THE MORNING OREGONIAN, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1909. Derbies-McKenzie and Barrell; Fullers-Daenz, Beard and Snyder, Umpires-Beagle and Marias. STORM ISOLATES LIQUOR FIGHT HAS MILK LAW MAY BE ALTERED WELL-DRAWNLINES NORTHWESTCITIES Amendments to Ordinance May RAINY WEATHER MOTOR CARS Come Up at Council Meeting. It is probable that two or three Broken Dikes Threaten to Sub-Both Sides in North Yakima mendments will have to be made to the milk ordinance, passed by the City merge Skagit Delta and Need not prevent you from calling at our office to talk Working Vigorously in Council last week, when the Council meets again. These are insignificant, Five Bridges Go. about the splendid investments we can offer you in Utter Secrecy. and will be made only to assist in carrying out its provisions and to make it slightly more simple in working. It now designates the "license department" as the agency through WIRE COMMUNICATION OUT aurelhurst MONEY IN PLENTY GIVEN which licenses shall be issued, but there is no such department. It does not revoke the outstanding licenses, and the new ones are to expire Deamber 1 City Auditor Barbur is having pre-pared the necessary blanks for appli-But One Train Leaves City in Day. FRANK C.RIGGS Close and Smoothly-Running Or-Five Miles of Northern Pacific ganizations Perfected and Local cation for licenses, and he will ask the city health officer to take all applica-tions in the office of the Board of Health, in duplicate, so that there will be a record in the Health Office and SEVENTH& OAK STS. Track Under Water-Grays PHONES The Addition with Character Option Election December 30 Barbor Cut Off From World. MAIN 4542, A 1127. Stirs City to Core. also the Auditor's office. All dairy-men, who have secured their year's licenses under the old ordinance, will not be molested until the expiration of -WHY NOT COME IN TODAY? (Continued From First Page.) NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 27 .--the old licenses, which will be May 1, 1910; they will then have to take out ilton and Lyman are under water. Two (Special.)-Never were opposing forces The Alliance was due here tonight, but ined up more strongly or thoroughly miles of track is gone. The Puget Sound & Baker River Rallroad tracks are ones under the provisions of the is not expected on account of the rough for an election than are the "wets" and aurelhurst Co. drys" of North Yakima for the localashed out. weather. Chas. K. Henry Co. Mayor Simon, who strongly cham-ploned the pure milk ordinance now in effect, states that the Council will unoption election which will be held here The top of the Skagit River dikes is ess than two feet above the flood and CONDITIONS WORSE AT ASTORIA December 30. Every man almost is lined up on one side or the other, and in stream is still rising. There is no doubtedly make any necessary amo yet from surface indications one would not know the campaign had been HENRY BLDG. 522 CORBETT BLDG. ments to the ordinance at its next tope that the dikes will hold. If they Gale of 80 Miles Blows at Fort Stevbreak, the Great Northern main line will PHONES: A 1515, Main 1503 PHONES: Main 2565, A 5234 started. The "drys" are absolutely organized, with M. E. Zuppan, a former newspaper man, as manager. He heads the local-option committee, composed of dele-gates from the Civic Federation and the churches, all of them prominent bushess and professional men. Every ward and precinct is organized, and every voter is listed. The "drys" pro-pose to continue the work of organiza-ion until ten days before election and started. ens Without Harm. e covered and the whole Skagit Delta submerged. Late this afternoon all wire OPEN CARS ANGER PATRONS ASTORIA Or., Nov. 29 .- (Special.) In place of improving during last night, weather conditions became rapidly worse mmunication with the outside world was cut off. University Park Residents Who Use today and the most severo gale of the today and the most severo gale of the senson has been raging. No damage of note has been done locally, however, aside from a few rallings blown down and some roof coverings torn off. Reports from Fort Stevens say the fetty was not injured, although the wind at times blew at the rate of over 80 miles St. John Carline Complain. CHEHALIS LOW LAND FLOODED Resolutions were adopted at the meet-River Higher Than for 25 Years ing of the Peninsula Development