

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES. Pac. States. Home. Counting-Room. Main 7070 A. 6905 City Circulation. Main 7070 A. 6905

AMUSEMENTS.

BUNGALOW THEATER—(Twelfth and Morrison)—John Cox presents the comedienne "Katie Doo." Tonight at 8 o'clock. PORTLAND THEATER—(Fourth and Washington)—Dollis Wainwright. "The Merry Widow." Monday. "The Merry Widow." Tuesday. "The Merry Widow." Wednesday.

GRAND THEATER—(Washington between Seventh and Fifth)—Audience between 7:30 and 9 P. M. PANTAGES THEATER—(Fourth and Stark)—Audience between 7:30 and 9 P. M. LYRIC THEATER—(Seventh and Alder)—Audience between 7:30 and 9 P. M.

PARADES TO REV. D. T. THOMAS—A farewell reception was given Rev. and Mrs. D. T. Thomas last night at the Pilgrim Congregational Church, Shaver street and Missouri avenues. Rev. Thomas will leave today for Forest Grove, where he has accepted a call to the First Congregational Church. He had been pastor of Pilgrim Church for three years.

MRS. ALLEN'S APPOINTMENTS TODAY—Mrs. J. C. Allen, field secretary of the Women's General Missionary Society for the United Presbyterian church, will meet the women of Grand-avenue Church this forenoon in this church at 11 o'clock. At 2:30 Mrs. Allen will meet the women of the Third Church, Hawthorne avenue and East Thirty-seventh street.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO ADVERTISE—The Portland Chamber of Commerce is making arrangements with managers of various hotels and public buildings in the city for space in elevators and other conspicuous places to hang 150 neatly designed placards apprising visitors of the location of the commercial organization and the fact that information concerning Oregon and its resources is given there. The cards will be placed this week.

CLUBHOUSE TO OPEN SOON—The clubhouse of the Sellwood Commercial Club will be completed between Christmas and New Year, and will be opened with a banquet about the first of the year. Secretary Edwards said it was intended to have the building completed and furnished ready for a public opening January 1. The cost will be about $250. It will be the home of the Board of Trade.

WOMEN TO MEET—The art and psychology departments of the Woman's Club meet today at 2 o'clock in the Woodcraft Hall, Tenth and Taylor streets. Mrs. George McMillan, Mrs. Land, Mrs. Puffer, Mrs. T. P. Wise will assist in the program. Psychology, lecture at 2 o'clock, subject, "How to Get Acquainted With Yourself." Physical and mental exercises given by Mrs. Weister.

TEMPORARY SCHOOLS OCCUPIED—The temporary schoolhouses in Rose City Park have been occupied by the school children. It was built to provide relief from the overcrowding of the old building. The temporary building will be used this winter as a club house and other uses. The annual training department when the proposed four-room building is erected next year.

ROSE CITY PARK READY FOR MAIL—The houses in the Rose City Park district have all been numbered preparatory to the visit of the mail inspector, who is expected there before long to look over conditions. The people have been notified of the requirements of the postal authorities for mail delivery, and residents expect to get the service by January 1.

UNFURNISHED LUNCHEON—From 11:30 until 2 o'clock on day of annual bazaar, Wednesday, December 1, at 50 cents a plate. Bazaar opens at 10 o'clock and closes with the evening telephone orders may be called for at the church (E. Frank Library), afterwards during week. Particulars of sale in last Sunday local columns.

CONTRACTOR'S TIME UP—Time allotted to the Pacific Iron Works for the erection of steel for the east wing of the new courthouse expired yesterday. The steel is not set on the ground, and only a few of the cast-iron bases have been temporarily set. County Commissioner Lightner said last night that the company has made no application for an extension of time. A penalty of $50 a day attaches for failure to complete the steel work on November 29. Contractor Lundstrom, who put in the concrete, rushed his work through in order to finish it on another time in readiness for the steel.

BARKEEPER GIVES BAIL—T. A. McCourt, bartender in a saloon at Fourth and Alder, was arrested late yesterday afternoon charged with larceny by bailor, and released on $100 cash bail. The complaint is brought against McCourt by W. C. Reeves, who says that he deposited $20 with McCourt for safekeeping and when he went to get his money back again McCourt refused to give it him, denying the receipt of it. A complaint was prepared against McCourt in District Attorney's office by Deputy District Attorney Page.

