SUMMITSION WANTS LIBRARY.—At the meeting of the Sunnyside Improvement Club, at the office of Dr. J. A. Pettit, Wednesday night, J. S. Winchester and Wednesday night, J. S. Winchester and S. W. Walker were appointed to confer with the librarian of the Portland Library in the matter of establishing a book depoitory in Sunnyside. It was sugtied that the Boys Brigade building, East Yamhill between East Thirty-orth and East Thirty-fifth streets, would be the most convenient place for this depository. The brigade building a soon to be taken over by an incorporated association to be made a public building for the entire neighborhood, and it was suggested that a book de-pository would be a good thing in con-nection with this new movement. To Filt East Ninth Street - Councilman Kubli will introduce a resolution at the next meeting of the City Council pro-viding for the filling of East Ninth street, between Belmont and East Washington, one of the most important fills yet made on the East Side. He has assurance that if this project is carried out it will lead to filling up the vacant blocks between East Ninth and East Eleventh streets where there is a pool of singnant water, which cannot be drained. Councilman Kubli desires the support of the citizens of Central East Portland in iting this resolution through. It lorsed by the East Side Business Men's

CONTRACT FOR CEMETERY WALL-The city has entered into a contract with Wilson Benefiel to construct a concrete wall from the property line of his cor-poration in the Lone Fir Cemetery on East Stark street east to East Twenty-East Stark street east to East Twentysixth street, at a price of $300, of which the Masonic Cemetery Association will bear one-half, and the city the other half. In this manner the city's portion will be greatly under what was at first expected, when Councilman Kubil introduced an ordinance into the Council, carrying an appropriation of $5000 for the work. Through the efforts of Mayor Simon the contract with Benefiel has on the contract with Benefiel has

Patsy Sees Things and Thinks It Miracle

This Is a Story Where a Hospital Nurse Proves She Is Not a Blessed Angel, but Only a Kindly Human

ARGE and oft-repeated "draps o' the craytur" are what the nurses ascribe as the cause of an Irish patient perform ing the act of adoration before Miss Brown, a special nurse at the St. Vincent's Hospital. In her conspicuously white costume Miss Brown was standing at the head of the stone steps leading to the door of the institution watching the somewhat wob-bly progress of a patient known as Patsy. Although not very late, the night was particularly dark, and Patsy no sconer saw Miss Brown than he prostrated him-self, making the sign of the cross. With his head knocking the ground he begged to be spared and made effusive promises to lead a better life.
