May Offer $100,000 and Interest in Pictures-Gleason to Bid.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.-John J. Glesson, a prizefight promoter, announced onight that he would leave Thursday or New York City in an endeavor to bring the heavyweight championship battie to Alameda, a suburb of San Fran-cisco, where the Bay Shore Athletic Club, he said, would put up a sum, said to be $75,000, to be divided by the fighters. Gleason names as his backars Al White and J. J. Landrigan, the latter a capitalist

Sporting men here believe it a foregone conclusion that James Coffroth will be the favored one among the many striv-ing for the fight. Coffroth, through his stated, enabled the negro to pocket about t30,000 as his share of the recent clash with Ketchel. All the other fights of the trip, any consequence in which Johrson has appeared, that with Ferguson in 1907 search SMOKES

McVay in 1905 and Jim Flynn in 1907, were fought under Coffroth's auspices. Jeffriës also owes most of his big purses to Coffroth. In 1902 his fight with Gus Ruhlin drew $30,000; that with Bob Fitz-simmrons $30,000; with Jim Corbett $86,000; while in 1904 the Jack Munro fight drow Coffroth's plan when he started East, as outlined by those close to the pro-moter, was to offer the fighters 70 per cent of a house guaranteed to be $100,000, and a third interest each to Jeffries and Johnson in the moving pictures. The pictures, it is said, would be worth at least

$560,000, Controth retaining a third, With his supposed influence over John-son, which is said to have induced the negro to promise Colfroth that he should have the big fight, and his previous suc-cesses with Jeffries, sporting men here say that Coffroth has the fight landed as soon as binding articles are signed by the men and that his name or that of his club will appear in the agreement. Gleason, even in the face of these argu-ments, said that his proposition would be pinced before the big fighters and he confident it would be favorably.
