

SARCOONS' SUBURBAN HOUR

All Gimmicks to Close at Midnight Saturday Hereafter, Chief's Edict.

OLD LID LAW LEAK MENDED

Violation of Statute Disregarded for Several Years to Be No Longer Permitted—Boy in Resort Arouses Judge.

Chief of Police Cox will invoke the Sunday lid law on saloons and force them to close at midnight Saturday night instead of 1 o'clock Sunday morning as has been the custom for several years. Official announcement of this contemplated move was made yesterday afternoon by the head of the police department. No order has been issued, but one will be given by Chief Cox between now and Saturday night.

Boy in Saloon Causes Change.

The change in policy of the police toward the Saturday midnight violation of the law was brought about through the case of Della Silva, an Italian saloonkeeper, at Grand avenue and East Madison street, who was fined $10 by Judge Bennett yesterday morning after she had pleaded guilty to the charge of keeping open her resort on Sunday in violation of the state law. The question of the Sunday violation was brought out through the arrest of Della Silva on Sunday night about 12:20 o'clock, on the charge of permitting a minor in his saloon. Later the complaint was changed by Deputy District Attorney Hennessy, alleging keeping a saloon open on Sunday.

Custom Doesn't Count.

In commenting upon the case Judge Bennett said: "Saloons in this city have been open between midnight Saturday and 1 o'clock Sunday morning for a long time. Merely the fact that this has been done in the past does not modify the law against it. If they have been open they did so in violation of the law and should be closed. This is the first time the subject has been brought to my attention."

NEW STRETCARS ARRIVE

Six-Minute Rush Hour Service Is Promised East Side Section.

It was announced at the offices of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company yesterday that the arrival of new cars from the East had made it possible for the company to improve its service on both the Irvington and Broadway lines. Larger cars have been placed on the Irvington line to replace the "bird-cage" vehicles which have been in use on that division of the system. An additional car was placed on the Broadway line about a week ago and another will be added some time this week.

WAR VETS TAKE TO STAGE

Spanish Fight Survivors in Lime-light Next Week.

There will be a lot of fun next week at the Baker theater, when the Spanish War Veterans will appear in their big annual minstrel show, December 1 and 2. The production, which is built around local affairs, is said to be full of fine musical numbers and jokes galore. Over 50 of the boys will be in the show. Many good-natured take-offs on some of our prominent citizens will be featured and while the show will bring forth volumes of laughter, there will be nothing offensive or of a personal nature in any of the stunts.

JAIL FOLLOWS "JOY RIDE"

Garage Employees and S. P. Workman Accused of Blanket Theft.

Constable Wagner arrested three young men yesterday afternoon for stealing two blankets from an automobile owned by C. Harrison. The prisoners are R. Udy, employed as a washer in the garage of the Oregon Hotel, at the corner of Seventh and Oak streets; A. C. Hughes, a washer in the Funk garage at Sixth and Everett streets, and J. Poulsen, a repairer in the Southern Pacific carshops, who lives at East Twenty-eighth and Holgate streets. An additional charge of disorderly conduct will probably be placed against the trio.

Cherries From Cherry Are Not Sour

Star This Week at Portland Theater a Real Englishman and Great Lover of Late Lamented Fitch.

It's the big, burly Englishman, the fellow with the broad shoulders and merry smile; it's the chap who talks of cricket and golf, the man who'll talk of everything but himself. This—all this and a whole lot more is Charles Cherry, starting at the Portland this week in that rather appropriate medium, "The Bachelor."

Charles Cherry, in "The Bachelor," at the Portland.

Incidentally, Cherry is a great admirer of Clyde Fitch. "A great fellow, Fitch, my friend," he tersely said. "He was writing a play for me when he died—on modern marriage. People beastly bored and all that, you know. Nothing about divorce. Fitch wrote one act and left a lot of characteristic notes—no character, that no one can make head or tail of them. I'm going to get another fellow to finish the play, but he is not Fitch. Would be, either, in a hundred years."

Demand Exceeds Supply.

But even with the festive food standing from 25 cents to 35 cents a pound, according to the size and quality of the bird, reduction in price is most unlikely. The demand this year is greater than the supply. So waterfowl may probably, this year, be satisfied with the smaller turkey, the 10-pounder, instead of that third and fourth helping. It will likely be, "now what will you have instead, dear, the turkey is finished."

F. H. PATTERSON IS HELD

Federal Authorities Will Investigate Alleged Swindling of Women.

F. H. Patterson, manager of the Patterson Advertising Agency, who was arrested for assisting women by pretending to furnish them with positions in connection with a "fake" company, and is accused of passing a bogus draft for $150 at the store of Tull & Gibbs, arraigned yesterday morning before Judge Bennett in the Municipal Court. Patterson waived examination and was held to the grand jury in $100 cash bail. Marie Boyd, who was arrested with him, was held as a witness in $100 bail.

MARKET IS HEAVILY LADEN

Thanksgiving Day Feast May Be Easily Stocked.

The Thanksgiving markets, though they show a fine supply of good things to eat, have not quite the abundance and variety of last year's display. Turkeys are scarce, contrary to the hopes raised by stories of their numbers and quality a few weeks ago, and prices are tending upward. The market for choice geese is also tight. In several places the choicest birds cost as much as 35 cents a pound. Good geese are plentiful and of good quality, at 25 cents a pound. Domestic ducks at 30 cents a pound. Fine capons cost 30 to 35 cents, while the ordinary run of chicken prices is 20 cents a pound.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends for their sympathy and kindness and the many floral offerings in our late bereavement through the death of our son, JOSEPH VAN LOO AND FAMILY.

PORTLAND READY TO CONSUME 50,000 GOBBLETS AT THANKSGIVING DAY FEAST.