League at University Park has night, condemn-ing the streetcar service on the St. John line. It was set forth that it took from provide for any punishment of it except by recovery for damages through a civil suit, and holding that a civil action would straining the enforcement of the order of the desired haven. His exaggerated tion until ten days before election, and then bring the best speakers in the country here and close with a whirfand Still Rising. and badly inflamed attack of ego is all that saves Mr. Oppy and carries the Interstate Commerce Commission, re-ducing from \$2 to \$P per car the terminal charges on livestock on railroads entering CHEHALIS, Wash, Nov. 29 .- (Spe an hour. This afternoon the wind sub-sided, and shifted to the northwest, so him through the narrows. He is a be exclusive of any other proceedings, the a minutes to one hour to reach Port-and from University Park. The resolutions strongly condemned the etal.) -Accompanied by a terrific gale wind finish. The Government appealed to the Su-preme Court with the result that it sucsocial goat, a heathen, if you will, but oh! so funny. Lis ambles about the stage, his absolutely grotesque manner, Chicago, better weather is looked for tomorrow. A canvuss of the city has been begun. last night and today, unusually heavy One ward has been completed, showing 70 per cent of the voters in that ward in favor of a dry town. The "drys" are preme Court with the result that it suc-ceeded in obtaining a reversal of the de-dision of the lower courts. The Supreme Court also today affirmed the decision of the United States Circuit Court for the District of Minnesota, rerains have fallen. The Chehalis and se of open cars and cars which are not New Aukum Rivers are rising rapidly. 'Mr. Hopkinson' at the his ridiculous attire and slow, dawning provided with heat, and it was declared that the use of such open and unheated mars from October to May was a menace smile are alone worth the price of ad-mission. He is a "bounder" pure and nfident of victory. The "wets" are working even more Already much of the low land is covered with water, and by Tuesday fore-Portland The "wets are working even more quietly. It is known they have a thor-ough organization, but nothing can be learned of it. They have many of the preminent huminess men with them, who believe that local option will burt the city in a business way. The saloon men are taking the lead in a move-ment for a clean town and orderly sa-hoars boding thus to keep many from simple, but even so he is unique and to the health of all who use them. The sectorary was instructed to send the resolutions and a domand for improved ar service to President Josselyn, of the noon the highest water in years is prealone on his pedestal. One cannot well imagine any one save Mr. Welford cs-saying the role. The rush of empur-pling blood which suffuses his rotund dicted. A telegram from C. A. Doty. manager of the Doty Lumber & Shingle Portland Rallway, Light & Power Com-pany. Another resolution was adopted favoring invoking the referendum and Company, says the river is higher pling blood which suffuses his rotund face when his old love, Eliza, confronts him in the presence of his fiances as the latter's maid, is really remarkable, and brought a storm of plaudits. The type of Englishman presented by Mr. Welford has never gone scot The Gift of a Piano, Pianola there than for 25 years, and is still ris-CAST He adds it is raining hard. ing. initiative law to require the company to Yeoman's milldam at Pe Ell is reprovide comfortable cars. It was voted to hold a general mass neeting at Arbor Lodge firehouse next Piano or Talking Machine oons, hoping thus to keep many from Lord Gawthorps. . Charles Wellesley sorted to have gone out. Farmers in folding the "dry" marks. Both sides are well supplied with money, so that no expense will be spared in bringing speakers and workers here for the he low lands of the Chebalis and New Duke of Braceborough ree of characterization, but it is not, nor has it ever been, a familiar fig-ure, and Mr. Hopkinson possesses just ukum Valleys have been warned of Friday night, and still further consider the streetcar service on the Peninsula. W. G. Steel presided. Alf Helton impending danger from floods. Traf-fic on the South Bend branch is badly trippled on account of a washout near Parbuty. Duchess of Braceborough. close of the campaign. enough