ROADS TO REFUSE INCREASE OF PAY

Demands of Employes Said to Be Inopportune at This Time.

DISCUSSION TO BE HELD

Grand Chief of Trainmen's Brotherbood Goes to Look After Ultimatum to Be Presented to Eastern Roads by Men.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3 - (Special.) - Railroad officials today declared that no wage in-crease would be granted their employes at this time, and that they did not ex-pect serious trouble. The demands of the men were declared to have been presented at an inopportune time, just as the rail-roads are emerging from a period of busi-ness depression, when earnings must be applied to equipment that should have applied to equipment that should have been purchased a year ago.

Though the railroad's are insistent they cannot advance wages at this time, they are ready to meet the Brotherhood committees and discuss the situation. Conferences are expected to begin the first week in December, immediately following the expiration of the 30-day notice.

W. S. Lee, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, left the city today for his headquarters in Cleveland to look after the vote which the men lawe recently taken on their wage demands and to make arrangements for presenting the notices to the Eastern roads. He is expected to return and to handle the situation in the local yards before taking up the more comprehensive movement in the East.

One point on which a railroad manager was emphatic today is that the railroads will not recognize the claim of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen to legislate for engineers or to ginemen to legislate for engineers or to encreach on the jurisdiction of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. "I do not see how the railroads can advance wages at this time, and I am satisfied they will not," said Slason Thompson, head of the Rallway News Bureau. The managers did not attempt to reduce schedules during the depression. Economies were effected in other ways. Economies were effected in other ways the chief one being in ordering supplies.

WRIT IS SERVED ON PORT

Coos Bay Commission Enjoined From Selling Bond Issue.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 9 .- (Special.) MARSHFIELD, Cr. Nov. P. Copied.

An injunction suit has been started against the Port of Coos Bay Commission to restrain that body from issuing bonds or in any other way incurring indebtedness. The action was started by debtedness. The action was started by J. W. Bennett, acting as attorney for the Bennett Trust Company and the Southern Oregon Company.

The validity of the Port law is not attacked, but it is alleged the Commissioners were not legally appointed because of a technical error. The injunction was served upon the members of the Commission by Sheriff Gage when they were meeting this evening in the office of Henry Sengatacken, it was issued by County Judge John Hall in the Absence of J. S. Coke, judge of the Circuit Court. The Countission had decided upon $500, 500 issue and met to open bids for the bonds when the temperary injunction was served. The bearing in the injunction will probably be soon.

George Robertson, who was to have appeared in two events with his Piat Sixty, broke an oil pipe before coming to the mark and was out all day. In practice before the races he made the two-mile lap in 1:32, a showing that would have made him a competitor in the big-car races.

The big pilot stopped but once in the 100 laps, and then only when his machine caught fire. Chevrolet assumed the lead in the first lap and increased it slowly but steadily for II miles. Chevrolet apparently was ignorant of the fact, but when he had gons about a mile, the smoke beiched into his face. Then he experienced his only dainy. In

Then he experienced his only delay. In the few minutes it required to extinguish the blaze, Dingley regained the loat laps and took the lead by about 39 yards. His triumph was short-lived, for Chevrolet overtook him in the next lap. He was never again in danger.

No serious accident marred the day's sport. The nearest approach to such an accident occurred in the Sith lap, when Harry Stillman, whose Marmon had not experienced a single delay, ran into the inner gutter of the track. Neither he nor his assistant was hurt beyond a few bruless.

Three Wheels Lost.

Three wheels flew off the car, one of them rolling 200 yards. At this time Stilliman seemed certain to best out the Chalmers-Detroit drivers for second honors, having worked to the fore of the machines, while one was replacing a tire and the other was renewing its fuel. Stillman's withdrawal left the two Chalmers-Detroits to fight it out for second place. Charles Hasle's Renault stayed hopelessly to the finish, many miles behind, but the other curs had gradually been eliminated.

MME. STEINHEIL PLEADS WITH COURT TO STOP TORTURE.

Judge Grows More Lenient-Prisoner, Exhausted, Sits Forlorn and Dejected During Trial.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—The sixth day of the trial of Mme. Steinheil has not advanced the solution of the mystery underlying the murder of the woman's husband. Adolph E. Steinheil, a painter, and her stepmother, Mme. Japy. While the testimony given today was indirectly more damaging to the defendant, the whole case rests upon circumstantial evidence.

The julige's attitude toward the accused woman is becoming distinctly more lenient and at the same time her powers cused woman is becoming distinctly more lenient and at the same time her powers of resistance seem already exhausted under the terrific ordeal.

