Octoroon Secretary Reveals Secrets in Life of Jeanette Stewart Ford.

COOKE DEFIES ACCUSERS

Man Whose Real Name Is Linked With Blackmailing Plot in Warriner's $2,000,000 Shortage to Face Railroad Officials.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12-(Special.)-Secrets in the life of Mrs. Jeannette Stewart Ford, alleged castoff "affinity" and now Ford, alleged castoff "affinity" and now said to be the chief accuser of Edgar S. Cooke, whose name is linked with a blackmailing plot in the $2,000,000 shortage of Charles L. Warriner, treasurer of the Big Four Railroad in Cincinnati, were revealed today by her former secretary, Martha Polk, a 23-year-old octoroon girl, who lives with her mother at 206 State with treet.

A life of luxury and ease, combined with travel, sometimes a week in a fash-tonable botel, often with suites in two hostelries at one time, with a small army of servants, maids, nurses, butters and lackeys, fell to the lot of Mrs. Ford, but with it all she was unhappy.

Worried When in Luxury.

"Generous, warm-hearted, and congenial, Mrs. Ford worried much over her clothes," said Miss Polk, "and sometimes walked the floor for hours, sometimes half the night, debating with herself as to what gown she would wear in the morning, or to lunchoon, to the theater, a dinner afterward, or to appear in the street on a business errand.

"A blackmail plot?" repeated the young woman. "Well, I don't know about it.
And a Mr. Cooke—I never heard of him.
Mrs. Ford was liberal and had lots of money. Where she got it I don't know.
If she visited the Big Four officials and got blackmail money, I never knew it.
Besides, the source of her income nover concerned me. She was always good pay.

Cooke Defles Accusers.

Cooke Defles Accusers.

"I spent hundreds of dollars and han-died big sums for her. There was always lots of money in sight," resumed Miss Polk

Cooke today planned to go to Cincinnati Cooke today planned to go to Cincinnati and face officers of the road and Mrs. Ford and to defy them to prove that he extorted $100,000 or any other sum from Warriner. "Serious charges have been made against me," said Cooke, "and I am ready to go to Cincinnati and defy them all. I will go without extradition."

OLD LEADERS REJECTED

conditions, it would appear that Conners, like Murphy, is slated for retirement.

"Who will be the new state leader?" repeated a prominent member of the Saratoga conference when asked this question.

"Well. I do not believe that any of us are in a position to take sides at the present moment. The first thing to do is to build up a strong organization. The right man to direct it will develop at the proper time.

"People who shout about the 'crushing Democratic defeat' in New York City do not know what they are talking about. It was a Tanmany rout, and that is a far different thing from a Demouratic defeat.

Past history has demonstrated that, "Past history has demonstrated that, while men may be elected as non-partisums, they can always, if successful, be relied upon to put in their best licks in state and National campaigns for the organizations with which they usually train. Governor Hughes is the nearest approach to a non-partisan we ever had in this state, but a year ago he took the stump for Taft. When the Fusionists carried the Board of Aldermen in 1968, it was only a few months before there were was only a few months before there were no Pusionists, only Republicans and Dem-

'Next to the Mayor, the men who have the most patronage are the borough presi-York are Democrats, Cromwell, of the unimportant borough of Richmond, being the only Republican.

Nonpartisans Really Democrats.

These Democrats are loudly nonpartisan now, but where will they be next year? Does it not stand to reason that they will work for the success rather than the defeat of their party. Would they prefer a good Democrat or a good Republican as Hughes' successor at Albany? The answer is obvious.

"Mind I do not mean to say the't these men will become variable of Taminany Hall, like Abearn and Haffen. But the places in their gift will go to high-class Democrats, and if they act wissly they will do more harm to the Republican organization than could be inflicted by a score of Murplys.

score of Murphys.

"John Purroy Mitchel, president-elect of the Board of Aldermen, is another arthing personality. He is an uncompro-mising foe of graft and thoroughly equipped for almost any public office. Do not be surprised if you see him on the state ticket next year.

"Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Lewis Stay-

vesant Chanler will also be heard from. He has turned Dutchess from a Republican to a Democratic county, and was elected to the Assembly this Fall.

We expect some interesting develops from Albany this Winter." Although the leadership question is far from settled, a number of names have alfrom settled, a number of names have already cropped up. Among them are Thomas M. Osborn, a member of the upstate Public Service Board and ex-Mayor of Auburn. He was one of the prime movers in the Saratoga conference. Others are Edward M. Shepard and Augustus Van Wyck, who helped to reorganize the Brooklyn Demogracy, and wen a victory after the death of Senator McCarren. Shepard was once defeated for Mayor of New York, wille Van Wyck, an ex-Justice of the Supreme Court, was beaten for Governor in 1888 by Theodore Roosevelt.

In the Republican camp, the outlook nearly as bad. The Brooklyn G. O. P. is snarling at Leader Timothy L. Woodruff, who only nominally lives in the county. His foes are making "absentee rulership" their slopen, but the real reason is that their county ticket was beaten, and the regulars are left without walkover that he absolutely declined to make any 'nonpartisan' concessions. When John Purroy Mitchel declared he would get off the ticket unless a Demo-erat was named for borough president, Woodruff conceded that point. Then the Hearst men offered to indorse the remainder of their ticket in return for a like favor to their candidate for the Supreme Court. Woodruff refused, and the Hearst men went it alone except for Steers, candidate for borough president. In the final round-up Woodruff lost every candidate on his borough county ticket except Steers.

except Steers.
In New York County there are mutterelected Democrats to office. In Queens the G. O. P. ran alone and ended up third; John Raines, leader in the Senate, loat his Assemblyman in the rock-ribbed Republican county of Outarie. Vice-President Sherman, who dictated the renomination of a Supreme Court Justice, saw his candidate beaten by 15,000 Republican. Speaker of the Assembly James W. Wadsworth got in by the skin of his teeth in a county two to one Republican. Every "offensive partisan" head was hit, and every head is sore.

United States Eilhu Root is supposed to be the Republican state leader. His voice was not heard during the campaign. He has not uttered any ringing statements since. But the presumption is that he is doing some mighty hard thinking.

Hearst, Alone, Is Happy.

With Woodruff discredited, Parsons techng a mutiny, and Raines and Wads-worth badly beaten up, it looks as if there would be some new faces in the po-there would be some new faces in the political line-up next year.

The only happy politician in the state is William Randolph Hearst. He regards his vote of 151,000, obtained without organization or the expenditure of money, as the greatest possible personal tribute. Also he demonstrated that he held the balance of power in all five boroughs.

It is a peculiar thing that every man Hearst indorsed (except a few Assembly and Aldermante candidates) was elected. He heat Murphy's county ticket in New York, beat Woodruff in Brooklyn, and beat both old parties in Queens.

"Of course the hoss was beaten himself," said one Hearst man. "But that always happens. He expects it, and this time he was really glad of it."