cockney slang, just enough mannerisms, or lack of them, and just enough expression, to make the role wholly new and admirable. ... Miss Jane Wheatley Is a gift to every mem-Hon. Otho Dursingham. Walville and other damage on the sum-WALLA WALLA OPENS FIGHT mit. A heavy jam is said to threaten a bridge west of Holcomb. There has been a steady downpour here nearly all PERSONAL MENTION. ber of the family; The supporting cast is adequate. Jane Wheatley as the Duchess of Bracebor-ough is a beautiful woman of unusually Eliza Dibb......Miss May Milloy Earl of Addleton. Frederick Powell Anti-Saloon Element Begins Hot Dr. A. S. Esson, of The Dalles, is day but tonight it is clear. the Cornelius Campaign. ... Herbert Leslie W. L. Ducey, of Glendale, registared at the Ramapo yesterday. pleasing stage presence, and who wears her gowns as one imagines a real nuchess might. Barbara Clement as BRIDGE IS SHIFTED 18 INCHES Is a gift that will be en-Mr. Smethurst Patrick Wallace WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 19. (Special.) — This city is now the battle-ground of one of the hottest saloon fights in the history of the munici-pality. The all-absorbing topic on every street corner is prohibition, and as the time of election, Monday, Decem-L I Palmer and wife, of Sheridan, are guests at the Hotel Perkins.  Lady Thyra Egglesby makes a most fascinating fiances for Mr. 'Oppy, but jilts him on his weading day and weds a blass scion of nobility, for which 'Oppy later rejoices. As a society fa-vorite, or even as an onlooker, he is a signal failure and is finally left with joyed every day in the Elma Suffers Greatly With Worst $\mathbf{0}^{_\mathrm{NE}}$ of the first actually new brands of entertainment that has been seen Mr. and Mrs. Elmore, of Astoria, are registered at the Hotel Portland. Flood Known in Valley. year: H. Gannon, foremost in merchandising at Medford, is a guest at the Hotel Imin Portland for so many moons that it's ELMA, Wash., Nov. 23 .-- (Special.)following two weeks of heavy rains the ntire country is flooded and immense almost discouraging to count them, is at ber 10, grows nearer both the prohibi-tionists and the saloon element push he Portland for a week. To lead off with, the play is English orial dismal failure, and is finally left with his pretty milliner, Eliza. The latter, by the way, is onacted by May Milloy. Is a gift that will enter-Mrs. W. F. Osburn, of Eugene, is visit damage has been done. Farmers in the bottoms have been forced to higher ground. Rivers are higher than was ever the fight all the harder. ing at the home of her sister, Mrs. Emil and English satire at that, and it's played In their effort to carry their point the dries have carried their campaign by English people amidst English scenery. Despits this, or, cather, on account of it berhaps. "Mr. Hopkinson" is positively who has a Gibson face and Anna Held eyes. Galwey Herbert as the Hon. Otho Dursingham is typically a young tain visitors and guests; Pittelkau. known before. Elma is cut off from teleand wife, the milliner C. M. Shelton a the pulpits and the women are now perhaps, "Mr. Hopkinson" is positively the best yet. Dallas Welford, the comedian who takes d Goldendale, are guests at the Hotel taking a stand; on the other hand, the citizens' committee, which is handling the campaign in the interest of the The Northern Pacific bridge east of town English chap, clean and wholesome, but unfortunately poor as the proverbial church mouse. Frederick Powell is seen in the role of 'Oppy's prospective paw, of seasick tendencies, and War-ren Fabian is particularly good as the Duke of Preschorough who helps en-Imperial. has shifted 15 inches down stream and [Dr. J. M. Keene, a prominent physician Is a gift that will bring heavy faxpayers, are advertising ex-tensively and claim the city will go "wet" by at least 660 majority. Tothe stellar role, is compartively little no trains can pass. of Medford, is at the Portland. He is accompanied by his wife. known in Portland, but he needs no in troduction now, other than "Mr. Hopkin The Elma Light & Power Company's dam is buried and in danger momentarily of going out. The county bridge east pleasure to the giver Sam Mathews, old hotel man of the West Coast and recently located at He is the entire show; all else merrew evening Senator George H. Cotterill, of Washington, will lecture Eugene, is at the Ramapo.

