Mysterious Disappearance of Oregon Woman Recalled in Action.

LONG SEARCH IS IN VAIN

Anton Yocubets, Whose Spouse Was Lost From Sight as Though Earth Had Swallowed Her, Now Alleges Desertion.

ALBANT, Or., Nov. 22—(Special.)— Emma Yocubets, the woman who disap-peared so mysteriously from her home bear Crabtree, Linn County, September 30, 1908, and of whom not a single trace has ever been found, was made the defendant in a divorce suit by her husband, Anton-Yocubets, filed in the State Cir-cult Court here today. Yocubets alleges was one of the most sensational cases of the kind which ever came to the attention of the officers of Linn County and Life-Saving Crew at Garibaldi Said It aroused great excitement at the time According to Yocubets' sfory, he arose at 5 o'clock on the morning of September 30, 1968, and went out to his barn, leaving his wife in bed. When he returned to the house, an hour later, his wife was Disappearance Is Mystery.

From that day to this no one has ever been able to get the slightest trace of the missing Mrs. Yocubets. Linn County officers tried in vain for weeks to get track of her movements, but could learn nothing. She never returned to her former home in Chicago nor have any of relatives ever heard anything of her Several days after the woman disup-poared neighbors became suspicious re-tarding the matter. The fact that she eft all of her best clothes and everything else she possessed on the place led them to fear foul play and they notified Sheriff D. S. Smith of their suspicions. He at once began an investigation of the affair and he and Deputy District Attor-ncy Gale S. Hill made a trip to the Yocubets home and went over the case thoroughly. They cross-questioned Yo-cubets for hours and interviewed his two boys separately and alone, calling them from the schoolhouse for the purpose be-fore they had a chance to see their

This investigation convinced the of-ficers that Youbets had nothing whater to do with the disappearance of his wife and that she had left the place vol-untarily. But how or where she went remains a mystery, which bids fair to

The only indication of foul play, aside from her mysterious disappearance, was that the woman had left her clothes and jewels and that she had been cleaning up the house thoroughly and canning fruit for several days, as if she had no intention to leave. Yocubets asserts, however, that $30 which he had secured from the sale of some hogs the day be-fore his wife's departure went with her

Romances Seen in Marriages.

Yocubets' first wife killed herself Norember 7, 1966, at the house where he set lives, two miles from Crabtree. Shortly afterward he took his two little boys to live with his sister in Iowa. While there he became very ill and was taken to a hospital in Chicago. When he was convalescent, the second Mrs. Yocubets got acquainted with him in the s accurat in their marriage. August 28, 1907.

Yocubets took his new wife and his two boys to his Oregon farm. The woman supposed at the time of the marriage that Yocubets was wealthy. It is true he owns a good ranch in the rich Santiam bottoms, but neighbors say that Mrs. Yocubets, who appeared to be refined and well educated, was somewhat surprised at the surrounding of her new Officers believe that this is one of the strongest circumstances to indicate that she fled from the place voluntarily and was not the victim of foul play. It is admitted that Mrs. Yocubets did not get along well with her two stepsons, but so far as has been learned there was never hint of trouble between Yocubets

After conducting a fruitless investigation for weeks, local officers abandoned the search and the filing of this divorce complaint today is the first step for sev-eral months in this mysterious case.

Although there is general praise of the

Had the femnie passengers taken to the ship's boats instead of the Life-Saving Station's lifeboat, it is thought there would have been only one fatality, that of the seaman who was washed off the Argo when the sails were being holsted. The station requires a motor lifeboat. With the heavy current which draws toward the north in stormy weather, it is almost beyond the physical endurance of a life-saving crew to pull a boat in the face of saving crew to pull a boat in the face of a heavy southwest gale, a fierce current and a rough sea

Seattle Murder Year Old, Alleged Slayer Named by Prisoner Caught.

LIGHT ON MYSTERY SHED

Man Serving Five Years for Robbery of Killed Bartender, Contended Captive Had Given Him Stolen Jewelry.

SEATLE, Nov. 29 .- Word was reeived here from Chicago today that Charles Smith, accused of the murder of Hugh McMahon, a bartender here last November, had been arrested there. The apprehension of Smith may cause the release of Peter Miller, a Socialist, who is serving five years in the Penitentiary for robbery of the man slain. Miller contended he had not robbed McMahon, but had been given the murdered man's watch and other jewelry by Smith and another ex-convict named Rose.

