

TAMMANY GAINS BUT HALF VICTORY

Elects Gaynor, Loses Control of Funds.

WHITMAN SUCCEEDS JEROME

Majority of Board of Estimates Is Republican.

WILL EXPEND ONE BILLION

New York Gives Tammany Mayor Over 70,000 Plurality, but Keeps Spoils From Tiger's Clutches.

GAYNOR'S PLURALITY, 71,585. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The results in New York's majority contest, with 21 election districts missing, are as follows: Gaynor, Democrat, 246,715; Barnard, Republican-Fusion, 175,002; Hearst, Independent, 130,590. Gaynor plurality, 71,585.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Tammany elected another Mayor of Greater New York today but lost its grip on city finances. William J. Gaynor, of Brooklyn, swept the five boroughs to victory as Mayor by at least 70,000 plurality, defeating Otto T. Barnard, Republican-Fusion, and William E. Hearst, Independent.

Whitman to Succeed Jerome. In addition, the Republican-Fusionists elected Charles S. Whitman District Attorney of New York City. He defeated George C. Battle, Dem., by at least 12,000 plurality, and John S. Shea, for Sheriff over C. D. Sullivan, Dem., by approximately 10,000.

Reform control of the Board of Estimates is assured by the election of the following Republican-Fusion nominees: Controller, William D. Frendersart, defeating Robert R. Moore by approximately 48,000. President of the Board of Aldermen, John P. Mitchell, defeating John F. Galvin by approximately 54,000. President of the Borough of Manhattan, George McAneny, defeating Joseph Haag by approximately 14,000.

Safe Majority on Board. The contest for these two last-named borough presidencies was close, but latest returns favored the Republican-Fusion nominees, while in Queens (Long Island) Lawrence Gelsler (Ind. and anti-Tammany) was elected.

Gaynor Leads by 70,000. With but 28 election districts out of 103 missing, the total vote of the Greater City for the three candidates was as follows: Gaynor, 246,715; Barnard, 175,002; Hearst, 130,590. This gives Gaynor a lead of 70,417 over Barnard and 95,221 over Hearst.

Personal Liberty Candidate. Judge Gaynor, who now becomes Mayor of Greater New York, was elected on the strength of his personal record as a jurist and his stand for personal liberty and a liberal Sunday. Although the Tammany candidate, he maintained throughout the campaign that no boss shall dictate to him, and one of his favorite remarks was that, if there was to be any swallowing between him and the Tiger he ultimately would be found on the outside.

Gaynor was prominently mentioned as a Democratic Vice-Presidential possibility last year, and in 1894 he declined the Democratic nomination for Governor. He has been a near-candidate for Mayor of New York for years, but, as he expressed himself to his friends, he wanted to be sure of election—to be elected Mayor and then Governor, with a view of becoming President of the United States.

Target of Bitter Assaults. Backed by Tammany in the campaign just ended, Gaynor was bitterly assailed by pulp and bar, not to mention the attacks of Hearst, who repudiated him after having agreed to support him, and

GIRLS RESCUE ART PIECES FROM FIRE

YOUNG WOMEN STUDENTS RUN INTO BURNING HOUSE.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—The residence of J. C. Drake, with its wealth of art treasures and its beautiful architecture, at 2715 South Hoover street, was destroyed by fire yesterday.

Ten brave young women, students of the Girls' Collegiate School, formed themselves into a fire brigade and rescued heirlooms valued at $10,000. Before the fire was extinguished three other magnificent residences in the immediate neighborhood, the homes of F. E. Oakley, George F. Beveridge and A. H. Bush, caught fire and only after a warm fight were the buildings saved.

TRAVELERS TAKE TO TRAIL

Tunnel Cave-in on Southern Pacific Delays All Traffic.

REDDING, Cal., Nov. 2.—The Shasta route of the Southern Pacific is still blocked by the cave-in of tunnel No. 1, which occurred yesterday near Coram, while a freight train was passing through the tunnel and resulted in the death of two men.

Passengers, mail and baggage are transferred over a trail made over the hill, which is steep and slippery. It takes from four to eight hours to make a transfer from one train to another. According to railroad officials on the ground, the cave-in is much more extensive than at first believed. It was found necessary to make an open cut south of the entrance to the tunnel for a distance of 130 feet. It is believed that it will be Friday or Saturday before the tunnel is cleared and traffic can be resumed through it.