County Judge D. L. Moomaw came in stopped. from Baker City yesterday and is at the Hotel Imperial for a few days. Immense damage has been done to the long stretches of grade washed away. Satsop River is raging and fear is felt for its bridges. The Chehalis River is rising six inches an hour and heavy rains are still falling. Business is at a standstill and all logging camps and mills have closed.

of, town is partly gone and all travel is pales into anemic jelly beside bim. The others in the cast are only incl-dental, boots and shoes and collar but-tons, necessities, if you will, and each good in his or her part, but we've made their acquaintance at various times be fore in some one play or another. It's "Mr. Hopkinson," who is quite, quite new, and the process of gaining an insight into his personality is so diverting that the audience finds itself laughing in maudin manner, forgetting dignity, and ends by manner, forgetting aignity, and ends oy howling itself into near-hysterics. In the story Mr. 'Opkinson is the son of poor but respectable parents in an obscure English town, and has spont his years in the shop, a bookkeeper, a gent with a penchant for pomade and descinating musicable about the size of

Duke of Braceborough, who helps en-gineer 'Oppy into society. Patrick Wallace is seen as a choleric lawyer, and Charles Wellesley as Lord himself;

finement and a gift

that'll be enjoyed not only on Xmas morning,

but for many of them to the remaining three weeks of the camnatan Both sides have been carrying on a from the prohibition standpoint. He is only one of the many speakers to be brought here by the "drine" during heavy advertising campaign for over a week and they will keep it up until the close. In many instances both the "wets" and "dries" point to the same city to substantiate their arguments. one claiming the city has been bene-fited and the other rulned. Every Sun-day meeting of the "drica" in the Y. M. C. A. is well attended, although all speakers are local men and the same thing is gone over at every meeting.

WHITMAN HAS HARD CAMPAIGN

Local Option Election Today, With

"Drys" Prophesying Victory.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 29.-(Special.) Whitman County will decide the local option question tomorrow after the toughest campaign tussle in its history. Reports of attempts at illegal voting have caused Presecuting Attorney Cham-berlain to send instructions to officers ordering them to keep close watch on these suspected of being illegally regis-tered and to make arrests where there is sufficient evidence to warrant a hope of convicting. Sheriff Carter appointed two special deputies to take charge at Rosalia and will send Deputy Cole to

At Pullman there are 443 voters registered out of a total of 600. R. C. Mc-tered out of a total of 600. R. C. Mc-Croakey, of Garfield, chairman of the Whitman County Civic League, has been making a canvass of the county. He

"County precincts will all vote against saloons, and the six dry towns, Pullman, Garfield, Oakesdale, Farmington, Elber-ton and St. John, will give majorities. In the wet towns, Colfax, Tekoa, Palouse, In the wet towns, Collink, Tenha, Fahouse, Resalla, Endicott and Colton, the saloon element will put up a hard fight. We stand a good show of carrying Colfax, Palouse, Resalla and Endicott, with Te-koa and Colton doubtfui. There is little doubt about Endicott's going dry, and the outlook in Rosalia and Palouse is en-

Saloon Faction Controls Caucus

Which Names Ticket.

TILLAMOOK, Or., Nov. 21.-(Special.) -At a city caucus last night the following ticket was nominated: Mayor, Thomas Contest Recorder, T. B. Handley; Treas-urer, Andy Noian; Marshal, E. G. Ford; Councellmen, First Ward, F. W. Talbot; Second Ward, G. W. Witt; Third Ward, Alex Watt; Fourth Ward, Erwin Hairti-son; Fifth Ward, A. E. Ball; Water Com-missioner-at-Large, C. E. Reynolds; Fifth missioner-at-Large, C. E. Reynolds; Fifth Ward, T. H. Goyne. The saloon faction controlled the caucus and the two near-beer resorts and poolrooms closed their pinces of business during the caucus. They defeated W. T. Kimball for Marshal and nominated E. G. Ford. It is expected that the "law and order" citizens will put up a ticket.

