Wife of Louis B. Reed Is Given Decree and Monetary Settlement.

AWARDED CUSTODY OF SON

Parents of Both Are Wealthy Oshkosh, Wis., People-Defendant Is Lawyer Who Was Fined for Holding Up Friend as Joke.

Louis B. Reed, an attorney employe in the office of Giltner & Sewall, who was fined $200 in the Municipal Court Monday for having held up a man named Powers on Portland Heights as a joke, was divorced by Circuit Judge Gatens yesterday afternoon. The decree was given to his wife. Madge E. Reed, daughter of A. E. Thompson, a wealthy attorney, of Oshkosh, Wis. Both parties to the divorce suit come of wealthy par-entage, Reed's father being a rich judge in Ripon, Wis, Reed was formerly a professional bloycle rider in the East. But after his marriage he was admitted to the law firm of Thompson, Pinkerton & Jackson in Oshkosh, with the under-standing that he was to receive 10 per cent of the profits. He was married June 20, 1963

Mrs. Reed testified yesterday that she left her husband because of his gambling habits and his unkindness, which later grew into accusations of unfaithfulness. "He said to me." testified Mrs. Reed, "that our baby looked like Ed. Dunbar, a man in middle life for whom we have much respect. My hushand told me he could ruin me if he wanted to. 'A man has only to give the public a hint,' he said.

He asked me if he could take me home, and I con-When I reached home Mr. Reed was very much out of patience with me because I had allowed Mr. Camm to take me home, and insisted that I sit down and eat another meal with him, refusing to accept my explanations or to believe that what I was telling him was the truth. At another time-but he was not truth. himself that night-he told me I could take my baby, and go home just as quick as I wanted to:

Father Shows Reed Is Extravagant.

The depositions of several residents of Oshkosh were submitted to Judge Gatens Among them is the deposition of Judge L. E. Reed, father of the local attorney, who has been Municipal Judge in Ripon, who has been aunicipal Junge in Ripol, Wis, for 25 years. He testified that he gave his son a $5000 note as a wedding present, with the understanding that if was to be used in building a house for the newly married son and his wife. The the newly married son and his wife. The young man also had $3000, said the elder Reed, an inheritance from his uncie. But when he left Oshkosh, after his wife had gone to live with her parents, Judge Reed said his son had no money except loose change. He went to his aunt's in Chi-cago, then to his uncle's in Bellingham, Wash, then to Seattle and from there Alaska and later to Portiand. Thomas Ryan, a saloonkeeper of Osh-

Alasska and later to Portland. Thomas Ryan, a saloonkeeper of Osh-kosh, said young Reed won $1000 at a roulette game played at $10 a throw in a room over his saloon. Harry C.
