The audience, too, voiced its displeasure at Morrison's harangue by hissing vig-Morrison's harangue by hissing vig-ously, and again by loudly applauding r. Geary's praise of Dr. Pierce's work. This was followed by an able address Dr. Alan Welch Smith on "Portland's lik Supply." This was also illustrated Milk Supply." This was also illustrated by stereopticon views, showing unsanitary conditions of dairies in and about Portland and also views of one or two model dairies. Immediately following Dr. Smith's statement that "all per cent of the 5,000 cattle in dairies close in or around Portland are tubercular," Morison again jumped to his feet, and, in a loud voice, demanded to know just where the tubercular cows stere located. Among other things Dr. Hyde said:

Chronic Insomnia While this was going on, a brilliant in-andescent lamp shed its blinding glow in the dead man's fact, but the cyclids id not flutter. and Indigestion

The One Is Almost Always Associated Disheartened, Davenport turned to go ut, but Dr. Long called him back. "What is your opinion?" he asked. "I did not come to form an opinion." With and Caused by the Other.

Sleep has been fittingly called "tired nature's sweet restorer. It is a condi-tion in which the involuntary function such as nutrition, circulation, respira-tion, etc., go on as usual, while the voluntary powers are in repose, and the system undergoes needed repairs. No one has ever been known to live longer than three weeks without sleep. It is as necessary in physical economy as food and drink.

as food and drink.

Insomnia or chronic sleeplessness, is a symptom with which nearly every sufferer from dyspepsia is annoyed, either constantly or at frequent and irregular intervals. This inability to sleep normally is a very prominent manifestation of indig stion, and exhibits itself in different forms. In some cases sleep may come at its accustomed time, but it does not bring repose, and the person awakens entirely too soon, and is unable to fall asleep again. In others, the victim lies awake practically all night, tossing and rolling, and finally drops into a troubled and unrestful slumber at daybreak. Still others, though they may appar-Evertion has employed counsel and will fight the case. It has been suggested that he will make the novel plea that the man was still alive when the autopsy Still others, though they may appar ently sleep soundly, are annoyed with the incubus, or nightmare, with its horrors of overwhelming waves, falls from precipitious heights and attacks by infuriated and implacable monsters. All of these distressing symptoms are traceable to an irritated and enfeebled stemach, and the same is true of grinding the teeth, and twitching and jerking of the muscles during sleep.

Insomnia is rarely a disease by itself, but is nearly always a symptom of mother disease, such as dyspectal, and death was due to rupture of the sorts, the frunk line of the arterial system. This indicated, according to the Coroner, that death primarily was due to natural another disease, such as dyspersa, and in treating this complaint, many persons in their efforts to "woo the god of sleep," resort to the use of such hypnotics, sedatives, soporifies and narcolics as the bromides, chloral hydrate, causes and that the man probably had causes and that the man probably had been suffering for some time with an aneurism. Death was practically instantaneous and evidently occurred just as Simpson was coming out of the trance. Whether the rupture of the aceta was caused by the strain be was under when Everton stood on his body during its rigidity, cannot be ascertained.

The result of the autopsy more than likley will bring about Everton's release on ball. Dover powders and even morphia.

No greater mistaké than this could well be made, and the reckless use of such drugs has caused many a sudden death, while in other cases, even moderate use, has set up an incurable drugusing habit among those who resorted to the use of "siceping powders."

To cure insomnia or sleepiessness the object should be to remove the cause, and as dyspepsia is the underlying cause in a large percentage of cases, so better or safer remedy can be em-Dover powders and even morphia,
