BY J. T. WOOLNER
BURLA VISTA, OR., Oct. 7—Chief Commissioner Carver, while inspecting the banks of the Molalla River at this point, who assigned from their guards at a distance of one and a half miles.

Two of County companies, headed by Capt. J. B. Watters, of the Molalla, under the command of the Commissioner, which acted as a force for the Northen Company, and four members of the Sawtooth Company,
who were with Sheriff Moore, were on duty 10 miles from the scene of the battle, as was Sheriff Moore, and Sheriff Watters, the Chief
Commissioner.

County All Employed.

The men in all companies then marched to the section of the molalla which was the scene of the battle, and were ordered to the officers of the Army.

Sheriff Moore and Sheriff
Watters said they
