Judge Gatens Releases Bunco Steerer on $100 Bail. Latter Flees.

JUDGES CLASH, POLICE MUM

Chief Cox Declares Mayor Simon Advised Him to Await Action Committee Before Making Move.

Following the action of Judge Gatens, of the Circuit Court, in peremptorily ordering the release of Frank Watson, o-steerer and confidence man, co victed of vagrancy, the latter yesterday added more sensation to the scandal cenadded more sensation to terring about the gang with which he worked, and the Police Department, by skipping his ball and leaving the city. To further complicate matters a clash between Judge Bennett, of the Municipal Court, and Judge Gatens, of the Circuit Court, is imminent, Judge Bennett yesterday seriously considering whether he should issue a bench warrant for Watson's arrest and have him brought back into the custody of the police.

It is claimed that Judge Gatens entirely everstepped his authority in issuing the order which liberated Watson. This contention is upheld by Deputy City Attorney Sullivan, who tried the case of Watson, and by Deputy District Attorney Fitz-gerald, to whom Chief of Police Cox ap-pealed for advice on Monday night after he had received the order to release Watson from Judge Gatens.

Judge Is Criticised.

Judge Gatens' action is severely critistage Gatens action is severely crid-cised by Deputy District Attorney Fitz-gerald, who says that the order issued by Judge Gatens in the Watson case was worthless, the Circuit Court not having acquired jurisdiction in the case.

The facts in the case are that Attorney King called at the house of Judge Gatens during his dinner hour and upon the re-quest of the attorney the judge issued an quest of the attorney the judge issued an order for Watson's release, setting the ball at one tenth of the amount set by Judge Bennett. Judge Bennett had set Watson's ball at $500 cash or $1000 bonds, and as the law in cases of appeal on misdemeanor specifies that only bond is acceptable. In Watson's case the bond would necessarily have been $1000.

"Judge Gatena acied entirely without

"Judge Gatens acted entirely without authority," said Deputy Fitzgerald yesterday in discussing the case. "In reality both Judge Gatens and Chief of Police Cox are technically in contempt of the Municipal Court. The order written by Gatens the night the man was released and told him he would be in error if he commanded the man's release and he said but he evidently did not have the courage to stick it out in the face of an order from the Circuit Court.

The man's disappearance and the fluke which has occurred through Judge Gatens' order greatly aroused Judge Bennett and Deputy City Attorney Sullivan yesterday. During the afternoon follow-

"It may be too late," said Deputy City Attorner Suilivan, "for the man may take advantage of this opportunity to get out of town, but we will take the matter up before Judge Bronaugh tomorrow. It is a great disappointment for me for it will virtually mean that this man will es-cape punishment. After his victim, Buren, was spirited out of town it became impossible to indict him before the grand jury without a complaining witness and the only other opportunity the law would have of punishing this fellow whom we know is a thief, was to bring him in on the vagrancy charge. The $500 posted as bail to await the action of the grand jury is not in jeopardy as un-doubtedly the jury, without the testimony of the complaining witness, will not find a true bill against him. The order of Judge Gatens releasing him from his 30 days on the rockpile and reducing his ball to $100 would have the effect if he has taken advantage of the opportunity, of decamping, of allowing him to pay his way ou of his difficulty for $100 fine and escape the rockpile sentence entirely. I was very anxious to prosecute him."

Judge Gatens Talks.

Judge Gatens said last night: "If I had known the real facts in Watson's case I would not have issued the order. His attorney came to me and, while he did not misrepresent anything to me I was not acquainted with the real facts and I acquiesced to his request, believing that it was all right. Had I known that the provisions of the city charter had not been compiled with, or had I known that Judge Bennett had placed this man's bonds higher than $100. I would have debonds higher than 100, I would have de-murred. That is always customary out of respect to another judge. Often a judge is imposed upon and while I can't say that I was imposed upon by the at-torneys in this case, I can reiterate that I was not made acquainted from any source of the real facts in the case. I think the course of the City Attorney's office in seeking to have the order va-cated before the presiding judge of the Circuit Court is perfectly proper and should be granted. If the case were be-fore me, I should do so. That is the proper method of procedure."

The release of Watson was the subject of a great deal of discussion yester-day in legal circles and the opinions generally expressed by attorneys discussing the matter seemed to be that Judge Ga-tens had "put his foot into it." Coinci-dental with Watson's flight from justice the announcement by Judge Bennett that Harvey Dale and most of his gang had most responsible eye witnesses that Harvey Dale and several of his gang left the city on Monday night after the announcement of this affair on the Shasta Limited train," said Judge Bennett. "If I were in a position to employ the necessary detectives I would like to run this thing down to the bottom." he continued. "Some one ought to do so. I have shown the way in this matter. Some one ought to carry it through. Provision ought to the made from some source to ferret this matter out and show up why these men were allowed to operate in this city."

"I have received information from day morning.

