterfootball, the game played resulted in a 2 to 8 yletory for Columbia University over the Lincoln High School. The score was the result of a place kick by Davis from the E-yard line in the last part of the first half. Neither team had much advantage at any time during the game. The ball stayed in Lincoln's territory during the greater part of the first half, but with the exception of the successful kick from placement, the high school goal was never in serious difficulty because Arnold was always successful in booting the ball out of danger. The second half was out of danger. The second and was largely a punting game, in which the work of both fullbacks was above par. Most of the open playing was done by the Columbia boys, who used a number of on-side kick plays.

Arnold kicked off for Lincoln at the beginning of the first half. After a punt by Columbia, the ball was taken back several yards by Arnold, and then Stiles, changed and Lincoln had been penalized for playing off side, Columbia secured the ball, when one of its punts was fumthe hall, when one of its purits was fum-bled by the High School. This placed the ball on Lincoln's Z-yard line, and then Davis booted it squarely between the goal posts for the only score of the game. After the next kick-off by the High School Columbia punted back, Arnold of the High School fumbled and Columbia secured the ball in the middle of the field. Soon after Columbia negotiated a layard cain. The first half ended with 10-yard gain. The first half ended with the ball in possession of the High School the ball in possession of the High School. Early in the second half, gains of 30 and 10 yards were made by Stiles and Jack Day on end runs. This placed the High School close to the Columbia line, and a punt by Arnold resulted in a touch back. Columbia punted esit and a fair catch was made by Arnold. A place kick attempted then by Lincoln was a failure. This was as near as the High School lade came to scoring.

During the remainder of the game the

During the remainder of the game the ball stayed in the middle of the field until the last two minutes, when a final desperate effort to score was made by Lincoln. Stiles almost got away for a rouch-down on a forward pass, but fum-bled, keeping the ball. He was then sent through Columbia's line for a 19-yard gain, and the game ended with the ball in Columbia's territory. The High School band added to the spirit of the occasion, and did some cred-itable playing. The weather was a little too warm for good football, but the boys played hard just the same, and the crowds of youthful rooters in the grand-
