

erganist; doxology and invocation. Dr. Broughes; Thanksaiving anthem. "Praise the Lord, Oh My Soul' (Prarts, by the choir, reading of Presidential proclamation, J. Allen Los, Ph. D.: Scriptural reading, Rev. Renjamin Young; baritons solo, "Re-cessional" (DeKoven), Stuart McGuire; "America," by the congregation; sermon, Dr. J. F. Curlipp; benediction, Dr. Dyoft; organ postlude, "Fantafia."

The following churches will participate in this union meeting: First Baptist, Taylor-Street Methodist, First Christian, Grace Methodist, St. James English Lutheran and First Congregational Churches.

Union services of all the Presbyterian Churches will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, at Twelfth and Alder streets. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Thomas Holmes Walker, of the Calvary Presbyterian First the Church of Our Father, Seventh and Yambill streets, a union service will be held by the Church of Good Tidings (Cniversalist), Congregation Beth Israel and Church of Our Father (Unitarian). and Church of Our Father (Unitarian). Rev. James D. Corby, Rabbi Jonah B. Whee and Rev. W. G. Ellot, Jr., will be in charge. There will be three addresses on "Education," as follows: "Practical Education," B. L. Sabis; "The School Follows," J. H. Ackerman; "Education for Character," Rabbi Jonah B. Whee. Krever.

On the East Side union services will be held in the Methodist Church, South

Union avenue and Multnomah street, in which all Methodist congregations on the East Side will join. There will be about 25 Methodist preachers on the platform. Rev. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of Cen-tenary Methodist Church, will deliver the sermon, on the subject "Gratitude for the Providentials of the Nation." The choir of the Methodist Church, South, will provide special music will provide special music

Sellwood Also Unites.

At Sellwood a union service will be conducted in the Methodist Church at 19:39 A. M. Rov, D. W. Thurston, pas-tor of the Baptist Church, will preach the sermon. A collection will be taken 16-30 A. M. the benefit of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society

A Thanksgiving union service will be conducted in the First United Evangel-teal Church, Ladd Addition, at 10 A. M. Evangelical and United Brethren Churches will unite in this meeting. Rev. R. S. Showers, of the First United Brothren Church, will preach the sermon. At Montavilla a union service will be held Montavilla a union service will be held Thursday morning in the Methodist Church at 19:30 o'clock. Rev. A. E. Paetch, of the Baptist Church, will preach the service, and the serv-ice will be held this morning in the Sunnyside Congregational Church. Rav. J. J. Staub will preach. A short service will be held in the Sunnyside Methodist will be held in the Sunnyside Methodist church in the evening. The services at St. David's Episcopal Church, East Tweifth, and Belmont streets, will be as follows: Holy com-munion, 7 A. M.: morning prayer and sermon by the rector, Rev. Henry Russell Talbot, at 10 o'clock.

Children to Sing.

cial Thanksgiving services will be Among the contemplated improvements by the City School Board is the installaheld at St. Lawrence's Church, Third and Sherman streets, at 9 A. M. They will The music will be rendered by the chil-dren's choir, under direction of Miss to be used is what is known as the Ham-erick Tobey patent sanitary drinking fountain. With this fountain there are A temperance rally will be held tonight in the Taylor-Street Church. The main address will be given by Mrs. Ada W. Unruh, state president of the W. C. T. U. fountain. With this fountain there are no drink cups used, but in lieu thereof the pupils drink from an overflowing nozzle tary.

The evening's programme follows: Instrumental solo by Miss Winona B. Mallett; devotionals by Rev. Benjamin Young; vocal solo by Miss Mary L. Mal-Where is My Wandering Boy Drexel bldg., 2d and Yamhill,

2 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, free. The exhibit of pictures for schools now in the galleries is of great interest, taining many old friends from "Cinder-ella" and "Arabian Nights" to "The Gleaners" and "The Surrender of Breda."