Portland Ready to Consume 50,000 Gobbles at Thanksgiving Day Feast.

BIG HOMECOMING BEGINS

Reduction in Price of Festive Fowl May Surprise Tardy Buyers. Football Game to Lure Many. Jails Will Celebrate Day.

With an apprehensive look in the eyes of about 50,000 turkeys, and an appreciative one in the eyes of about 200,000 younger and older consumers of them, the passing of Thanksgiving in Portland will be an event of moment to both the feathered and the unfeathered biped. That tomorrow will witness the arrival of the designated fowl of almost innumerable turkeys and other delicacies is the heart's wish of thousands and thousands of children, while grown-ups are none the less jubilant in a possibly quieter way.

Home Ties Attract.

In reality, Portland will probably not be as full as usual, although the day of characteristic notes—no character, that no one can make head or tail of them. I'm going to get another fellow to finish the play, but he is not Fitch. Would be, either, in a hundred years."

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

Fifty Old Folk Await Thanksgiving Cheer From Rich. Two scores and ten aged folk, inmates of the Patton Home, rely upon the sweet charity of those in more comfortable circumstances to contribute tokens, either clothing, money or provisions, as Thanksgiving offering.

LIVESTOCK CENTER ASKED

Chiefs Want Low Rates for Cattle Shipment to Portland.

A movement has been started to secure lower rates for the shipment of cattle to Portland from various points throughout Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and the Dakotas, with a view to developing a great livestock market and packing plant in Portland. To this end a conference was held yesterday between the representatives of the Harrison lines, North Bank, Great Northern and Northern Pacific and stockmen from various points in the Portland territory. D. O. Lively, general manager of the Union stockyards and Traffic Manager Brown, of the Union Men Company, were the local men in the conference.

CREW IS CLEARING GROUND

Work Is Begun for $1,000,000 Cement Factory.

A large force of men and teams yesterday began clearing off the factory site for the Portland Cement Company's cement plant at Oswego. The site for this factory consists of 38 acres and was purchased from the Oswego Iron & Steel Works.

THE DAY BEFORE.

Remember, tomorrow's Thanksgiving and stores will be closed. Take advantage of the great bargains we offer today in women's and misses' coats, suits, skirts, furs, hosiery, underwear, neckwear, gloves, umbrellas, frockings, 40 cents a dozen. Hats and clams are also to be had, though not as plentiful as usual at this season.

Love's of terrapin can secure these shelly delicacies at 50 cents to $1 each. A good variety of vegetables secures one important feature of the Thanksgiving feast. Celery, both of the large and heart varieties, is, of course, the leader. The list includes green peas and beans, hot-house cucumbers and tomatoes, eggplant and artichokes, spinach and Brussels sprouts, as well as the more characteristic "old-fashioned" Thanksgiving vegetables—sweet potatoes, turnips, onions and squashes.

MANY CHURCHES WILL UNITE

Separate Services Planned by Some for Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving services will be observed generally by the churches of the city tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Many churches will unite in services. Others will observe the day separately. On the West Side union services will be held at the First Congregational Church by the members of the First Baptist, Taylor-Street Methodist, First Christian, Grace Methodist, St. James' Episcopal and First Congregational Churches. Revs. J. Whitcomb Brougher, J. Allen Lewis, W. F. Reago, Benjamin Young, W. H. Cudlipp and L. J. Dyot will assist in the services. Music will be furnished by the First Congregational Quartet.

INTENDING LESSEE SPEAKS OF THE RUMORED COMBINE.

President of the Portland Drydock Company Declares Proposed Lease Is Sound Business.

PORTLAND, Nov. 23.—(To the Editor.)—During the past week striking headlines, several columns of news matter and one strong editorial have called attention to the interest exhibited by the people of Portland in the proposed rental of the Port of Portland drydock to the Oregon Drydock Co. Under such conditions it is a fair assumption that this is a matter of considerable public concern, and hence there is some encouragement that additional facts in the case will not be out of place.

THAT DRYDOCK TRUST

at some of the greatest journalistic gymnastics ever pulled off under the guise of news. When Mr. Parkinson told The Oregonian reporter about his troubles in saving the Port of Portland drydock for the dear people (at a net cost of about $22,000 a year) he just barely touched the latching of his generous bounty of inside facts, but when he got up to working pressure in the editor's sanctum of the Portland Labor Press he uncorked a cloud of hot stuff that almost blistered the rolls of his printing press. Do not be discouraged if you cannot get a copy of that particular issue. Later numbers will be equally fervid with the warmth of romance.

THE RUMORED COMBINE.

That brings us to the real champion of the marine supremacy of Portland, Capt. Crowe, of the firm of Anderson & Crowe. The business of these gentlemen is shipping and repair work, and as a side line the Captain is marine surveyor for a board of underwriters. It certainly is a nifty little combination to be able to decide just what work a ship needs to have, a fighting chance to get the job on your own specifications, and then frequently to have the satisfaction of granting clearance papers to a vessel on account of the excellence of your own handiwork.

NINE COBS IN A BUNDLE

It's a rough looking bundle, an ordinary bundle, but the cigars are not—they're smooth and delightful—the richest, rarest four inches of tobacco your teeth ever clutched. They burn evenly—the same quality of tobacco that goes into 10 cent cigars. If they had hands on them they would cost more. If they were well shaped they would cost more. If they were prettily packed they would cost more, but they're all tobacco and nothing else. You just pay for a full yard of ripe Havana leaf, without any imagination or ornamentation. Everything that counts is left in—everything that doesn't is left out. That's why instead of paying 10 cents for one cigar, you can buy nine that are as good for 15 cents.
