

PINCHOT-BALLINGER FIGHT IS AGAIN OPEN

Declared Forester Himself Inspired Attacks Upon Cabinet Member.

HENEY FIGURES IN CASE

His Aid to Glavis in Formulating Charges Is Disclosed and He May Be Discharged by Department of Justice—Taft to Decide.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash., Nov. 9.—The opinion is prevalent in Washington that President Taft will be compelled to take further cognizance of the Pinchot-Ballinger fight, in view of the renewal of attacks by Glavis. It is well known and so stated by Pinchot's friends that Pinchot himself urged Glavis to make the attacks upon Ballinger and that one of Pinchot's men was detailed to assist him in preparing the accusations.

Francis J. Heney may also figure in the affair before it closes, for it is now known that he, too, gave aid to Glavis in preparation of the attacks on the cabinet member. It is expected in some quarters that as a result of his interference, Heney will no longer be employed by the Department of Justice.

It seems more apparent than ever that the President will be unable amicably to adjust relations between Pinchot and Ballinger, and sooner or later must make a choice between them.

STORY IS FALSE; BALLINGER SECRETARY NOT SURPRISED BY ATTACK FROM NEW YORK WEEKLY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Secretary Ballinger, of the Department of the Interior, issued the following statement today:

"My attention has been directed to the text of an article, purporting to have been written by Mr. I. R. Glavis, which is to appear in Collier's Weekly, and advance copies of which have been furnished by that Weekly to the press.

"The Glavis story is a tissue of falsehoods and imputations utterly unwarranted in view of the facts easily obtained by anybody who wants them.

"It is not surprising that a publication which could, in pursuit of its same propaganda, recklessly, under date of October 29, reproduce a folder appearing on a familiar railroad folder of the Grand River Canyon in Colorado, as a picture of an available power site which was in danger of unlawful acquisition on the South Platte River, 200 miles away and across the Continental Divide, should be willing, without the slightest effort to ascertain the facts, to give wings to a story which had heretofore been submitted to so great and just a man as the President of the United States, who after a most careful consideration thereof, in which he had before him the complete files of the General Land Office and of the Secretary of the Interior, relating to each and every one of the charges, had pronounced those charges without justification.

"The statement of Glavis has gained nothing either as to its veracity or justification in the interval since its presentation to the President, and in view of the complete vindication, by the President, of myself and other officers of the department, I can only say I make no further statement at present."

Commissioner Fred Dunnett, of the General Land Office, made the following statement regarding the Glavis charges:

"The article is simply a repetition of the charges submitted to the President, which the President, after examining all the evidence and the official records, characterized as shreds of suspicion and so disingenuous that he authorized Glavis' dismissal.

"It is the same false coloring of isolated portions of the record and of a series of transactions which, in their entirety, refute the inferences Glavis wishes drawn from the portions published."

CUNNINGHAM GROUP DEFENDED

Glavis' Statement Declared False. Claims Bona Fide.

SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—Emphatically denying that any of the entries of coal lands in Alaska made by the claimants in the so-called Cunningham group are fraudulent or made with intent to deceive the Government, H. C. Henry and C. J. Smith, who are interested in the claims today made answer to the statements of the ex-field inspector contained in Collier's Weekly.

"Glavis' statements in some cases are absolutely false," said C. J. Smith, "and in some an agitator who is being used by some people higher up for ulterior motives of their own, to prevent the development of the Alaska coal fields and to prevent a fair and judicial examination into the Cunningham coal cases, to the end that the men who have paid the Government their good money for these lands, and who are entitled to patents, shall not come into the possession of what they believe to be theirs under the law."

"The rich character of these coal lands," said C. J. Smith, "had long been a matter of public knowledge. The claims were filed on under the existing laws; everything was done open and above board, there was no attempt at concealment of anything, and the men who filed on these claims are American citizens of good record and who are entitled to fair and just treatment and a square deal by the Government."

HURICANE HITS PANAY

Typhoon Makes 5000 Homeless in the Philippines.