The usual Thanksgiving dinner will be served at the Seaman's Institute at 7 o'clock tonight by the ladies' committee. A bountiful dinner will be provided for the officers and sailors of ships of all nations now in port. After dinner cigars will be made by Bishop Scadding, James Laidiaw, George Taylor and others. A musical programme will also be given. Under the auspices of the claim depart-ment of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, a dance, entertainment and card party will be given to the streetcar men this evening at Ringler's Hall at East Morrison street and Union avenue. The entertainment will include speaking, fancy dancing and moving pictures. The programme will commence a 8 o'clock. The programme committee con-sists of E. Baker, H. Hill and P. W.

RESOLUTIONS HONOR DEAD

Refuge Home Directors Pay Great ALL GOBBLERS BOUGHT, ANNU- ; Tribute to Crittenton. AL BID ESCHEWED.

At a special meeting of the Board of Supply of Festive Fowl Seized by Directors of the Florence Crittenton Refuge Home, called by the president, Portlanders Despite High Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell, Saturday, the Price of Luxury.

following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, in accordance with God's decrees and in the fuliness of time, Charles N. Critten-ton passed from this life to the fuller life beyond on the 16th day of the present month;

Eugene Schools to Have Fountains.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 24.-(Special.)- beyond of the same has become the talisman Whereas. His name has become the talisman of hope and his voice has for many years been the carrier of a message of good cheer to thousands of erring and distressed human were no Thanksgiving turkey auctions last night. When the big markets closed their doors they had nothing left but bare walls and counters. The turkey market came to an end in a blaze of glory-for every one except consumers—at an early hour in the evening. By 7 o'clock there was nothing left but a few "cuils." and oversized birds, and by $ o'clock there was

of hope and his to reason of good cheer to thousands of erring and distressed human beings; and "whereas, Throughout our country and even in lands beyond the seeks, living monuments to his humanity, his kindness and his gener-osity have been builded, bearing its numments of his arry doceased daughter; and "whereas, Within the limits of our own of these living monuments has risen, reflecting the tender and forgiving spirit of the Masier, as expressed in the words; "Netther do I condemn there; go and sin ho more"; therefore, be if "mence Criticnico Refuge Home, that by he heart of managers of the bis of and the wide community in which it has been established has suffered a most gracious charter and the wide commendation of Mr. Criticnicular generation and suffered as most gracious and the bis board. In appreciation of Mr. Criticnicular generation and a philanthroots." Many and the align stress of the source is and the full sense of the source the doct of the second and the full sense of the source the second of the source of the second and the full sense of the source the second of the source of the second of the second of the second of the source of the second of the source of the second nothing at all. The dealers never knew a greater demand for turkeys. Although the prices yesterday were 30 and 35 cents a pound, principally 35, there was but little complaint from buyers. They seemed to look upon expensive turkeys as a matter of course. as a matter of course. What made the price so high, how-ever, was principally the limited sup-ply. Oregon raised as many turkeys, or more than last year, but there was keen competition on the part of Seattle and San Francisco dealers in the tur-ber science districts and the outsider.

to pay dearly.

to pay dearly. It is worth noting that the quality of the Oregon turkeys was never better than this year. About a month ago some buyers who wanted to depress the market started a report that the qual-ity would be poor, but the falsity of the report was apparent to every one who visited the city markets yesterday.

SELECTING THE THANKSGIVING DINNER

to the O. R. & N. line. Mr. Hibbard carried the case before the railroad com-mission, with the result that the company agreed to establish a station on the siding if it were shown that it would pay. Mr. Hibbard said he would act as station agent for six months to demonstrate that it would pay the company. The company switched a boxcar on the siding, fitted it-up as an office and in-stailed George as superintendent. George was to receive no salary. For four months George has been faithful to the trust. During that time the company has done $4000 worth of business. George andles all the business. He flags the trains for passengers.