Murder Scouted First.

McMahon was found dead in front of his home at daylight, with no mark violence upon him and his clothes ruffled. The police and physicians unruffled. insisted that he had fallen dead of or-ganic trouble. Several days later it was learned that money and jewelry was learned that money and jewelry had been stolen from the body and an autopsy revealed that McMahon had been garroted in the most skillful manner, his pockets rifled and the body laid down carefully.

Some months after the murder, the murdered man's watch and other jewelry were found in Spokane pawnshops and the pawnbrokers identified Peter Miller, a highly educated man and Socialist lecturer, under arrest in Seat-

Socialist lecturer, under arrest in Seattle for burglary, as the person who had pawned the articles.

Miller Is Convicted.

Miller, according to the Seattle police, dmitted pawning the stuff, but said be and obtained it from Charles Smith and a man named Rose, ex-convicts known as bludgeon men and who had been under arrest for another offense here soon after the murder. Miller, on his trial for burglary, was his own attorney and displayed remarkable learning. He was convicted and sentenced to five years in state's prison, but his allegations of po-lice brutality led to the calling of a grand jury which is now investigating the city and county governments.

informed that Smith had been arrested in Chicago.
"I am relieved to learn that Smith has been arrested," he said, "because I know he can clear up the manner in which the McMahon jewelry was entrusted to me and afterward sold by me in Spokane. I do not believe Smith killed McMahon. I have known him in Goldfield, Nev. several years ago. At that time he was a bartender, but associated a good deal with crooks.

"I do not attempt to say how he got hold of the jewelry. The watch, ring and diamonds were spread out on a table when I first saw them. This was early in January in 1909. Smith, Rose and a man named Hawley, were there. They said that they couldn't dispose of the goods here and asked me to take them to Spokane. I didn't ask any questions, and was under suspended sentence from

REST AND TONIC CURE SCIATICA

A Seattle Woman Tells How This Treatment Made the

Sciatic Pains Disappear. Sciatica is neuralgia of the sciatic nerve. Its origin is generally rheumatic and is the direct result of taking cold. For this reason the disease is commonly 'sciatic rheumatism."

Lack of blood is almost always associated with neuralgia. One medical authority has defined neuralgia, as "the cry of the nerves for better blood." This is true because the nerves receive their nourishment through the blood. Build up the blood, the impoverished nerves are fed and the neuralgic pains disappear. Absolute rest is the best aid to proper medical treatment. Rest and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure most

Mrs. George Deyo, of No. 2846 West Sixty-Seventh street, Ballard Station, Seattle, Wash., says:

"Several years ago when I was living at St. Thomas, Ontario, I became afflicted with sciatica. The first attack came when I was stooping over and was a very sharp pain in my back. When I stood up I could hardly move. For the next four years I was an almost constant sufferer. The pains settled in my left hip and were sharp and cutting. They seemed to flash in every direction and extended from my knee to my back. I could not do much of any work and had to sit in a chair most of the time. The suffering ran me down in weight and strength.

"I was under the care of doctors for quite a long while but they didn't help me. My son urged me to try Dr. liams' Pink Pills and I did so. I gave them a thorough trial and the sciation entirely disappeared." If you have sciatica, or sciatic rhen-matism, and the treatment you have taken proved of no benefit, it is time that you try the remedy that has cured so many stubborn cases—Dr. Williams Pink Pills. They are safe and harmless to the most delicate constitution and contain no morphine, opiate, narcotic nor anything to cause a drug habit. A copy of our new booklet, "Nervons Disorders," containing full information about this treatment will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent, postpaid, upon receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. William Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 29 .- (Special.)-Twelve men have been selected, all resi-dents of Thurston County, to try ex-Ad-jutant-General Ortis Hamilton a charge of larceny by embezziement. The last uror was selected at a night session of the court, after the defense had ex-hausted all of its peremptory challenges and 24 of the 28 men on the panel had en examined. Hamilton is suffering from an attack of dysentery and Judge Robinson, one of his counsel, is feeling III, so the night session was held in order to prevent further delay. Tomorrow is the last day of November and it was feared that, if the jury had not been completed by Tuesday night, the defense would have sought to get the trial put over until January, if not until April.
