Although under the strictest police survelliance, no violations of the recent order of Chief of Police Cox, closing the 'red light' district, were reported to police headquarters last night.
In many instances, it is said, the wo-

It is proposed to keep a close tab on all former inhabitants of notorious houses, all of whom are well known to the police, and when they offend against the law, to have heavy fines imposed and suspended with the understanding that the defendants leave Portland. This system is being used with success in ridding the city of bunco men and other undesirables.

Whatcom County Grand Jury Begins Investigation of Warrants.

BELLINGHAM, Wash, Nov. 23.—The Whatcom County grand jury, called for the purpose of making an examination into municipal and county affairs, began its first session here today. Its empaneling, begun yesterday, was completed this afternoon, and Judge E. E. Hardin, of the Superior Court, instructed the Surors as to their duties and privileges.

The first question to come before the inquisitors is the alleged illegal issuance of warrants for $200,000 by the successive Boards of County Commissioners during the last five years. The state law provides that no warrants shall be issued unless there are funds in the treasury at the time of their issuance to meet them. This statute has not been observed by the Commissioners, and the $200,000 in warrants, alleged to have been issued liegally, represents the surplus of the warrants outstanding over the balance in the treasury.

GERMAN BANK HOLDS $3,000, 000 FOR PRISONER.

Berlin Bankers Refuse to Give Up Money Without Official Scal.

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—The Imperial Bank of Germany holds $1,000,000 deposited by Abdul Hamid before he was deposed from the Sultanate of Turkey and which, according to the Frankfurter Zeintung. the present Ottoman ruler proposes to recover through legal action.

It is learned here that the Imperial Bank is willing to surrender the money if the order for the same bears the sig-nature of the former Sultan, authenti-cated by the special seal adopted by him when the deposit was made. At that time Abdul Hamid enfered into a strict compact with the officers of the bank. under which no withdrawal from this account was to be permitted except on authority of the special seal. Apparently the Turkish government was not aware of this deposit until recently, when a letter sent by the bank to Abdul referring to the account fell into the hands of Hamid Mahmoud Scheket Pasha, inspector-general of the army.

The inspector-general forwarded the letter to Abdul. Subsequently the royal prisoner signed an order on the bank for the money, but his signature was not accompanied by the seal, which, he averred, had been lost.

Standard Oil Denies Intent to Seek Amendment Sherman Act.

APPEAL FIRST CONCERN

Elliott Admits Decree Makes Business Cumbersome, but Hints May Like Others.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 .- The Standard Oll Company announced authoritatively today that it had no intention of seeking an amendment to the Sherman antitrust law, but would proceed with an appeal to the United States Supreme Court from the decree of the United States Circuit Court at St. Paul.

Until the Supreme Court has rendered a decision the company will consider no other glan of doing business than the methods now in use.

Mortimer F. Elliott, general solicitor of the company, is authority for the foregoing. He discussed the case with a representative of the Associated Press after a conference with William Packeteller and John D. Archhold. Rockefeller and John D. Archbold.

Change Not Sought.

"There is to be no effort on the part of the company to procure an amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law," said Mr. Elliott. "We shall await the verdict of the Supreme Court before we take any steps looking either toward reorganization or a restatement of our case to the public. The court has first rights.

"It seems highly improbable to me that there will ever be a foreign holding company organized, as you tell me has been suggested. The complexity of control ex-ercised by the several states sets too many difficulties in the way.

"Such comment on the case as I have en misses the fact that the Standard Oil Company is not a holding company, pure and simple, as was the Northern Securities Company. For instance, it owns outright at Bayonne, N. J., the largest refinery in the world. There is nothing in the decree to prevent the company from continuing to do business, although I admit that it makes doles husbases. admit that it makes doing business

Sub-Shareholders May Elect.

"Although the decree enjoins the Stand ard Oil Company from voting its share holdings in subsidiary companies, or re ceiving dividends from them, there is no reason why the individual holders, among whom such shares would be divided under the decree, should not elect their own officers in the subsidiary companies and receive their own dividends from those companies. A proxy system among our 5000 shareholders would certainly be no more ummanageable than the same system as now used by railroad and industrial companies, say, 50,000 shareholders.
"In brief, there is no cause for the market to fear forced liquidation of the securities the Standard Oli now holds. I disagree with the gentleman who thinks a redistribution is necessary, other than of the sort I outlined in my first state-

DIRECT IMPORTERS

Portland is fast becoming headquarters for the principal foreign firms. Heretofore San Francisco was considered the port of entry for the Pacific Coast, none of the Portland firms having large enough shipments to justify them in bringing goods direct to this city and consequently never maintained direct steamship connections. Now with the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company sending their boats direct to Portland and other points from foreign ports, each Pacific Coast city will be in a position to stand on its own bottom.

S. A. Arata & Co. and Arata Bros., of this city, have succeeded in obtaining some of the best agencies in Europe, such as Bosca Bros., known as the best Sparkling Burgundy firm in Italy, and the wine is considered by those who know to be far superior to any other Sparkling Burgundy produced in Europe.

We have also secured the agencies of Ganca Bros.' sparkling wines and "Laborel Melini," famous Chianti Wines, Garafolo Macaroni Paste and Italy Brand Olive Oil.
