IMPROVEMENT IN EUROPE

Estimated Decrease of Three Million Bushels for the Week in World's Shipments-Eastern Buying

Is Not Besumed.

The undertone of the wheat market showed a considerable degree of improve-ment yesterday. There was no resumption of buying for Eastern shipment and but little coastwise trade, but the feeling in the export market was distinctly better. While the shipments for the week from the United Rates and Canada were large, aggregating 8,300,000 bushels compared with 4,506,000 bushels inst week, the total world's shipments figured out much higher, being estimated at 10,000,000 bushels, compared with 12,000,000 last week. This was taken to indicate a failing off in the Russian movement and the probability that the heavy shipand the probability that the heavy ship-ments from that country are nearing an end. The day's cables showed the English mar-ket to be a little firmer, with rather more, inquiry for cargoon. The improvement is

The Kentish Observer of October 7 said of the English market:

the English market:

the market has hardened considerably, the advance on useful qualities being quite 166 per swt. Considerable buying for export to the Continent is taking place, clearly proving the shortness of the crope there. Yearing hope are still in demand at very firm values. Continental and American prices have advanced somewhat seriously but there is no trade here at present in foreign hope of any kind. The quotations for English hope are:

Wild, Noame & Co., London—Our market icontinues strong and active. There has been a considerable quantity of hops purchased this week on German account, which has helped to establish a higher level of values. The market is still sparingly supplied for the time of the year, many growers being reluction to accept current prices.

time of the year, many growers being reluctant to accept current prices.

W. H. and H. Le May, London—The market is gradually advancing for all descriptions of hops and the crop is going quietly into consumers hands. The quality of most of the growths is exceedingly good.

Manger & Henley, London—The market has advanced several shillings for good hope and strong bids are refused by some growers in anticipation of a further rise.

Charles Faram & Oo., Worcester—Market
well attended, but as growers were again unwilling to accept current values, hops moved off very slowly. Most of the business was done at 1663 per owt. for good useful qualities, but many samples were held for higher figures. Only 64 pockets passed the scales during the day and 275 previously this week, making 451 pockets weighed to date.

Fruit Inspector Doing Good Work

Since J. E. Stanshery was appointed. County Fruit Inspector, there has been a marked improvement in the condition of the fruit reaching this city, especially that offered for sale at the morning markets. Farmers and peddlers know the inspection is rigid and are taking no chances by bring-ing in infected apples or pears. The insctor has experienced some trouble with the small grocers in the South End near Marquam Guich, but they will probably pay attention to his warnings. The larger fruit dealers on Front street are co-operating with Mr. Stansbery in his good work. Poultry Market Is Firmer, The portiry market was firm. Good hens sold at 156 154; cents, but Springs were not in such active demand. Northern orders

EXCHANGE RATE IS HIGH

Exports to Europe May Start Next Week-Stock Market in an Uncertain Mood-Selling for London.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22—The stock market today repeated its action of several days preceding. Heavy selling pressure was in ovidence units the foregoing stock exchanges were in session. When closing time had arrived, this pressure subsided and made way for some recovery in prices.

The dominant influence in all financial markets continued to be the London money pusition, as directed by the Bank of England's action. The rise in private discount rates in London proved that the Bank of England found the power to make its higher rate effective and to maintain its control of the open money market. This gave added influence to the admonitory advances from London of the determination of the bank authorities to protect the banking resources of that center from further inroads by foreign borrowers or seekers for gold reserve. The randa advance in foreign exchange rates in the New York market continued and engagements were announced of gold for shipment to South American and Canadian account. Negotiations were reported to be in progress looking toward gold exports to Europe next week. Foreign exchange reacted sharply at last. The money market here was not unaffected by these developments, especially the time loan department. Much of the selling of stocks here was directed for London account. The week's higher money rates apparently had operated to attract considerable amounts.

The weeks higher mone; rates apparently had operated to attract considerable amounts of bank coah from other points. The subtreasury operations, meantime, have not been burdensome on the banks, have yielded a nominal sum to those institutions, compared with withdrawals last week of over $5,000,000.

It is estimated that the banks have gained in the neighborhood of $3,000,000 in cash from various sources during the week. How the week's operations in the foreign exchange market may have affected the loan item will be studied with great interest upon the appearance of the bank statement tomorrow. This doubtful factor may have had to do with the fresh selling of stocks late in the day, which closed the market weak and at the lowest.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales, par value, $3,110,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Liquor Business Shows More Life, Due Partly to the Increased Payrolls in the General Industries.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Bradstreets' to NEW YORK, Oct. 22— branstrees to morrow will say;
Trade and industrial developments are largely favorable. Continued cold weather furnishes a market stimulus to demand for heavy wearing apparel, dry goods clothing and shoes.

After a long spell of dulness, the liquor trades are also displaying more life, which may be variously attributed to weather influences or to renewal of consumption made possible by improved payrolls in the general industries.

nuences or to renewal of consumption made possible by improved payrolls in the general industries.

There is still evidence or conservatism, bred of higher prices asked for cotton goods for distant delivery, but the tendency is still upward and staple preducts are selling better at advanced prices. In the Eastern shoe trade the strength of leather and the advanced cost of shoe production also are giving manufacturers context.

DEVELOPMENT OF PROSPERITY. Main Reason for the Advance in English

Main Reason for the Advance in English Bank Rate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: Overshadowing all other developments for the week is the advance in the Bank of England rate of discount to 5 per cent.
There are special reasons for the advance,
such as England's desire to protect, her gold supply and the banking caution against the danger of over-speculation, but, in the main, the advance is a development of prosperity.

In the United States, every report of the week ranges from moderate improvement to extraordinary buoyancy. The advices om the leading cities are uniformly favor-

Prices on fabrics are rising and the acut conditions in cotton, growing out of high cotton costs, are being met by agreement to curtail. New England boot and shoe manufacturers are securing fair-sized Spring contracts in the West and South, but current business on Fall orders continues
