

FOR THE PAPER DOWN

Bears Still at Work in the Hop Market.

SALES AT 18 AND 20 CENTS

Statistical Review, Showing the Actual Shortage in the World's Supply, Prepared by G. Muecke, of This City.

The slump in the hop market continues unchecked. Bearish manipulation by short sellers in the East and the waiting game being played by the Pacific buyers have weakened the market so that values have declined materially.

The result of this combination of bearish buyer and weak-seller is that hops are now being sold at 18 cents, while in the Aurora and Eugene sections there were sales of carloads at 20 cents. The latter were described as fairly good grades and the 18-cent hops as medium. No choice hops are being sacrificed now, but at the rate the others are getting the best would only be worth about 23 cents.

Nothing apparently can be done to stay the downward course of the market so long as there are sellers at the bid prices. It is not letting go at the current market level. The larger holders have faith that the thing will soon right itself and prices reach a level that the technical position of the market justifies.

Table showing statistical review of the world's market for hops, with columns for 1909, 1908, and 1907, and rows for various countries and regions like Germany, France, and Russia.

THANKSGIVING TURKEY MARKET.

Course of Prices Will Depend on the Outside... There is always much uncertainty as to what the Thanksgiving turkey market will be, and this year it is more of a puzzle than ever.

FLURRY IN THE MOHAR MARKET.

Trade on a Large Scale and Demand Legitimate... The activity in the Eastern mohar market still continues, according to the New York Journal of Commerce, which says:

WHEAT MARKET QUIET BUT STRONG.

Gains Additional Strength From the Advance in Flour... The advance in flour prices, which was general in the Northwestern markets yesterday, is expected to strengthen the wheat market further.
