A. M. Grilley, of the Y. M. C. A. desires to form a league of several of the colleges in the state and the Multnomah Club and Y. M. C. A. of Portland. It was Mr. Grilley's idea to play the league games in a tournament to be held at a central point. This plan would give all the teams the same chance since they would all be playing on the same floor and under the same conditions. The tournament plan would also allow great saving in expenses.

The small colleges seem to want a league of their own and apparently are not willing to admit the strong teams from the State University and the Gregon Agricultural College. If the small fry league is formed, the other teams probably will play independent games.

Football Enthustasts Believe Squad Will Rival Multnomahs. Season to Open Saturday.

Soccer enthusiasts speculating on the duticok in Portland for that kind of football for the season of 1969-10, while they concede that the Multnomah Club has a concede that the Multhoman Club has a strong elaven, believe the Multhoman's will find rivals worthy of their steel in a newly organized club, the Queen's Park, the membership of which is composed almost exclusively of Scotchmen. Last almost exclusively of Scotchmen. Last year the Maltnomahs had matters pretty much their own way, as the other clubs were too weak to give them, the worth of their money and the red-and-whites easily came out ahead. Of course they had to fight for their victories all the same and were more or less battered, but they couldn't find the club able to defeat them. Cricketers, Crescents, Rangers, O. R. & N's and others couldn't do the trick.

The soccer season is yet young but for the past week or two the entire football territory of Portland has been explored and a finetooth comb used to try to find a soccer cleven able to take care of the Multnomahs. It was at first seriously proposed to bessech the famous Pilgrim club now visiting this country to come to this city and humble the spirits come to this city and humble the spirits.

ously proposed to beseech the famous Pilgrim club now visiting this country to come to this city and humble the spirits of the doughtly winners, but the Pilgrims' schedule, it was found, had already been made up and that Cincinnati, O., is their farthest point West. However, the local soccer men have organized several strong clubs, among these being the Queen's Park Cricketers, Nationals and Oceanics.

Queen's Park players have so far taken the lead, and in their practice have demonstrated that they will give the Multnomahs a strong fight to maintain a premier position. The two clubs met recently in a friendly game—but not a league match—and although the Multnomahs won by three goals to nothing this doesn't tell all the story. At points, the Multnomahs were outplayed, and for the first half no goals were scored for either side, although the Multnomahs tried six times for goal in succession and missed. Then they awoke and scored three, just to show that they could do it. The Queen's Park team was well handled by Manager Richmond, and looks like a winner. All the men have played soccer before and they show confidence and precision. Buchanan was goal and the fullbacks were McBain and Drake, who played well. O'Hara, Robertson and Walker were the halfbacks and Robertson, who has unusually good physique and skill, put up a star game. The wings and center were McPherson, Gray, Ingals, Kellogg and Howard, McPherson and Gray excelling particulariy. The regular soccer league season will open Saturday afternoon with a game between the Multnomahs and Oceanics.

Sullivan Affair in Chicago.

Wet grounds caused the calling of of yesterday's scheduled engagement between the Philadelphia American Lesguers and the All-Stars of the Na-tional League. Several thousand Port-land fans who were anxious to see Walter Johnson, the most phenomenal young pitcher of modern years, in action, were disappointed. Last night the major league players left for California, where they are scheduled to play for several weeks. The Nationals are scheduled to play at Sacramento Tuesday, while the Athletics go to San Francisco to open a series of games with the San Francisco lub next Wednesday.

The headquarters of the big leaguers The headquarters of the big leaguers presented a busy scene yesterday. The fans flocked about the players and engaged them in conversation eagerly. Whenever a new man joined the group eager whisperings inquiring as to his identity were audible. Expecial inquiry was made for Walter Johnson, Jack Coombs, Eddie Collins, Larry Doyle, Big Chiefs Bender and Myers and Cy Morgan. Patsy Donohue, Mike Mitchell, Heiney Heitmuller, Jack Bliss and Dick Esan, having played in Portland at one time or another, were known to the fans. The presence of Fielder Jones, Billy Sullivan and Connie Mack, as well as the gray locks of Frank Bancroft, all baseball Sullivan and connie mack, as well as his gray locks of Frank Bancroft, all baseball dignitaries, added to the prominence of the gathering and some interesting fanning bees were rehearsed.

"If Charley Comiskey made that statement he is a fool," said Fielder Jones in discussing the dispatch. "Comy is a shrewd man and I don't believe he said it, for he has absolutely no reason for doing so. According to the players on the major teams Comiskey has secured only two likely men for the coming season. One of these is Rolly Zeider, of the San Francisco club, and the other is Blackburn, of Providence. The visiting players say Zeider and Blackburn are likely to help the White Sox, but the other players are not regarded as sensations.

Another big league deal which may come to pass through this junketing trip is the possibility of the sale or trade of Pat Donohue by Boston to the Athletics. Connie Mack is sweet on Donohue and will undoubtedly try to secure him from the Boston club. Pat is with the Athletics on this trip because Ira Thomas was the only regular backstop of Mack's bunch who could make the trip.

Cy Morgan, one of Connie Mack's most reliable twirlers, who was formerly with the Boston Americans, is a clever enter-tainer. He is a good singer and can handle the keys of a plane well.

Eddie Collins, the young phenom on Connie Mack's team, who set the American League on fire by his batting and hitting, has an ambition to take the batting supremacy away from Ty Cobb. His team-mates say he will do it yet.

Mike Mitchell, who finished second to Hans Wagner in the batting percentages of the National League, graduated to the Cincinnati club from Portland in 1996. Mike is accompanied on this trip by his wife.
