chited States Would Welcome retirement of Nicaraguan Ruler and Has Sympathy for Revolution.

WASHINGTON. Oct. 22.—The report that the revolutionary administration under General Estrafa contemplates an early proclamation of the independence of the Atlantic Coast states of Nicaragua as a republic seems to have busis in fact. At any rate it is believed that this proposed step is backed by almost universal public sentiment in these states. The State Department has received an official dispatch from Nicaragua to that general effect and the officials would not be surprised at the issue of a declaration WASHINGTON, Oct 29.- The report be surprised at the issue of a declaration of independence shortly.

It is well known here among diplomats and others well informed that the State Department is in full sympathy with the revolutionary movement and would welcome any change that would result in the retirement of Zelaya.

Bollermaker Wants $20,000.

The side bet caused more difficulty. Jeff wanted to wager $30,000. Johnson, more cautious, offered $500. Lattle, his man-ager, wanted to lay the money at ring-side odds, "as a business proposition." As a compromise they agreed to let the 25000 already posted to secure today's meeting stand, with $5000 additional to be when would they fight?

As a finish fight had been agreed upon as a finish fight had been agreed upon it was the consensus of opinion at the matchmakers' table that either Nevada or California must get the winning bid. With 20 days for the bids to come in and 60 days more for the men to condition themselves in, the weather at the earliest would be too wet in California and too pold in Nevada. Both men agreed that, to accommodate the huge crowds sure to attend, the bout must be held out of doors. Berger further urged the necessity for ample training time. And it was formally settled that a day "Not later than July 2, 1910," be chosen. The deal was closed.

Chairman Says Ohio and Indiana Governors Are Forging to Front as Presidential Timber.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 .- "I do not beeve Bryan will be the next Democratic candidate for the President," said Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Demo man E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National Committee today.

Asked who he thought the next Democratic candidate would be, Mr. Mack declared that, due to his position, he could not play favorites.

"Haven't you published the fact that Judson Harmon, Governor of Ohio, would be your choice?"

"No; his speech made in Dallas and his picture were published just as have been those of other prominent Democrats. There is no doubt, however, that Governor Harmon is growing in strength throughout the country. He is an able man, and as the Democratic leader who won in a Republican state, he is gaining more and more popularity.

"But there is Marshall, Governor of Indiana, who turned the same trick on the Republicans in his state that Harriman did in Ohio. He, too, is coming ahead fast as a National figure."