MARION WILL ENTERTAIN—Mount Tabor Lodge No. 42, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, has issued invitations for its annual musical and literary entertainment, to be held this evening at the Masonic Temple. An excellent program will be headed by a fancy dance, followed by a class of young women reciting instruction from Robert Kohn. The entertainment will be given in Knights Templars Hall.

STORIES HERE, CHEAP—On West Side, one block from car, beautiful view of mountains, berry garden, lawn and shade trees, lot 7x100. House six rooms, three bedrooms, polished floors, Run hot water heater, hot air and furnace, cement cellar and walks, street paved with bitulite, select neighborhood. Lot alone worth $4000. This is the best buy offered for some time, price $2750, half cash. R. O. Quisenberry, 204 Oak street.

"MOTIVIER" ROBERTS TO SPEAK—The Sunnyside Home Training Circle will give a class of young women reciting instruction from Robert Kohn. The entertainment will be given in Knights Templars Hall.

EVERYBODY CAN EAT PORTERHOUSE—At all of Smith's markets small porterhouse steaks can be bought for 12 1/2c per pound, and sirloin steak and sirloin roast beef for 10c per pound. There is some epicurean about bacon in Smith's ad-bak page.

PROFESSOR BEGON WILL BE AT B. and B. Hall, Hawthorne avenue and Thirty-seventh street, every Friday night, ages 14 to 17; nice people only have a chance. See classified column, "Dancing."

GENUINE STUNNERS. Introductory sale of men's suits and overcoats Friday at the new Sample Suit Store, 215, Oregonian building.

HOT WAFFLES and maple syrup for luncheon at Women's Exchange today, 18 1/2 Fifth street, near Yamhill.

SHIPPER'S SPRINGS—Dr. W. D. McNary, medical director; E. L. Shipper, mgr. TONIGHT—St. Lawrence bazaar closes. Prices tonight. Bargains. Admission free. DR. CALVIN S. WHITE, 502-508 Dekum bldg.

MINSTRELS WILL PARADE Spanish War Veterans Not to Overlook Black-Face Feature. No minstrel show is complete without the big minstrel street parade and the Spanish War Veterans will not be outdone in this feature.

TONSETH FLORAL CO. 25 Morrison street, Marquam bldg., cut flowers and flowering plants every day from our conservatories. Phone: Main 5102. A. 1102.

New Bills Open at the Vaudeville Houses

Orpheum. It is almost impossible to pick out the one best act, or the two best acts, at the Orpheum this week. Good, better, best, are the comparative degrees of the bill, and may be truthfully said of each act. It is an all-around good offering, and seems to please generally.

Of course the featured act is Donald Bowles, in his first appearance here in vaudeville. Mr. Bowles' list of admirers in Portland is a lengthy one, and it would seem as if they all turned out to see him in his sketch, "Guilty." The little playlet is intensely interesting at times dramatic and brim full of that often much abused quality sentiment. Briefly told, the story is that of a wayward young chap, a victim of early circumstances and environment, who is forced to adopt the profession of burglar. But he is an attractive and gentlemanly burglar, and—well, it's no fair telling the denouement.

George H. Wood, a black-faced monologist, a prologue in the line of "I'm Not Afraid of the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark." Sydney Deane, the head of the cast, finds the audience appreciative of his interpretation of "Only One Place I Love You." Owing to the magnitude of the paraphernalia upon which Carlotta makes her loop-the-loop, and the great altitude necessary for her to make her sensational plunge, a portion of the ceiling is being removed. The work was not completed in time for her to make her appearance last evening. Carlotta is said to be the only woman who has attempted to loop-the-loop on the vaudeville stage.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

of singing to the accompaniment of colored pictures, has a new ballad to offer. Grand. A artistic creation of comedy and song, offered this week at the Grand, is called "Christmas on Blackwell's Island." The scene represents a party of prisoners in the "Jedies" and a trusty. From their cages they celebrate the day with jolly and breezy jokes, and between times blend their voices in song. The trio have good voices and interpret pleasingly "The Stein Song," "Adeste Fideles," "Birds of a Feather" and a parody on "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark."

