When Deputy Johnson Is Shot, Bullet Reaches Desperado, Who Is Carried by Companions-Ringleader Wright Pays Penalty.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. BUENA VISTA, Or., Oct. 17 .- (Staff CAR OVER HIM, TOT UNHURT Correspondence.) - Shot to death on the banks of the Luckiamute River at 10:30 this morning was the fate of George Carter, rinkleader of the quintet convicts who escaped from their guards at the Penitentiary at Salem Friday

Two of Carter's companions, Duncan and Albert Ferris, are seriously wounded, the former probably fatally, as the result of a pitched battle between the outlaws and John Grant, Sheriff of against the trucks. Extricated, not a Polk County, and four members of the

Elmer "Cherokee" James, one of the men who was with Sheriff Grant, was slightly wounded in the right leg, but is still with the posse on the hunt for Mike Nichatich and Albert Murray, the senger and was just gaining headway two outlaws still at large.

County All Excitement.

The battle has caused the most intense excitement in this section of the county, and even in Independence the feeling is high. That no more serious the slightly wounding of James this morning and the wourding of Deputy eight miles an hour at the time. Johnson Saturday night is a source of rejoicing by the citizens and of congratulation by the officers.

unceed of himself, John Feagles, rshal of Independence; James Praether, of Buena Vista; "Chérokee" James, of Salem, and Ira Hamilton Constable at Salem, left Buena Vista at dawn this morning and took a route south along the Willamette River. Superintendent James and Warden Curtis, of the Penitentiary, and another posse took a route in an inland direction. Sheriff Minto, of Marion County, and a third armed force started for the Luckiamute River, beating up the several miles of country between Buena Vista and the farm of C. T. Wells, which is situated near the junction of the Luckiamute with the Willamette, about ten miles above Inde-

Posses Close In on Outlaws.

Unknown to each other the posses headed by Sheriffs Grant and Minto gradually closed in on the camp of the outlaws, and it was undoubtedly the approach of Harry Minto's forces on their flank which forced the convicts into the open along the south bank of the Luckiamute, not 100 yards from its mouth, where they came aguarely upon Sheriff Grant and his men, who were crossing the river on a log boom

Carter, the leader of the gang and one of the two outlaws armed, opened fire with the Luger automatic .30 pistol taken from Guard Hirtzel at the time of the break. So sudden did the shooting commence and so unexpected was the attack that the officers were taken by surprise, and Carter must have been a poor marksman or some of , the party would have been killed. Sheriff Grant and Constable Hamilton were the first to recover and open fire on the desperadoes, whereupon the outlaws sought cover.

Last Shot Costs Life.

Carter hesitated long enough to attempt another shot at the posse, and his rashness cost him his life, for as he aimed his weapon Sheriff Grant sent a Winchester 30-30 bullet crashing into the outlaw's brain and he fell dead on the river bank.

Just how true a shot killed the outlaw was evidenced on examining his body, for the bullet which penetrated his brain first passed through his right hand in which he held his aimed pistol, the ball plercing the litle finger, shattering the handle of the gun, and also passing through the ball of his hand. Then it struck the victim squarely between the eyes. The four other officers pronounced it the quickest, and most accurate shot they had ever seen, and each has participated in man hunts

On the death of Carter, whose right name is George Wright and who is the son of respectable people at Eugene, Albert Ferris, a half-breed Inlian, who was found to have been shot through the body, the ball entering below the heart and coming out at the back, signalled that he would surrender. Two Convicts Escape.

Firing had ceased, and Nichatich and Murray succeded in escaping into the dense undergrush which lines the two rivers at that point and extends for everal miles into the country. Ferris motioned the officers toward

In Blography Story of Attempted Deal Is Related Whereby Single-Taxer Is Asked to Quit Race by Hearst's Supporter.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 .- Taken from the graveyard of forgotten campaigns, a political skeleton was brought out in New York tonight after 20 years' hiding, adding intensity to the three-cor nered struggle for the Mayor's chair.

It had to do with the political record of William M. Ivins, Hearst's ardent Republican supporter. It came in the form of a statement by Henry George Jr., son and biographer of the famous single-tax reformer, who charged that Ivins went to his father in 1886 and offered him inducements to withdraw from the Mayoralty race against William R. Grace. As a matter of history George refused to be sidetracked and entered the contest only to meet de-

George, Jr., Refutes Ivins.

Last night Ivins, evidently expecting an attack on his alleged connection with the George-Grace campaign, said he had never made an offer to Henry George to retire. As opposed to this, Henry George, Jr., said tonight:

"In his statement William Ivins denies a story that in behalf of Richard Croker he offered to Henry George, my father, $25,000 to withdraw from the contest in 1886.

"In response to a statement in the news papers by Abram D. Hewitt, relative to the campaign, my father, toward the close of the 1897 campaign, and just a few days before his death, issued a statement which, with the attendant circumstances. may be found on pages 462-3 of The Life of Henry George.' MAGOON MAY BE FELLED SUDDENLY,

SUDDEN RETURN TO WASHING-

Insisting He Was Not Called to Capital by State Department, Magoon Refuses to Talk Further.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.-The arrival here today of William E. Magoon, ex-Provisional Governor of Cuba, promptly gave rise to the rumor that he had been ummoned in connection with the new vacancy in the diplomatic post in Peking from which Charles R. Crane was re moved before he had had time to proceed o the Chinese capital.

