SMITH'S BACON

COSTS 22 1/2c PER POUND

Smith's bacon, properly prepared for those who do not engage in heavy manual labor and therefore do not need much of the rich, heat-producing fat, should be fried to a crisp, until it is all intents entirely lean. Then it is a dish fit for the gods, and for mortals who know what is good. Then there is left the grease, golden brown and delicious. Now the usefulness of Smith's bacon only begins.
