BOARD DENIES SANCTION

"CITY BEAUTIFUL" IDEA GETS SLAP FROM PARK BODY.

Commissioners Declare Olmsted Plan Good One, and Refuse to Be Swerved.

"The City Beautiful" idea, as engineered thus far. got a blow from the neered thus far, got a blow from the Park Board restarday morning, when, upon motion of Dr. J. R. Wetherbee, seconded by Isadore-Lang, the board refused to sanction the plan. Senator Bourne's name was mentioned as baing the prime mover in the agitation, and without going into details, the "cky beautiful" plan was passed over without further comment, except that Dr. Wetherbee said that he thought the Park Board is doing pretty well at the job. "I think," said Dr. Wetherbee, "that all of the work that has been accomall of the work that has been accom-plished by this board should not be thrown aside, as it has cost something. and should be considered. I think the Olimsted plan is a good one, and as we have been following it. I believe we should not hastily abandon it."

"I agree with all that Dr. Wetherbee as said," remarked Isadore Lang in econding the motion to postpone consid-ration of the "city beguitful" plan. Park Superintendent Mische was into have some lights and let people ride through there, so as to show strangers the city by electric lights.

through there, so as to show strangers the city by electric lights.

The board instructed Superintendent Mische to install apparatus in one of the North Parkway blocks is for older boys. At present one block there is devoted to siris and one to small boys, and it is believed that the young men are entitled to a block for themselves.

The board also instructed Superintendent Mische to look after the trimming of shades trees along the public thoroughfares, as Dr. Wetherbee said that he had been "slapped in the face by limbs of trees" when out in his automobile after dark. He especially referred to Broadway as being one thoroughfares that needs attention.

The board ordered some improvements in several of the parks, among these being the planting of Oregon grape in one ing the planting of Oregon grape in one of the South Parkway blocks, where roses were planted before. Some trees were also ordered planted in the Ladd tract, south of Hawthorne avenue, in some of the city's parkways there. These will be the first trees to be put in un-der the direct appervision of the city.

TO UNITED WIRELESS

Rockholders: The serious charges of falsehood and fraud made under my sig-nature against the so-called "United" Wireless have not been resented. I prewireless have not collapse of this colossal financial farce, and again advise you to write me for further information. JOHN L SCHUYLEMAN, structed to submit a plan for lighting one of the roadways in the City Park, so that automobiles may venture there at night Dr. Wetherbee, in making his motion, explained that at present ve-7ed Oregonian Building, Portland, so that automobiles may venture there at night Dr. Wetherbee in making his motion, explained that at present vehicles are not allowed in the park after dark, but said it would be a wise pian Remeety.

DOCTOR HAS NIGHTMARE

TERRIFIC GROANS AWAKE OTH-ERS IN HOSPITAL.

Dr. C. E. Patterson Victim of Peculiar Form of Dreams That Has Unpleasant Effects.

The effect of nightmares on Dr. C. E. Patterson, an interne at Good Samaritan Hospital, is arousing considerable con ment among the staff and attendant physicians at the institution. After having one of these extraordinary dreams. Dr. Patterson's motor and vocal func-tions are absolutely suspended, while to call assistance he purses his mouth in such a manner that the discharge of all from his lungs has the effect of terrific grouns, audible all over the floor on

After dreaming Thursday night that he was sleeping with a cadaver, the re-suit of continuous duty for some time, nurses were terrified to hear terrible groans, proceeding from the doctor's room. Calling the assistance of other house doctors, they burst into Dr. Pat-terson's room, finding him stretched out in an apparently cataleptic condition when after repeated shoutings and shakings his functions were restored. Dr. Patterson said. "I was asleep and trying to wake myself."

wake mrself."
In explanation, Dr. Patterson later said be had long suffered from this kind of nightmare, which took the form of something ferrifying. For their own restfulness at night the other house doctors
