MONEY MARKET UNCERTAIN

Pennsylvania Unfavorably Affected by Decision to Issue New Stock at Par - Equipment Company Shares Firmer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 .- The quiet condition in the speculation, which respected financial authorities have been advising for several weeks, was in evidence today. It was sup-posed to be due in part to the delay in the return from election-day holiday visits on the return from election-day holiday visits on the part of the brokerage fraternity.

There was sufficient uncertainty acknowledged in the money outlook to account for the halting tendency in the market's scitivity. The figures of the clearing-house exchanges for list Monday gave a hint of the special demand on the banks. The settlements effected between the clearing-house banks for that day amounted to the record total of $130, $40,548. Abroad there was an emeting of the private discount rate in London today, which had some effect on exchange bear in Paris the private discount rate attracted and the exchange rate on London ran off.

The large orders for new equipment now being placed by the railroads beined the socks of companies in those industries. The copper stocks were helped by the reports of large sales of companies in those industries. The copper stocks were helped by the reports of large sales of reper recently made. Pennsylvania showed further unfavorable effect from the decision to issue its new shock to stockholders at as low a figure as par.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3 .- Wheat prices broke severely today, owing to general liquida-tion based on the weakness of the cash situation in this country and on the favorable outlook for the Argentine crop. The December delivery declined 2% from the high point of the day. At the class, prices high point of the day. At the close, prices showed net hosses of 1 to 25c.

From $1.04\% touched early in the day. December seid off to 1.01\%, which point was reached just before the close. News reaching the cash situation in the Northwest was the chief reason for the general unloading of long lines of wheat here. The slump in wheat caused some reaction in the corn market, although a relatively firm tone prevailed the greater part of the day. At the close, prices were only 18 %c below the final figures of the day previous. TWO MORE SEATTLE MILLERS Only One Now Selling at Reduced

YOUR INVESTMENTS

In selecting an investment-particularly when purchasing bonds or other securities-the established reputation, experience and financial responsibility of your banker or dealer is of the utmost importance, almost as much so as the character of the investment to be considered.

A well-established firm, combining ample capital, a safe and sound knowledge of values, with good buying and selling facilities, is not only able to furnish its clients with carefully selected, profitable investments, but is furthermore in a position to convert the same into cash at almost any time, and protect the interests of its customers in every way.

During the past 15 years this firm has purchased outright, upon careful investigation, many millions of high-grade bonds throughout the Pacific Northwest, which have been sold to a constantly increasing list of conservative clients.

In buying bonds from us, the purchaser secures the benefit of our extensive experience and established business facilities, which we believe will prove of value to any one seeking good investments.