MANILA, Nov. 9.—Panay Island, of the Visayas group, Philippines, was crossed by a typhoon last Sunday. The storm was especially severe in Capiz Province, where many homes were destroyed.

Five thousand persons are homeless and much property and crops were destroyed. The wind, which was of hurricane force, was accompanied by rains. Much of the country is flooded.

MANY CANDIDATES APPEAR

Los Angeles Election Complicated Through Primary Law.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 9.—Tomorrow Los Angeles will hold the first election under the new city primary law to fill all city offices. A vast number of candidates ranging from three for City Clerk to 77 for City Councilmen fill the big blanketed ballot. For Mayor there are seven candidates and for the Board of Education 27.

Under the new law no party appellations appear upon the ballot and every candidate for the suffrage of the people has been named by petition. The signatures of but 100 persons were necessary to put the name of a candidate upon the ballot. Another feature of the primaries is that the nine Councilmen of the city are to be chosen at large instead of by the ward system for the first time.

As a result of the primaries the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes will make the race at the general election in December. This applies to the office of Mayor, City Auditor, Treasurer, Auditor, Tax Collector, Assessor and Clerk. For the seven places on the Board of Education, all candidates will compete for the election. Sixty-four men will make the race for the nine Councilman offices.

Efforts of the voters to select a satisfactory ticket that the electors will favor in combinations which have made their appearance in the form of cards containing the proper number of names for the electors to vote. The effort to bring the voter with a satisfactory list has caused a great output of these cards. One candidate for the Council has his name on probably a score of cards, all carrying different combinations of candidates for the Council, but each bearing his name prominently near the top. He hopes to put the most exacting voter and also include himself in the choice.

HERMIT'S HEIRS SOUGHT

CORONER PUTS GUARD OVER HIDDEN TREASURE.

Letters Only Clew to Relatives of Henri Molboes, Lewis County Recluse.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—Charles L. Sticklin, coroner, Lewis County, through the French Consul at Seattle will make an effort to find heirs to the estate of Henri Molboes, hermit, who was found dead Friday. The reclusive hermit is estimated to be worth from $20,000 to $40,000, consisting of two quarter sections of valuable timber land, a bank account of several hundred dollars and hidden money.

Molboes had no relatives living in this country, but letters found in his possession showed that he had a niece and a nephew in France. One letter written in 1897 by the niece gives the address: Mademoiselle Edina Delance, Salles de Gagnieres, Gard, France.

That the hermit had money buried there is no doubt. To prevent anyone discovering it Coroner Sticklin has placed a man on guard. As soon as an administrator is appointed a search will be made for the treasure.

POLICE CALL FOR AID

Brenn, with 40 fellow I. W. W. workers, was tried in the Police Court this afternoon on disorderly conduct charges.

Brenn told the court he was a cynical smile that one of his children was near death's door, but that the cause of "tree speech" needed him more than did his family. The court pointed to return to his home with the provision "that in case he was needed to go to jail for the I. W. W. cause he would be taken up there." A 30-day sentence was suspended.

Anne Arquest, Isabelle Huxtable and Mrs. Edith Furnette, women workers in the ranks of the I. W. W., were dismissed with mild reproaches from the court.

Forty-one sulken, unkempt members of the I. W. W. order, charged with disorderly conduct, were sentenced to 30 days in jail today. Twenty-nine of the men were foreign-born and made their pleas in broken English. The courtroom was packed with I. W. W. members and their sympathizers.

All the hot breakfasts of bacon, potatoes, onions and bread were refused this morning by the 50 I. W. W. street orators in jail here awaiting trial. They declare they will not eat until the other prisoners are fed the same. When the bread and water breakfast was offered to the 30 street speakers already sentenced, who have refused to work on the rooftops, they cursed the "scoundrel" who was their reply when asked if they were ready for breakfast. They declare they will die of starvation before they will touch the food. Some of them have not eaten since Thursday night.

