Annual Glove Sale

SEVENTH AND GREATEST EVENT, QUOTING PARIS PRICES

Our November Glove sale grows better each year—it's a sale that saves buyers a third or more and at the same time affords choice of immense assortments of the most fashionable styles and shades. Our representative canvassed the European markets with this sale in view and so successfully, that we can quote prices 15 per cent lower than in last year's sale. We devote practically the entire glove section to the features of this November offering, quoting prices that cannot be equaled outside of Paris. While the sale lasts profits are cut to the minimum, our object being to increase patronage.