Mr. Magoon insisted he had not been summoned by the State Department, but he would not discuss the matter further In this connection it is declared the minor officials of the Department had nothing to do with the recall of Minister Secretary Knox issued the order personally from his Summer home in Pennsylvania, where he is at present, The fact that Mr. Magoon cut his vaca don in half and returned unexpectedly from Europe lent color to the report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 .- So far as could be learned in official circles here tonight, the name of Stuyvesant Fish, of New York, had not been considered in connec tion with the United States Ministership

In casting about last Summer for a successor to Minister Rockhill, who had been transferred as Ambassador to Russia, the name of Stuyvesant Fish was suggested, but it was found that he did not care for the position.

MEN ARE KINGS NO MORE Greig Brothers Sell Their Famous South Sea Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17 .- (Special.)-Fanning and Washington Islands, of the South Sea group made famous by romantic fiction, have finally passed out of the porsession of the Greig Brothers, James George and William, the Scotchm were known as the Kings of Fanning and Washington Islands.

The brothers officially lost their titles when the British Government constructed a cable station on Fauning Island. James Greig, who was designated as the King of Washington Island, is here.

Several months ago the two islands and two others near the group, Christmas and Palermis Islands, were bought for $250,000 by Father E. Rougio, a French missionary well-known in the South Seas who is acting as guardian of the invalid-Count Cecille.

ABRUZZI MIGHT BE KIND Was to Have Been Offered Throne of Greece, but Plans Failed.

PARIS, Oct. 17 .- A special dispatch from Athens says the officers of the Greek army who were responsible for the movement against the monarchy in August last, reached a decision at that time to offer the throne to the Duke of the Abruzul in the event of the abdication of King George.

After an agreement was reached between the government and the mutinous troops, an official statement was issued denying the movement was against the King or ministry.

BERLIN HAS RIOT WHEN SALE

Police Convey Hysterical Patrons to Emergency Hospital and Box-Office Shuts Window.

BERLIN, Oct. 17 .- (Special.) - Berlin had a riot at the opening sale of seats for Caruso's three-day engagement at the Royal Opera during the coming week. Frenzied would-be purchasers pummeled each other mercilessly in a struggle for places of vantage in the line leading to the boxoffice, women and girls taking a leading part in the fray. It was necessary for a squadron of mounted and unmounted police to intervene before the sale could progress.

Crowds began assembling at 10 o'clock the night before and by daybreak nearly 1900 persons were on the ground. Local police regulations did not permit a line to be formed before 8 o'clock. When the signal to form the line was given the multitude had increased to 2000. A serious scramble for positions nearest the box office followed. After half a dozen women had been taken to a nearby emergency hospital, suffering from bys terical fits, the police contrived to ge the Caruso enthusiasta into line, which stretched twice around the Opera-House building.

Before a third of the line had reached the boxoffice the window was slammed down and a notice bung out that not even standing room was left for any of the three days. Scores of the best seats despite the efforts of the Kaiser's operatic management, fell into the hands of speculators who are demanding and getting from $15 to $40 for choice places.

It wasn't unlucky 13; not even the skidoo number 23, but the tall end of each -fatal figure "3"-that figured freely in a flitting fire on Sunday morning.

The alarm was telephoned at 8:33 A. M. from 333 Thirteenth street, on the third Sunday of the month, when there were three women in the house. horses drew each of the three fire-fighting wagons to the scene and it required three rings on the telephone to secure an answer to the call. The blaze was easily extinguished. (The reporter forgot to ask whether there were any as in the telephone number.)

Police Beat Back Throngs Marching to Make Demonstration Against Spain and Socialist Leaders Take Flings at Royalty.

LONDON, Oct. 17.-The red flag was raised in London this afternoon and a arge mob moved upon the Spanish Em bassy to make a demonstration of its disapproval of the execution of Professor Prancisco Ferrer at Barcelona Police drove off the crowds in their isual bloodless effectual way. But uneasiness pervaded the neighborhood. The trouble began at a mass meeting n Trafalgar Square organized by several ocialist and labor bodies. Several hundred members of these organizations marched to the Square carrying red flags draped with crepe and bearing inscripions denouncing King Alfonso. A black-bordered banner was left standing against the Nelson column with big letters, "To Hell With the Murderer

Alfonso. Edward Held to Blame.

Several laborite members of Parliament poke. Victor Grayson, of Manchester, he Socialist member, capped the climax by declaring that if the head of every king of Europe were torn from his body it would not pay half the price of Ferrer's life.

He called the Russian Emperor "a dirty nonster." and said King Edward, who ould have prevented the execution, was responsible for what might happen in England as a result of it. He demanded the expulsion of the Spanish Minister. Police Stop Demonstration.

The Socialist societies, carrying ban-ners, then marched to the Spanish Embassy, singing revolutionary songs, and hooting King Alfonso. A rabble accompanied them, filling the streets.
