PRELIMINARY CANVASS UNDER WAY.—W. J. Paddock, president of the Peninsula Rose Association, announces that the association will hold a meeting at Peninsula, to receive reports of the committee now making a preliminary canvass for funds. The object of this canvass is to ascertain in advance what funds the association can depend on for the next Rose Festival from the Peninsula. These committees were appointed from all points on the Peninsula from St. John to Multnomah Addition. Arrangements also will be made at this meeting to take part in the general planting of roses February 21. A balance of over $200 is on hand from the last festival fund.

KENILWORTH WANTS HARD-SURFACE.—At a meeting of the Kenilworth Improvement Club Monday night, in the Presbyterian Church, a resolution was passed to rush street improvements in that district until after the sewers have been laid. To improve streets now and put down sewers later, when a street is damaged, the committee of the club has decided to have hard-surface pavements hereafter in that district. Petitions are being circulated for hard-surface pavements on Francis avenue from Kenilworth to Ivanhoe, a distance of half a mile. A contract for gravel improvement had been let for that street but was held up by Mayor Simon who opposes gravel improvements.

SUCCESS IN APPLE-GROWING.—Attaining satisfactory results depends on getting started right, said Professor Cole, a member of the State Agricultural College at Corvallis. "First the selection of location with the right kind of soil, where climatic conditions, elevation, water supply, water and air drainage, and the transportation or railroad are favorable. The condition of the soil, best varieties of trees best suited to the locality, the size and quality of the trees, are of the greatest importance, for the reason that the first year's growth of a fruit tree has everything to do both with the life of the tree and its productivity. The best soil is the one that is the most favorable locality and are selling five and ten-acre tracts planted to apples, located three miles south of Portland, two miles from a railroad station, on easy terms. We will guarantee an income each year until your orchard comes into bearing. If you are interested in apple-growing call on us. Let us show you our contracts, explain our methods, and you will find our offer one of the most attractive and liberal ones. Woodburn Orchard Company, Inc., 556-558 Henry Building, Fifth and Oak streets.

NEW YORKERS TO CELEBRATE.—The New York Society of Oregon will hold its annual celebration of Evacuation day, at the rooms of the Commercial Club Friday evening, November 26. A musical programme will be given, Rev. Benjamin Young, D. D., will deliver an address, on "Evacuation," and refreshments will be served. All New York state people in or near Portland are invited to attend and help celebrate the last great event of the Revolutionary. Visiting New Yorkers are also invited.

Y. M. C. A. BUY QUARTER BLOCK.—The executive committee of the Sellwood branch Y. M. C. A. has secured the quarter block on East Fifteenth street and Spokane avenue, on which an extension was held for 1864. Rev. D. A. Thompson, secretary of the executive committee, said yesterday that on the return of State Secretary Rhodes from Idaho, an architect was engaged to draw plans for the building.

MOVING TABOR CHURCH GIVES CONTRACTS.—The contract for excavation of the foundation of the new Presbyterian Church, on Belmont and East Fifth streets, has been let to Howitt & Co., and the contract for the stone work to the Cooper Sand Stone Company. Work on the basement excavation has been begun. Stone for the walls will come from Southern Oregon. The edifice, complete, will cost $11,000.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery in New Field.—Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery, formerly of the Third Presbyterian Church of this city, who accepted a call to the Oak Park (Chicago) Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Montgomery are now situated in their new home. The Oak Park Church gave Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery a most hearty welcome.

CHURCH DEDICATION PLANNED.—Arrangements are being made to dedicate the new Highland Baptist Church, on Alberta and East Seventh streets, Sunday, December 12. Workmen are finishing the interior of the edifice which will complete in cost $700. Rev. E. A. Leonard, of University Park, is the pastor.

PREMIER WOMAN BURIED.—The funeral of Miss Jane Carnaby, who died at the home of her nephew, J. A. Carnaby, at 301 East Davis street, November 21, was held yesterday afternoon, Rev. H. S. Black, officiating. Interment was made in Rose City Cemetery. Miss Carnaby was 89 years old and was born in London. She moved to Australia when 20 years old, where she lived until 1868, when she went to San Francisco. For 25 years Miss Carnaby lived in Oregon, 20 years being spent in The Dalles and five years in Portland at the home of her nephew. Several relatives in Australia survive.

EX-"BOY" HEN ON BAR COAST #9.—David Smidell, formerly a policeman at Spokane, Wash., was brought before Judge Bennett yesterday morning for disorderly conduct. Smidell was fined $10. Patrolman Small arrested Smidell in a saloon, at Sixth and Burnside streets, where Smidell had partly disrobed and had gone to bed on the bar. Smidell threatened to smother Smidell with his hands, and threatened the saloonman was afraid to eject him and sent for a policeman. Smidell said he had been robbed of $5.

COUNCILMAN DEVIEN'S FATHER ILL.—John C. Devlin is critically ill at the home of his son, Thomas C. Devlin, Councilman-at-large, at 74 Multnomah street, and probably will not survive today. Mr. Devlin is 86 years old. He is a native of Ireland and came to the United States in the early '60s. Subsequently he removed to Missouri and about six years ago came to Oregon with his wife, joining their son, who was then City Auditor.

REV. W. T. JORDAN TO RETIRE.—Rev. W. T. Jordan, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, at East Ankeny and East Twentieth streets, who resigned recently, is serving his last week as pastor and will deliver his farewell sermons next Sunday. He was pastor of the Central Church for four years. The pulpit committee has several baptist ministers under consideration, but a call has not been issued.

BARRATT'S BIRTHDAY REMEMBERED.—The Multnomah Council of the Royal Arcanum has forwarded a jeweled emblem of the order to John Barrett of the Bureau of the American Institutes at Washington, D. C. as a birthday gift. Mr. Barrett is a member of the local branch of the fraternal organization, Next Wednesday will be his birthday.

JOHN PEARSON PASSED.—After several weeks rest in an unavailing effort to save his life, John Pearson, president of the Swedish Society, Linnon, passed away at an early hour yesterday morning, at the St. Vincent Hospital. Mr. Pearson has resided in Portland 13 years, coming from Omaha. He was 45 years old and has relatives at Trout Lake, Wash.