McKenzie Pitches Great Game.

Scott McKenzie, pitcher for the Dill-sorth Derbles, had perfect control in the indoor baseball game with the W. P. Fuller Company team at Ringler's Hall last night, and won his game by the de-cisive score of 12 to 2. McKenzie fanned 13 of the Fuller team, while Daena fanned but gix of the Derbiez. The batteries: E. W. GROVES signature is on each box, 25c, 310 miles an hour off Coos Bay.

F. B. Walte, a prominent ifrigationist and real estate promoter, of Sutherlin, arrived at the Hotel Perkins last night. Dr. A. G. Prill, of Scio, was at the head of a party of citizens of that city who of a party arrived at the Perkins yesterday mornind.

William Res, a ploneer of the fields of Ketchikan, Alaska, arrived at the Hotel Imperial yesterday. He came out on the last boat.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gorman, leaders of the business life of Kathlamet, came to the Hotel Imperial yesterday, and will remain during the week,

Miss Laura B. Waggoner, who has been visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Anna N. Houk, 259 Madison street, has ed to her home in Corvallis. P. J. Richardson, one of the propriators of the Perkins Hotel, returned yestorday from an extended trip along the Atlantic seaboard. scaboard. He was accompanied by his family.

John Rosene, associated with W. D.

C. S. Chapman. District Forestar for Oregon and Washington, will leave for Washington, D. C., on Wednesday and will be in consultation with Forester Gifford Pinchot relating to administration work. George N. Crossfield, of Wasco, who has been a guest at the Oregon for soveral days, was called home yesterday by a telegram announcing his residence had burned to the ground, reported in The Oregonian yesterday. The Oregonian yesterday. J. El Chilberg, lats president of the A-Y-P, accompanied by his wife, passed through Portland yesterday. Mr. Chil-berg goes to California but announces that on this trip his wife's diamonds have been shipped by hypress. Charles F. Flory, chief of the Division outbook in Rosalia and Palouse is en-couraging." THLLAMOOK "WETS" SELECT have been snipped by express. Charles F. Flory, chief of the Division of Operation of the Forest Service in Oregon and Washington, returned rester-day from a trip over the various National forests of the district. His special mis-sion has been to instruct Forest Rangers in their duties, and in so doing has held meetings attended by the officers of the Mount Vernon Warm Springs, Umatilia, Whitman, Malheur and Deschutes 1e-aerves. CHICAGO, Nov. 29.- (Special.)-Portland people registered at Chicago hotels today are as follows:

Congress-A. F. Biles, T. Morris Dunne. Stratford-W. F. Stine. Great Northern-H. S. McCutcheon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 -(Special.)-Peo-ple from the Pacific Northwest registered at New York hotels today are as follows; From Portland-G. H. Zimmerman and wife, Misses Zimmerman, at the Waldorf; wife, Misses Zimmerman, at the Waldorf; E. E. Yessell, at the Wellington; C. D. Shanks, at the Collingwood. From Seattle-J. R. Andrews, at the Park Avenue; R. Anderson, at the Ca-dillac; G. A. Shannon, at the Hermitage; J. J. Godfrey, at the Grand. From Spokane-A. H. Hooker, Mim. A. Hooker, at the Park Avenue. From Tacoma-T. Sammon, at the Breallo.

MONTESANO HAS NO TRAINS

Over 900 Feet of Track Gone in One Place-Farmers Move Out.

MONTESANO, Wash., Nov. 29.-(Spe-cial.)-Yesterday and today occurred the worst storm ever experienced in the Grays-Harbor country. The Chehalis River at this point is two feet higher than ever before, say the oldest inhabi-tants, and while the rain has stopped, the river is still rising and will, it is ex-weeted, come up two feel more. No trains have come in or out of Montesano today and the track is washed out Hofins, of Fortland, strived from Seattle yesterday and immediately departed for Los Angeles, where his wife is reported Wynoochs bridge, two miles west of here, Los Angeies, where his where is reported to be dangerously III. J. W. Reed, of San Francisco, one of the contractors on the new building to go up at the corner of Fifth and Alder. arrived at the Portland yesterday, ac-companied by his architest.

