REFORM QUESTION

Municipal Campaigns Are Center of Interest in Tuesday's Elections. - '

NEGRO IS MARYLAND ISSUE

San Francisco, Philadelphia and New York Make Demands for Reform in Control of Municipal Government.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Elections will be held Tuesday in many states and cities. Three states will elect Governors and Three states will elect Governors and full state tickets, namely: Massachusetts. Rhode Island and Virginia. New Jersey will elect both branches of the Legislature. Pennsylvania will elect a State Treasurer, an Auditor-General and Judgs of the Supreme Court. Nebraska will elect three Justices of the Supreme Court and three University Recents.

Only Local Issues Involved.

In point of interest, the municipal campaigns of New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco far exceed those of the state contests. In each of these municipal contests the reform question is a dominant issue. Fractically all of the contests, state and municipal, are on local lacuses, with no National questions involved.

Massachusetts-The Massachusetts cam-

Involved.

Massachusetts—The Massachusetts campaign has been short and sharp. Governor Boen S. Draper, Republican, is seeking re-election against James H. Vahey, Democrat. The other candidates for Governor are Daniel A. White, Socialist, John A. Nicholls, Prohibition, and Moritz F. Buther, Social-Labor.

Rhode Island—The same candidates for Governor who opposed each other last year again head the ticket this year, Governor Aram J. Pothier being the Republican nominee and Giney Arnold the Democrat. The other candidates for Governog are Wills S. White, Prohibition: Prederick Hurst, Socialist, and Richard Holland, Social Labor.

New York—Chief interest in New York has centered in the whirlwind municipal campaign of New York City, which has been exceptionally bitter. With three Mayoralty candidates in the field, William J. Gaynor, the Democratic and Tammany nomines: Otto T. Bannard, Republican standard bearer, and William R. Hearst, leading the Civic Alliance, party lines have been shattered and political managers are guessing at pluralities for the candidates.

for salways and other large money undertakings.

Pennsylvania — In Pennsylvania the chief interest is in Philadelphia, where the reform element is endeavoring to break the po. r of the local Republican organization.

The reformers, under the title of the William Penn carry have again placed.

The reformers, under the title of the William Penn party, have again placed D. Charence Gibbony, head of the Philadelphia Law and Order Society, in the field for District Attorney against Samul P. Rottan, Republican, renominated. Gibbony is also on the Democratic ticket, but the Democratic, as an organization, have not held a meeting in his interest, nor has the organization officially indorsed him. The streeters question is a leading issue. Pennsylvania elects a Treasurer, Auditor-General and Judge of the Supreme Court. The candidates for State Treasurer are I. A. Stover, Republican; George W. Ripp, Democrat; Frank Finh, Prohibition; Edward W. Moore, Socialist.

New Jersey—The fact that the eight

States Senator to succeed Senator John

Virginia — The campaign in Virginia has been marked by unusual apathy. The offices to be filled are Governor. Lieutenant-Governor, members of the General Assembly and other state of-fices. The state Democratic ticket is headed by Judge William Hodges Mann, a Confederate veteran, who stands on a platform which advocates local option, also in ored by the Republicans. # Maryland Has Negro Issue.

Maryland-The paramount issue in this state is the so-called disfranchising amendment to the state constitution adthe so-called "grandfather's clause widing for those who voted prior to clause whereby a citizen naturalized prior to November 2, 1996, and their descend-ants may register and vote. The Mayoralty entest in Cleveland is attracting attention. Mayor Tom L. Johnson is a candidate for the fifth time on the Democratic tleket. He is opposed by County Recorder Herman C. Baehr, the Republican candidate.

Republican candidate.

Indiana—The temperance question is preminent in the manicipal campaign in indianapolis. The primary elections at Indianapolis resulted in "anti-organization" candidates for Mayor being nominated by both Republicans and Democrats. The Republican candidate is Samuel Lowis Shark, and his Democratic opponent is Charles A. Ganss.

Nebraskis—No important issues are at stake in this state. The only state officers to be elected are three justices of the Supreme Court, two university regents for the full term and one to fill a vacancy. The nominees for Supreme Courtare: Republicans, John B. Barnes, Jacob Fäwcett and Samuel H. Sedgwick; Democrat and Populat, James R. Dean, Benjamin F. Goode and John Sullivan.

The calling out of troops followed much disorder here Friday and Saturday of last week. An armed body of men forcibly selzed the official ballots Friday and carried them to a remote part of the county, where they defled arrest.

Yesterday, following a raid in which hundreds of armed men supporting the Redwine or Democratic ticket took possession of the courthouse and threatened serious trouble, a truce was entered into which it was thought would end hostilities, but both sides in the context appear suspicious of each other and fear the compromise will not be respected. Judge Adams thereupon asked for troops.
