

MCCARREN LOSES FIGHT WITH DEATH

Veteran Politician Dies as Result of Operation for Appendicitis.

KNEW DEATH WAS COMING

Discovered by D. B. Hill, He Ruled Democracy of Brooklyn and Withstood All Efforts to Dislodge Him.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Patrick H. McCarran, State Senator and Democratic leader of Brooklyn, died at St. Catherine's Hospital, Brooklyn, at 115 Calkers' road, never having completely rallied from the effects of an operation for appendicitis October 12.

His death was not unexpected. The Senator himself realized throughout the afternoon and the earlier part of the night that the end was near.

Knew Death Would Result. To the physicians who consulted over him today he said:

"Gentlemen, I know what you have come for. There is no need for a consultation. I knew I was dying the day I walked into this hospital. I have made a study of my own case and find my trouble is an old heart and an old stomach. If you replace them with new ones there might be a chance of my getting better."

His aged mother was not apprised of his condition. She thinks that the campaign has kept him from home, and Senator McCarran has insisted that she be kept in ignorance for fear that the shock would be too great for her.

Most Picturesque Figure. Patrick Henry McCarran, by trade a cooper, by profession a lawyer and by vocation a politician, was one of the most picturesque figures in the political history of Greater New York.

He was probably the most strongly entrenched leader in New York state who had wielded some influence in National politics.

Having mastered the cooper's trade, he answered the call to something more intellectual. He took up the law, and from law went into politics. In 1882 he was sent to the Assembly and had since served almost continuously in the Legislature.

He was elected again in 1895 to stay until his death. McCarran first became recognized as a coming leader in the days when David B. Hill was at the height of his power.

He recovered from defeat. McCarran's opposition to the candidacy of W. R. Hearst for Governor led to charges of treason against him and his delegates were excluded from the party convention in April, 1906, to name delegates to go to the Denver National Convention.

POWERS OBJECT TO RUSSIAN CONTROL IN MANCHURIA.

United States Joins Others in Denouncing Agreement With China.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—A rumor was in circulation here tonight that the powers have addressed a joint note to Russia with regard to Manchurian affairs.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—As soon as the terms of the agreement between China and Russia regarding the administration by Russia of the Manchurian railway became known in Washington last July, the State Department manifested its dissatisfaction with the arrangement.

One objection to the instrument was that it granted the Russian railway representative the power of veto on the acts of the Municipal Council, as well as that it invaded extra-territorial rights.

PAYMENTS FOR CABINET RIGHTS RETURNED.

FOUR HOQUIAM MEN WHO PUT $61,000 IN SCHEME RECEIVE $18,270 AND HOPE FOR MORE.

HOQUIAM, Wash., Oct. 22.—(Special)—Settlers in the notorious kitchen cabinet swindle, in which citizens of Chas. County were taken in for $60,000, have been made in some instances, and four Hoquiam men who put $21,000 into the scheme, have secured the return of $18,270 in cash, or 87 per cent of the money invested.

The settlement was made several days ago by men said to represent Curtis & Roser, manufacturers of the "Success kitchen cabinet," for which the Hoquiam parties purchased territory rights.

Last week, after L. McTaggart had returned from his chase half way across the continent to capture C. E. Bean and bring him to trial for swindling Hoquiam people out of large sums of money by representing the kitchen cabinet business to them, two men drifted into town and called on Mr. McTaggart.

The men said they represented Curtis & Roser, kitchen cabinet manufacturers. They had heard that Mr. McTaggart and a number of friends had been taken into camp on an alleged swindle by a man named Bean, who was at one time their representative.

Furthermore, as this business was a legitimate one, Messrs. Curtis & Roser did not care to have it go broad that they were at the bottom of the swindle, and, acting as the representatives, the men would repurchase all the territorial rights sold by C. E. Bean. It is understood that the men are negotiating with other victims.

Men of Hoquiam who were reimbursed are: L. McTaggart, J. Scrop Styles, A. Fossil and C. W. Smith.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(Special)—When I read the news of the death of a man and woman and three children in the California desert, said Miss Dougherty, "I thought immediately that my brother's family were the victims. Mr. Dougherty wrote to me about a month ago, saying that he was dissatisfied with affairs on his ranch, which was seven miles from Santee, and 25 miles from San Diego. He said that he and Cora and the children were about to start by caravan for the Yuma land, where he thought he could find better prospects. Since then nothing has been heard from them."

Second Brother Corroborates. "Another brother, George Dougherty, was living at Pasadena. I heard from him the same news—that Jay and his family had left to cross the desert. Jay did not tell me in so many words that he was going to cross the desert, but in order to get to Yuma by caravan he would be compelled to do so.

"My brother had lived on the ranch near Santee for about two years. He was an associate of Peter Dorendecker, of San Diego, with whom I am trying to communicate, to learn more of the circumstances concerning my brother's departure from Santee. The description of the lost family fits perfectly that of my brother, and, because it has been so long since I have heard anything from him, I feel almost certain that they are lost."