Late in the afternoon, Judge Bennett received further information that another Late in the afternoon, Judge Bennet-received further information that another resort of the bunco gang had been brought to light near the depot at 104 North Sixth street. This place was 11-censed by the City Council recently and has been the hangout for the steerers who have worked from the depot up to Washington street.

"Spindle" Stevens, in charge of the place, was visited yesterday afternoon by the police and instructed that if it were not closed he would be arrested on the gambling charge. The place is conducted with games of chance, similar to the "fish pond" and like deceptions and a number of men working as cappers are known to have been floating up and down Sixth street, acting in a suspicious manner toward strangers. Washington street.

manner toward strangers, Deputy City Attorney Sullivan, after hearing of the place from Judge Bennett, visited it and informed the police that it came under the ban as a gambling place and should be closed. Sergeant Goltz was then instructed to prevent further operations there.

Chief of Police Waits.

The avalanche of sensations let lonse upon the Police Department by Judge Bennett in his allegations that protection had been granted this gang did not stir the department into much of an in-stir the department into much of an investigation yesterday.

Chief of Police Cox said last night that nothing definite had yet been done in the way of looking into the charges. He had consulted Mayor Simon, he said, who had deemed it advisable that before the police underwent the throos of the probe the matter should be carefully laid before the police committee and that the affair should be conducted with their advice and under their guidance. The advice and under their guidance. The committee will meet this after noon for that purpose.

"It is hard for me to believe that any "It is hard for me to believe that any of the men under me have been dishonest." said Chief Cox. "I can't believe it without proof. If,' however, we do find that any crooked work has been going on. I will insist on having the guilty man get his just punishment."

"I don't believe that there is any foundation for the charges," said Captain Baty. "It is quite possible that a gang may have pulled off a trick in this town without this office being aware of it, but without this office being aware of it. that any direct collusion between swind-lers and any man in this office has oc-curred, I deem impossible. If Judge Ben-nett has any information in this mat-ter, why doesn't be tell it? Why doesn't he come out with it? I think it is his duty to do so. We are willing to make any sort of an investigation if he will give us a few of his facts.'

SIMON WANTS INVESTIGATION

Judge Bennett to Be Summoned Before Police Committee Today.

Mayor Simon held a conference with Chief of Police Cox and Detective Cap-Judge Gatens calling for the release of tain Baty at the City Hall yesterday Watson was not worth the paper on morning, after which he announced that which it was written. I talked with Judge a thorough investigation of the sensamorning, after which he announced that a thorough investigation of the sensa-tional charges made by Municipal Judge Bennett will be had. Attorneys Shy Client.

That Watson has gone beyond the jurisdiction of both the Municipal Court and the Circuit Court and does not intend to return is admitted by his attorneys. H. C. King and Tom McDevitt, who failed to produce their client yesterday afternoon. Some doubt was expressed to these attorneys that Watson was still in the circuit that Watson was still in the circuit was they arread to have him appears. atterneys that Watson was still in the city and they agreed to have him appear at the police station during the afternoon to show that he had not run away, but they evidently were unsuccessful in locating the man, as Watson failed to put in an expression of the committee what he knows about alleged misconduct in the Police Department. I also instructed that Judge Bennett be summoned and placed under oath, that he may tell to the members of the committee what he knows about alleged misconduct in the Police Department. to the Mayor that they have no informato suspect any member of the Detective Bureau or any other branch of the police force of misconduct, and both told the Mayor that the reports of bunco games and crimes in general have been exagger-ated. There have been a few isolated causes, the chief said, but nothing to indi-cate that any gang of crooks have been operating here.

Mayor Simon also was told yesterday by Councilman Dunning that Harvey Dale, the alleged leader of the alleged gang of bunco men and oriminals, had gone to San Francisco.

It is pointed out that Dale and his crowd would not have left town if they had not had good reason to place a safe distance between themselves and the possible results of the investigation stirred up by the determined police magistrate.

Northern Raliread, died at 5 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, where the had been brought last Friday from his home at Orchards. He is survived by his widow and three sons, all of Orchards and his daughter, Mrs. Adam Gerten, of St. Paul. Minn. The funeral will be held from the Orchards Methodist Episcopal Church at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Activity of Surveyors in University Park Revives Rumors of Railroad.

ROUTE ONCE ABANDONED

Sale of 40 Acres at Guild's Lake by Cottle Estate Regarded by Some as Confirmatory of New

A party of mysterious surveyors has appeared in University Park and is running a line across the east end of the addition from north to south. It is believed that rallroad interests, presumably the Milwaukee Railroad, are behind their movements. The line is being made with unmarked stakes and runs just along the side of the alley in the line of blocks between Fowler and Washburne streets in University Park. It is believed that this may be the entrance into Portland by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. That this road is coming to Portland seems assured now from recent developments in the State of Washington, and in a dispatch from Washington it has been given out that Everett and Portland are to be made the Paulie Coast terminals. Pacific Coast terminals.

Route Surveyed Before.