Through cold and heat George has been on duty, without a cent of compensation. It is not easy to work for nothing, and George wants to be relieved. According on duty, without a cent of compensation. It is not easy to work for nothing, and George wants to be relieved. According to his contract with the company he has

Montavilla will pay the company hand-somely, and his only compensation will be the satisfaction of having served Montavilia well and faithfully, but George will not undertake the same job soon

ARREST CALLED MISTAKE

quest of Dakota Sheriff.

the Chamber of Commerce building, was arrested yesterday morning by Detectives Day and Hyde and is held in the city jall upon the telegraph request of Sheriff E. B. Olson, of Williston, N. D. Sheriff Olson telegraphed Chief of Po-lice Cox yesterday morning to arrest Todd, stating that he was wanted in Williston for forgery in the first de-gree. Chief of Police Cox swore to an information in the District Attorney's office charging Todd with being a fugi-tive from justice.

ive from justice. Todd has been in Portland about six tive months, during which he has been prac-ticing in the office of Emmons & Em-mons. The details of the charges against James Bowd and akte Dowd, execu-tors of James Barry's will, filed suit in the Circuit Court against the American Surety Company of New York yesterday afternoon. Before Barry's death, in September, 1907, he was sued by the Pence Company in an effort to con-

has been more closely adapted to the needs of both county and city teachers. After the opening musical selectionstwo songs rendered by the Girls' Glee Distension Of The Club of Washington High School, under the direction of Mrs. Rose Coursen Reedcame an address on "The Making of Men," by H. A. Adrian, of Santa Barbara, Cal.

A strong plea was made for industrial ucatio lieved by Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges education. President P. L. Campbell, of the Uni-versity of Oregon, took as his theme "The Gospel of Service," and emphasized the importance of the right attitude of mind importance of the right attitude of mind as affecting the result of the teachers work.

room where the supply of air is limited, the more volatile matters are burned An address on "The Educational Situation," by Edward O. Sisson, of the Uni-versity of Washington, concluded the morning's programme. Dr. Sisson dis-cussed some alarming symptoms of Amaway and most of the carbon remains. In a finely divided state charcoal not only condenses gases to a marvelou only condenses gases to a marvesone extent, but also has the power of ab-sorbing coloring matters. It is a very rapid gbsorbent of gases of every kind, and is much used in the dissecting rooms and wards of hospitals for the removal of offensive odors. erican life-lawlessness, lack of respect for human life, graft and questionable busi-mess methods, and showed that the blame must not be laid upon the schools only In rooms which have been recently or freshly painted, a pan or other recep-tacle of charcoal allowed to remain The street in an hour can sweep years of home, school and church training. The afternoon session opened with a pleasing vocal solo by Mrs. Fred Olson. State Superintendent Ackerman gave an address on "Some Educational Stand-ards." a measure of education being sup-

George wants to be relieved. According to his contract with the company he has two months more to stay and can't pull out, but he wants somebody else to take the job for the next two months. No-body wants the job. Everybody says, "Let George do it." and George is doing it. He told the Montavilla Board of Trade he was not making his sait working for the whole community, but they replied, "O, George, you do it." And George is doing it for the benefit of the community. His ac-counts show that a station at North Montavilla will pay the company hand-somely, and his only compensation will his country-are the things most needed in Young America, and most successfully taught by the force of a great example.

these annoying symptoms of indiges-tion, such as fermenattion, decomposi-tion of food, flatulence, or gas on the SUES FOR TIMBER TITLE stomach, colleky pains, resulting from the over-distension of the intestines with gas, and the rumbling noises of Woman Alleges Right to Quarter Section Deeded to Another.