Traffic in Mountain Branch Lines Is at Standstill.

TACOMA, Nov. 29.-Railroad traffic and business in general are suffering from a rain storm that before morning, it is thought probable, will have made the downpour for this month greater than in any previous month in Tacoma's his-tory. The Puyallup River is rising and tory. The Puyaliup River is rising and threatening damage in the valley. The rainfall this month to date is 14.40 inches. The weather office was estab-lished in December, 1897, when 14.48 inches of water fell.

of water fell,

Under the heavy fall of water more trouble is looked for in the mountain streams. Although the main line of the Northern

Although the main line of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Chicago, Mil-waukee & Puget Sound rallroads are re-ported in operating condition, traffic over practically every branch line in the moun-tain and river countries is paralyzed. Grays Harbor is cut off from the world by raging rivers and the rallroad tracks are under several feet of water in places.

ANOTHER RAIN HITS COOS BAY

Gale of 75 Miles an Hour Rages Outside, Delaying Vessels.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 29.-(Special.) MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 29.-(Special.) -A train on the local railroad was put through to Johnson's Mill, a point two miles beyond Coquille, today, but as yet the traffic to Myrtle Point is cut off. Large forces of men are at work making repairs and it is hoped traffic will be reg-ularly resumed in a few days. Another heavy rain has fallen all day and if it continues for another two days there will be a second freshet in the river, it is feared feared fascinating mustachio about the size of a peanut. He is incidentally quite fond of one Eliza Dibbs, a milliner's appren-tice, but when an Uncle 'Opkinson shufthes off and leaves 'Oppy, Jr., all his coin, to the tune of eighty thousand per (English), he finds himself with social aspirations of the clinibing variety. He is exploited by a real duchess, whose only excuse is her need of money, and is introduced into the impoverished no-bility of England, and finds himself engaged to a very charming girl, who also is out for the big fat bankroll. Incidentally. Oppy is pried loose from countless thousands of simoleons obtainable

WHY IS

dient in it.

perfect process.

ernment of the United States, through criminal proceeding, should punish per-sons who conspire to ald allen contract laborers to come into the United States contrary to the immigration law, was held by the Supreme Court of the United States today in the prosecution of Tilden B. Stevenson and Amede Bellairs. These men were indicted in the United States District Court in this city on the charge of siding in the immigration of

Chest

Troubles

is out for the big fat bankroll. Incidentially, 'Oppy is pried loose from countless thousands of simoleons during the process of guiding him into

LITO USA

From the warehouse the whiskey goes into the filling tanks in the bottling house, under Government lock and key; it comes out under Government . seal-

Biggest

Busiest

and Best

the little green stamp. Between the filling tank and the little green stamp is an ingenious array of machines that fill, cork, cap and label the bottles. Not a human hand touches

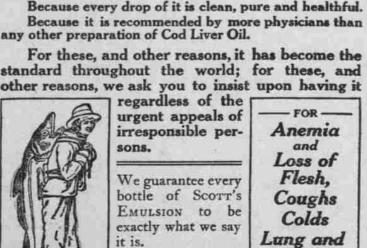

Its purity is as certain as scientific precision can make it. Its flavor is as distinctive as only the finest rye can give it. Its uniformity is as fixed as the laws that guarantee its purity.

Write us for a beautiful book telling the whole interesting story of how the Standard Rye Whiskey of America is made.

A. Guckenheimer & Bros., Distillers, Pittsburg. Since 1857

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, NEW YORK

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS

Gawthorpe, the aforesaid roue, who weds Thyra and lets 'Oppy out of so-Is a gift of all gifts, for clety. Small wonder that it ran for a year in New York. To miss it is to miss a genuinely good thing. it's a stepping stone to higher culture and re-

CONTRACT LABOR ILLEGAL

Supreme Court Holds Criminal Action Will Lie Against Promoters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 .- That the Gov-