But the warm breakfasts taken to the cell where the five leaders of the I. W. W. were held, were accepted all disappeared mysteriously. The five men protest that they did not eat anything, but could not explain satisfactorily how the plates were emptied of potatoes and bacon. Until yesterday they took food regularly.

Street speaking was resumed by the members of the I. W. W. shortly before noon, over a dozen speakers being marched to jail. No resistance was offered by the men arrested.

The Central Labor union, representing most of the American Federation of Labor unions in the city, has declined to ask the Council to modify the old ordinance which forbids all street speaking within the fire limits. The unions favor setting aside portions of streets where speaking will be permitted at certain hours under police regulations. If the Council shares this plan, the unions propose that vacant ground be secured where open-air meetings may be held.

Some of the men in jail who have refused to eat for four or five days and reported to be becoming very weak and in bad physical condition because of their long fasting. Thus far, however, only one in more than a hundred has abandoned the starvation strike.

WELLS-FARGO STOCK UP

Wall Street Excited by Advance of 39 1-2 Points.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The only exciting quotation today in the stock market was that of the stock of the Wells-Fargo Express Company, which on the sale of three lots of 100 shares each, suddenly became the center of excited trading, and by 2 o'clock this afternoon this stock had made the phenomenal advance of 39 1-2 points, standing at 84 1-2.

Few of the other stocks in the speculative list were affected by this bulge in Wells-Fargo, and most of the list was heavy. A few industrial and utility list made advances, and while the entire tendency was upward, there was little going outside the frantic efforts made to secure the express stocks.

ASSESSMENTS OBJECTED TO

DALLES PRIEST HONORED

POPE GIVES TITLE TO REV. FATHER BRONGSEEST.

He Is Made Domestic Prelate of the Holy See — Long, Arduous Service Recognized.

THE DALLES, Or., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—Announcement has just been made that the Very Rev. Alphonse Bronsgest, Vicar-General of the Diocese of Baker City and rector of St. Peter's at The Dalles, was recently raised to the dignity of Domestic Prelate of the Holy See by his holiness Pope Pius X. The title of Monsignor goes with this distinction.

Father Bronsgest was notified of his advancement in the church on September 11, 1909, but, owing to his extreme modesty, the fact was kept a secret, and only became known through a church dignitary living in another section of the state.

Right Rev. Bronsgest was born in Rheinland province, Germany, and was ordained in 1879. He came to Oregon in 1878 as assistant to Very Rev. Fierens at the cathedral in Portland. He was

VETO TO BE SUSTAINED

COUNCIL TO UPHOLD MAYOR'S STAND ON BILLBOARDS.

New Measure Required—Forfeiture of Saloon License to Be Considered Today—Big Grist.

Mayor Simon's veto of the billboard ordinance will be sustained by the City Council this morning, probably by unanimous vote. He objected to it because it lacks such provisions as he believes should be incorporated into the law for regulating billboards. He embodies in his message to the Council concerning it his ideas as to what should be contained in the law to give the city control over billboards, and Councilman Watkins has been designated to draft a new measure, which will embrace these.

The question of revocation of the liquor license of A. F. Reams, whose place of business is at Russell and Delay streets, will also be up for action. The committee recommended its revocation, but not unanimously. Judge Bennett and Chief of Police Cox sent communications asking for the forfeiture of the license.

Councilman Cellars had hoped to bring his ordinance before the meeting today.

AUTO MURDER A MYSTERY

Injured Girl Dies After Telling Police of Crime.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—An autopsy today on the body of Dorothy Byrnes, a young girl of a well-known Brooklyn family, who died yesterday in the Blackwell Island Hospital, brought out facts which convinced the police that another murder mystery had been added to New York's list of unsolved crimes.

Before the girl died she declared she had been in an automobile with some strange men and had been forced by their treatment to leap from the car.

bezelement. As far as the two women mentioned are concerned, both Mr. Hackney and Mr. Hunt insist they have yet no evidence to incriminate them.

The facts divulged by Warriner's confession are still unknown. Railroad officials have so far refused to make them public, but Warriner's attorneys declared today that on their part they had no objection to the document being given out.