The University Park line now being surreved is not the first along virtually the same line. Several years ago a party of surveyors set a line of unmarked stakes along the alley and a short time later pulled the stakes up. After an interval of a few months surveyors again put in a line of unmarked stakes, allowing them to remain, and some of them are there now. Almost simultaneously with this survey an option was secured from Francis I. McKenna by the Spokane, Portland & Seattle on the line of blocks, the rallroad men teiling exactly what was wanted of the ground and saying that it was wanted for the right of way for the line into Portland.

Ultimately this line was dropped and changed to a route further west, owing to the difficulty of putting the bridge over the Wilamette River south of the proposed right-of-way. It was stated, however, that this was a possibility of the proposed right of the proposed right of way. billty for an entrance to Portland, and it is believed that what was once thought practical by the S. P. & S. and later rejected may now appeal to the Milwankee.

Forty Acres Mysteriously Sold.

Mysterious buying and rumors other buying in the vicinity of Guild's Lake, are also interesting in the same connection. A tract of 40 acres at Guild's Lake, owned by the T. J. Tottle estate, was bought last week for $100,000. It lies almost directly in a line with the survey being run in University Park and it is regarded as possible that the same interests may be buying terminal grounds there. Other rumors are circulated, all more or less intangible, of options which have been secured on property bordering on could be a secured. secured on property bordering on Guild's Lake and it is at all times reported that real estate men, represent-ing themselves as agents for railroads ing themselves as agents for faircoos are negotiating for the options.

If the survey through University Park ultimately develops into a right of way for a railroad, it is believed that it could be used only as a tunnel. Just west of this survey is the proposed Maegly tun-nel for the Oregon Railroad & Navigation This tunnel parallels the survey now being made, and it is pointed out that if a railroad should cross University Park along this line on the ground level it would be so far in the air when the river was reached that a bridge would not prove feasible.

ROWE IS NOT TO BE REPLACED

Veitch Coming as Extra Representa tive of Milwankee in Portland.

J. R. Veitch, of Chicago, who was re-cently appointed general agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound at Portland, is expected to reach Portland not later than the first of next week. A telegram received in this city yesterday announced that Mr. Veitch had left Chi-cago last Saturday and would probably confer with other officials of this road at Seattle before coming to this city to take up his work.

The assignment of Mr. Veltch to this city as general agent of the Pacific Coast extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul is understood to be in addition to the representation of the Milwaukee by H. S. Rowe, who has represented that road here for many years.

ST. JOHN COUNCILMAN OUT

F. P. Brown Resigns and Will Go to California.

The resignation of F. P. Brown, Councilman from the Second Ward in the St. John Council, was presented and accepted at a meeting last night. His resignation came as an absolute surprise to members of the Council and to the second bers of the Council and to the citizens of the community. The continued ill-health of Mrs. Brown necessitate the immediate removal of the family to California.

The appointment of Mr. Brown's su cessor will probably be made next Tues-day evening. George L. Perrine, a So-ciulist, and H. F. Hewitt, a Republican, have been mentioned. This makes the and resignation to occur in the City nell during the past 18 months. Each of Mr. Brown's predecessors also repre-sented the Second Ward.

BONDHOLDERS PLAY SAFE

PORTLAND PEOPLE COMBINE TO SAVE MONEY.

Action Suggested to Depositors in Defunct Oregon Trust & Savings Bank.

Portland people, representing $400. 000 of outstanding Omaha telephone bonds, met in Allsky Hall last night and resolved to take such action as would conserve their interest in these securities.

A committee consisting of John Kiernan, chairman of the meeting; James O. Eirod and Eugene Cohen, was appointed to confer with similar committees representing the holders of the same telephone bonds in Los Angeles and Omaha, as to the most advisable plan of action to follow. This committee will submit a report for the con-firmation of local bondholders at an-other meeting which will be held in the same hall Tuesday night, Novem-

This action was suggested to the de-positors in the defunct Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, who accepted Omaha telephone bonds in part settlement of their claims, as a means of realizing full value for their securities. The depositors, represented at this meeting, decided on the action which was taken following a talk by F. H. Stow, who was once connected with the Omaha plant.

Mr. Stow declared that without any indebtedness, the plant in the Nebras-ka city was worth $1,400,000, provided $500,000 worth of bonds on the mar-ket, which had not been paid for, were wiped out. He advised the bondholders to get together and pool their interests with the residents of Los Angeles and Omaha, who held the same class of securities, contending that in so doing it would be possible for them to realize dollar for dollar for their investments. Otherwise, Mr. Stow declared that if it became necessary for the property to pass through a receivership, bond holders could not expect to realize mo than 10 cents on the dollar.

It was the general opinion of the heavier bondholders, including P. L. Willis, Eugene Cohen, Charles E. Rumelin and Jacob Rosenthal, that the best course for the holders of Omaha telephone bonds to pursue was to get together, pool their interests and, if necessary, to take over the control and management of the property and place it on a paying basis.