"Have pity on me, I am being tortured," she exclaimed soon after the case opened today. Later in the day she sat forlorn and dejected, the personification of grief and misery, allowing the gravest accusations to pass unchallenged. Several newspaper reporters who had interviewed Mme. Steinheil soon after the crime gave testimony that was most damaging to her defense. One of these winnesses declared that Mme. Steinheil had said, after a conference with Mariety Wolfe, the cook at her home, that the Wolfe woman would deny everything if her misstress was arrested. Judge de Valles called the witness' attention to the gravity of his testimony and the witness replied: "I accept full responsibility."

It is learned that the line of defense to be followed by M. Aubin, Mme. Steinheil's counsel, will be based in large measure on the woman's mental condition. While insisting upon her entire innocence of the crime. M. Aubin will admit the whole miserable story of her liminoral past and will contend that exposure and the suspicions aroused against her had so affected her hysterical and passionate nature that it drove her into a condition rected her hysterical and passionate na-ture that it drove her into a condition of frenzied despair, rendering her tre-sponsible for her acts and accusations after the crime.

Orchards Now Bonded.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 9.-NORTH YAKIMA, Wash, Nov. 2.— Bonding orchards is the latest thing in local finance. Harry G. Moock has gone to Minneapolis to bond the Olson Fruit Company, capitalized at $157,000, for $75,000 to carry on development work. This ranch cleared over $30,000 this year from prunes alone. The bonding idea, if well received in the East, will be a big help to development work in Washington.

IN GOMPERS CASE

Executive Committee of Federation Recommends That Case Be Continued.

RESOLUTION IS VIGOROUS

Suggestion Is Made That Labor Leaders Be Put Forward to Fill Vacancies on Bench of Supreme Court of Country.

TORONTO, Nov. 2 - If President Samuel Gompers, Vice-President John Mitchell and Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, eventually have to serve jail sentences for contempt of court it will not be due to lack of support from trades unto The executive council of the federation The executive council of the leaeration recommended to the annual convention today that an appeal be taken to the United States Supreme Court, both in the Buck's Stove & Range Company's injunction case and in the contempt proceedings growing out of it.

That the convention will ratify the recommendation seems certain, and that the three labor leaders and their fellow officers will be re-elected for another year is predicted.

Vigorous Protest Continues. A vigorous denunciation of the labor yeur is predicted.

A vigorous denunciation of the labor injunctions and of the denial of trial by jury was embodied in the report of the council today. The report said:
"We again enter our protest against applying the writ of injunction in labor disputes (unless where an injunction would lie if there were no tabor disputes). We hold the ordinary use of the injunction writ in contentions between workers and employers is an unwarranted. workers and employers is an unwarranted workers and employers is an unwarranced interference with the rights and liberties of the workers, and is intended and its influence used to intimidate workers, especially when they are engaged in a struggle for improved working conditions.

"It should be borne in mind that in these proceedings Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison did not have the constitutional right of trial by jury. All the circumstances in this case go to prove that convictions would not have followed if the case had been submitted on its merits to a jury of their peers. We hold that excepting where contempt is in the merits to a jury of their poers. We hold that excepting where contempt is in the presence of court the liberty of no citizen should be committed to the keeping of any one man, regardless of who he may be or what position he may hold; on the contrary, we hold that a citizen charged with violating an injunction, the pinalty of which involves imprisonment, should have the same legal right to a trial by jury that is always accorded to a person charged with violation of the criminal law. To deny the right of trial criminal law. To deny the right of trial by jury is to take from the people the protection and priceless heritages which were secured by them after centuries of perseverance, struggle, sacrifice, exile and even martyrdom.

Labor Leaders for Bench.

"Whatever difference of opinion may exist among men as to any controversy between labor and capital, no good citizen of our country who treasures freedom, can reat secure until trial by jury becomes so well recognized and so firmly established in our legal jurisprudence that no man will ever again attempt to deny this essential and historical right."

The council also recommended that organized labor take up action tooking toward the naming of suitable citizens to fill vacancies that may occur in the Suprems Court of the United States and in the lesser Federal Courts.

On the subject of old age pensions the council reported a bill providing for the organization of an "Old Age Home Guard," to be composed of persons more than 65 years of age who do not own property worth more than 1950 or whose Whatever difference of opinion may property worth more than $1500 or whose than so years of age who do not own property worth more than $1500 or whose income does not exceed $240 a year. If this bill is passed by Congress, these persons may make application to the Secretary of War for "pension enlistment" and shall receive from the Government $120 per year in quarterly installments. The report recommends that every effort be made to assist in the work of conservation of natural resources. A continuation of work among unorganized labor is urged and each affiliated organization is asked more thoroughly to advertise the names of firms which employ non-union labor and conduct their establishments under unsanitary conditions. The Executive Council announced the revocation of a number of charters for failure to comply with the constitution, among them being those at Ogden, Utah,
