WATSON MUCH WANTED

POLICE HAVE WARRANT, CAN NOT FIND MAN.

Judge Bronaugh Declares Recent Release of Convicted Man Was Illegal—Rearrest Ordered.

Frank Watson's recent liberation from Kelly Butte and his appeal to the Circuit Court from Police Judge Bennett's sentence of 90 days on the rockpile and a $100 fine were declared illegal by Presiding Judge Bronaugh in the Circuit Court yesterday morning.

Judge Bronaugh expressly stated from the bench, however, that he was not reviewing Judge Gatens' action in fixing Watson's bail at $100, that except for a technical flaw in Watson's appeal to the Circuit Court the appealed case would go to trial.

Court November 15, charging him with having been a vagrant on October 25. He was convicted and sentenced. His attorneys then filed a transcript of appeal in the Circuit Court, reporting to Judge Gatens their action, and asking him to fix Watson's bail, that he might be released. Deputy City Attorney Tomlinson filed a motion in the Circuit Court to dismiss the appeal, on the ground that it was not properly perfected. Upon looking into the matter Judge Bronaugh found that the city charter provides an appeal may be taken within five days, and that an undertaking on appeal, providing that the defendant will pay all judgments of the Circuit Court and abide by its decisions, must be filed in the Municipal Court. Judge Bronaugh held that the offense was committed against the city, not the state, and that the city charter must therefore be the rule of action. Judge Bronaugh's decision has the effect of cancelling Watson's $100 bail, fixed by Judge Gatens. Municipal Judge Bennett issued a bench warrant for Watson's arrest immediately after yesterday morning's decision. In the meantime he is out on $500 bail for having stolen, according to an indictment of the grand jury, $500 from Emery Buren, a Nevada mining man. Whether the police will now be able to locate this alleged member of the Harvey Dale gang of bunco men is a matter of conjecture.