HANG PREACHER IN EFFIGY

Minnesota Wets Take Revenge for War on Licenses.

FAIRMONT, Minn., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Rev. Grant F. Wilder, pastor of the First Congregational Church in this city, was hanged in effigy on the front porch of the parsonage last night. The figure remained suspended today and caused much excited comment.

The action is attributed to a feeling aroused by a special election to be held here to amend the city charter. The proposed amendment, if carried, will permit freeloading to vote on the question of license at the next regular election. Since coming to Fairmont, Rev. Mr. Wilder has taken an active part against the liquor interests and the affront offered him is generally attributed to those whom he opposed.

SHERIFF INSULTS CONSUL

Denver Officer Invades Italian Consulate to Serve Papers.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 2.—As the result of the action of a Deputy Sheriff in invading the local Italian Consulate in order to serve a summons on Consul Rossi, the latter may complain to the officials at Washington.

Pasquale Corte, ex-Italian Consul at Denver, filed suit yesterday against Rossi for $10,000 damages for alleged libel. In serving the summons, Deputy Sheriff Swanson applied at the Italian Consulate and was told Consul Rossi would not see him and that the Consul was immune from such service. The deputy, seeing Rossi, however, went in and placed the document at the Consul's feet. Consul Rossi has made official complaint to Governor Shafer.

FICKERT HAS BIG MAJORITY

WIDE OPEN TOWN DENIED

Newly-Elected Mayor Promises Liberal, Businesslike Administration—Says San Francisco Will Be More Moral in Future.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—After three years of a reform government which followed the sensational bribery-graft disclosures in the Ruef-Schmitts Union Labor administration of 1906-07, partial returns from today's municipal election up to midnight indicate that the city has again chosen a Union Labor administration by the election of P. H. McCarthy for Mayor and Charles M. Fickert for District Attorney. Opposed to Fickert was Francis J. Heney, who attained National fame as Government prosecutor in the famous land-fraud cases in Portland and who for three years has conducted the dramatic bribery-graft prosecutions in this city, which have become historic.

While many issues of local importance entered into the campaign, the continuance of the graft prosecutions, which has centered National interest on San Francisco and brought about a civic division of sentiment that has obliterated all party lines, was the dominant one. Mr. Heney went before the people frankly on this one issue, appealing for vindication of his course in the sensational trials growing out of the exposure of municipal corruption in the so-called "boodling board" of Supervisors.

He promised from the stump that, if elected, he would carry on the graft prosecutions with unabating vigor. Fickert wants results. Mr. Fickert asserts that he will prosecute only such of those cases as after careful investigation, he is "convinced can be carried to a successful result."

Mr. Fickert is a young man and a new figure in local politics. He was for four years Assistant United States District Attorney. Except as a member of the Charter Commission and as Civil Service Commissioner, P. H. McCarthy has never held public office. He was a candidate for Mayor at the special election following the conviction of Eugene E. Schmitts in 1907, being defeated by the present incumbent, Dr. Edward R. Taylor, whom he now succeeds. As president of the San Francisco Building Trades Council for the past 13 years, he has been a prominent and influential figure in municipal politics.

After Mrs. Low is taken to her home her mother will come to this country and make her home for the Winter with her son, Sidney, who is with the Mexican Railway in Monterey, Mexico. SECTIONAL STRIFE SHOWN

County Bordering on Puget Sound, Nominally Heavily Republican, Gives Substantial Vote to the Democratic Candidate.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 2.—With W. W. McCredie, of Vancouver, Wash., the Republican nominee, leading by substantial majorities throughout the Puget Sound, which is still in its infancy, was formed to fight landlords on various grounds. Some of the planks in the platform of the new organization are: The baby has more right in an apartment-house than a dog or a cat. We will prove it under law.

A landlord has not any real right to collect rent 30 days in advance. Rent should be C. O. D. Steam heat or any other heat should not be turned off on a given date, such as May 1. Landlords should be made to sprinkle the streets in front of their houses, so "flatfatters" would not have to spend most of their time sweeping.

Many Chicago landlords babies from their apartment-houses, and this receives particular attention from the new association. WAR ON IMPORTERS' GRAFT. Government Trying to Break Up Drain on Customs Office.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—"Break up the importers' graft," is the slogan of the Treasury Department and its customs collectors just now, and the Acting Secretary today contributed another chapter in the Government's fight against the abuse of the privilege of allowance for decay while fruit is being held subject to entry.