Maggie A. Groce, of Portland, has be-gun suit in the United States Federal Court against William J. Buck, of Peoria, Ill., asking that Buck be required to deed to her a quarter section of timber land. The complainant alleges that she filed on the land under the timber and stone act in 1899, but when she tendered the money and proofs in December of that year, accompanied by the money, she was informed that the Northern Pa-cific Railway Company onjoyed a previcific Rallway Company enjoyed a previous right. In 1905 W. G. Howell is alleged to have In 1906 W. G. Howell is alleged to have filed a contest against Miss Groce and is said to have secured a decision from the Security of the Interior in his favor upon a showing that the land had not upon a showing that the land had not been examined by Miss Groce prior to the filing of her entry. Purchase a package of Stuart's Charbeen examined of Anas of the part of the filling of her entry. Later William J. Buck made a filling on the timber land and secured title. Miss Groce values the timber at $3000 and wants Buck to be declared as her trustee, such action to be followed by teered as a pall-bearer. Late Tuesday night Mr. Eldon was

And Eructations of Gas Rapidly Re-

Willow charcoal is the most important and the purest kind of charcoal obtain-able. Wood consists of carl .n. hydro-gen, and oxygen, and when heated in a therein over night, will completely absorb and remove all the disagreeable

Physicians frequently employ char-coal for destroying the fetor of wounds aint-odor.

The experts at the Alaska-Yukon Exposition said there is only one best oatmeal; it is Quaker Oats. 19

LONG-LIFE SECRET IN TURKISH BATH

EMINENT PHYSICIAN PROVES RE-MARKABLE RESULTS FROM ROBINSON THERMAL BATH.

Is Revolutionizing Treatment of Diseases.

coal for destroying the feter of wounds, for which purpose it is applied in the form of a powder or poultice to gan-grenous sores, ulcers, etc. It is also largely used in tooth-powders, as by its mechanical action it removes incrus-tations of the teeth, while by its chem-leal action of the teeth, while by its chem-Most medicines and drugs merely "smother" impurities and discase arms in the body for a short time—they do not drive them out. To cure discase, the impurities and germs must absolutely be driven out of the body. The hot-air or Robinson Thermal or Turkish Bath does this in a starting way. This is the substance of a statement by one of England's greatest scholars. The Durham Dunlog. The hot-air of the budy of the high set value, as there are no discases in which it cannot be made beneficially available, while in many diseases it possesses a curative power beyond comparison, superior to any other agent the medical profession can command. The effect on rheumatism, lumbarg, and kindey diseases, as well as on dyspaking diseases, and eruptions, neurality, in the asses and eruptions, neurality, introduce, bad colds have been strative of the abolt of the strateger on the strateger that and the abolt of the drive and the strateger of ical action it destroys fetor, or foul-ness of the breath. In indigestion accompanied by flatulence, or gas on the stomach, and belching, and in the colle of infants, or older persons, as well as the so-called "lead-colle," or 'painter's colle," charcoal is by far the best and most powerful remedy that can be used. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges should be Stuart's charcoal Lowenges should be used frequently or constantly by paint-ers, or workers in lead, and all persons whose occupations make them liable to "lead-colic. They should also be to "lead-colic. They should also be employed by any one who suffers from the bowels with which so many dys-peptics suffer, and which prove so an-noying and embarrassing when occur-noying and empartasong when occur ing while in company. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are com-posed of pure willow charcoal mixed with honey, and are capable of absorb-ing one hundred times their own vol-ume in gas; and by their rapid anti-constitue emtisonite deedoriging fermentative, antiseptic, deodorizing and absorbent action, prevent the pos-sibility of colic or internal rumblings of gaseous products. They are abso-lutely harmless, and may be given freely to infants suffering from collo, Clarke & Co. Ask the dealer also for that great book, "The Philosophy of Health and Beauty." The regular price is $2.00, hut you can new get one free for a limited time.

Imited time. Don't pass another day without see-ing these cabinels. If you cannot go yourneelf, just send your name and ad-dress today to the Robinson Mfg. Co., Suite 900 Snowtlake bldg., Toledo, Ohio, for full illustrated information, free,

Lawyer Taken on Telegraphic Re-

key-raising districts, and the outsiders got most of the fowls. For what was left, the people of Portland have had Walter H. Todd. an attorney, connected with the firm of Emmons & Emmons, in the Chamber of Commerce building, was again.

Executors Sue New York Firm. James Dowd and aKte Dowd, execu-

For the first time in many years there