Investigation has shown that the importers in many cases leave the fruit at the Government docks until they are ready to deliver it, then enter it with a claim for allowance for decay, but sell the goods regardless of the Government's allowance for impairment. Collector Loeb is advised in today's instructions that where no entry is made by the importer for perishable fruit within 48 hours after the entry of the vessel, such fruit should be treated as unclaimed and sold.

PATRIOT IN PRISON AGAIN. Russia Again Arrests Tschalkowsky, for Whom Americans Plead.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 2.—Nicholas Tschalkowsky, revolutionary leader, who has been at liberty under bail pending his trial for complicity in acts of terrorism, has been rearrested. Great interest in Tschalkowsky's case was taken in the United States at the time of his first arrest and an influential petition for his release on bail was sent to St. Petersburg. It was largely through this American intercession that he was released on bail.

STEAMER GOES ASHORE

Montara Strikes Ground While Crossing Bar at Eagle Harbor.

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—While entering Eagle Harbor today, the steamer Montara, of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, went aground on the bar off the mouth of the bay and is still held fast, notwithstanding repeated efforts to release her. Tugs are standing by the stranded vessel and another effort to release her will be made at high tide tomorrow morning.

Rock Slide Covers Track.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—During the heavy rain last night a landslide occurred near Clifton and a mass of earth and rocks came down onto the railway track and a freight train which came along shortly afterwards ran into it. Today's trains were delayed for several hours on account of the accident, but the track was cleared this afternoon and all trains are now running regular.

Court Tells Mrs. Engleman to Go Away and Stay—Marriage Offers Pouring In.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Johanna Engleman, the first woman juror in California, who has received such extensive public notice during the last fortnight, because of her unique position, met her Waterloo when she appeared in the courtroom of Judge R. F. Bledsoe of San Bernardino today. Judge Bledsoe excused her from the panel, and added that she need not return. He also ruled that neither the California statutes nor the common law provided for woman jurors.

Mrs. Engleman was visibly disappointed as she left the courtroom. Mrs. Engleman has received hundreds of letters and many offers of marriage since she sprang into public notice as the original woman juror.

GRIEF PURSUES LANDLORDS

Flatters Form Combine to Fight Owners—Babies One Question.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—A legal fight to establish the right of Chicago babies to inhabit an apartment-house has been started by Rolla H. Longmecker, an attorney and organizer of the Tenants' Protective Association. The organization, which is still in its infancy, was formed to fight landlords on various grounds. Some of the planks in the platform of the new organization are:

The baby has more right in an apartment-house than a dog or a cat. We will prove it under law. A landlord has not any real right to collect rent 30 days in advance. Rent should be C. O. D.

FAIRBANKS MAY BE MINISTER TO CHINA

EX-VICE PRESIDENT WILLING

PEKIN PLEASD BY PLAN

Celestial Kingdom Likely to Elevate Mission at Washington to Rank of Embassy if Distinguished Hoosier Is Sent to Orient.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—In a Washington dispatch to the Record-Herald, William E. Curtis says Senator Cullom has suggested to Secretary Knox that Charles W. Fairbanks, ex-Vice-President, be appointed Minister to China, and that the "appropriateness" of the appointment has been universally approved by every one to whom it has been suggested. It is also said that the friends of Mr. Fairbanks believe he would accept the post if it were offered him.

The dispatch continues: "Mr. Fairbanks has recently spent a month in Pekin where he was received with unusual honors, the same that would be conferred upon a royal visitor. Makes Hit in China. 'All reports from there agree that he made a most favorable impression upon the Princes and Mandarins with whom he came in contact. He became deeply interested in the Chinese situation and has written to friends in this country concerning the participation by the people of the United States in the development of the Chinese Empire. 'Many communications encourage friends of Mr. Fairbanks and those who are anxious for a proper representation of this Government at Pekin, to believe that he would accept the position and grasp the opportunity it would offer him to promote the welfare of both countries. Turns Down English Job. 'Hitherto when his name has been mentioned in connection with the British Embassy, he has been very positive in his refusal to even consider the subject. But the Chinese situation would undoubtedly appeal to him very strongly. 'Furthermore, it is probable that the Chinese Government would agree to elevate their mission here to the rank of an Embassy in order to secure an distinguished envoy, in addition to Mr. Fairbanks to the diplomatic coteries at Pekin.'