George H. Wood, a black-faced monologist, a prologue in the line of "I'm Not Afraid of the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark." Sydney Deane, the head of the cast, finds the audience appreciative of his interpretation of "Only One Place I Love You." Owing to the magnitude of the paraphernalia upon which Carlotta makes her loop-the-loop, and the great altitude necessary for her to make her sensational plunge, a portion of the ceiling is being removed. The work was not completed in time for her to make her appearance last evening. Carlotta is said to be the only woman who has attempted to loop-the-loop on the vaudeville stage.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

of singing to the accompaniment of colored pictures, has a new ballad to offer. Grand. A artistic creation of comedy and song, offered this week at the Grand, is called "Christmas on Blackwell's Island." The scene represents a party of prisoners in the "Jedies" and a trusty. From their cages they celebrate the day with jolly and breezy jokes, and between times blend their voices in song. The trio have good voices and interpret pleasingly "The Stein Song," "Adeste Fideles," "Birds of a Feather" and a parody on "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark."

George H. Wood, a black-faced monologist, a prologue in the line of "I'm Not Afraid of the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark." Sydney Deane, the head of the cast, finds the audience appreciative of his interpretation of "Only One Place I Love You." Owing to the magnitude of the paraphernalia upon which Carlotta makes her loop-the-loop, and the great altitude necessary for her to make her sensational plunge, a portion of the ceiling is being removed. The work was not completed in time for her to make her appearance last evening. Carlotta is said to be the only woman who has attempted to loop-the-loop on the vaudeville stage.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

AT KILHAM'S

New French Stationery. For a desirable Christmas Gift—especially for ladies—we strongly recommend a supply of correspondence paper, stamped with monogram or address. A gift of this kind offers wide latitude in the way of expense, and it is one of those necessary things which cannot fail to please.

These French papers are strikingly novel in tints and patterns, and have an effect of smartness which is much desired. If you are interested in ordering a gift of this kind please see us about it soon. It takes time to execute these orders properly, and from now on they come in very fast. Every day you save on your order is an advantage both to you and to us.

KILHAM Stationery & Printing Co. FIFTH AND OAK STREETS

"Bay State Paint"

FISHER, THORSEN & CO. "The Big Paint Store" FRONT AND MORRISON STREETS. Manufacturers and Jobbers Everything in Paints

Christmas Presents

We have just received large shipments of Oriental Curios, suitable for Christmas presents, consisting of fine silks and satin, embroidered Mandarin Coats, Kimonos, Morning Tea Gowns, Smoking Jackets, Screens, Ivory Carvings, Satsuma, Bronze and Brassware, beautiful Carved Furniture, Tea Sets, etc. Remember, we carry the largest stock at the lowest prices in the city.

Andrew Kan & Co.

SAN FRANCISCO $5

Reduced Rates and Quick Trip to Los Angeles. S. S. ROSE CITY (E. W. MASON, Master) SAILS 4 P. M. FRIDAY, DEC. 3. M. J. ROCHE, C. T. A. J. W. RAMSON, DOCK AGENT, 142 3d St. Main 402, A 1402. Atsworth Dock, Main 288, A 1234. SAN FRANCISCO & PORTLAND STEAMSHIP CO.

A MAN is never so strong as when he stands up; have a bank account—it lends strength and gives back-bone. You will not have to stoop to any project. We invite you to open an account with this bank. We can help you. We pay interest semi-annually for the account. Also furnish any banking accommodation you may require. Hours, 8 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. Saturdays, 8 P. M.

of singing to the accompaniment of colored pictures, has a new ballad to offer. Grand. A artistic creation of comedy and song, offered this week at the Grand, is called "Christmas on Blackwell's Island." The scene represents a party of prisoners in the "Jedies" and a trusty. From their cages they celebrate the day with jolly and breezy jokes, and between times blend their voices in song. The trio have good voices and interpret pleasingly "The Stein Song," "Adeste Fideles," "Birds of a Feather" and a parody on "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark."

George H. Wood, a black-faced monologist, a prologue in the line of "I'm Not Afraid of the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark." Sydney Deane, the head of the cast, finds the audience appreciative of his interpretation of "Only One Place I Love You." Owing to the magnitude of the paraphernalia upon which Carlotta makes her loop-the-loop, and the great altitude necessary for her to make her sensational plunge, a portion of the ceiling is being removed. The work was not completed in time for her to make her appearance last evening. Carlotta is said to be the only woman who has attempted to loop-the-loop on the vaudeville stage.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

of singing to the accompaniment of colored pictures, has a new ballad to offer. Grand. A artistic creation of comedy and song, offered this week at the Grand, is called "Christmas on Blackwell's Island." The scene represents a party of prisoners in the "Jedies" and a trusty. From their cages they celebrate the day with jolly and breezy jokes, and between times blend their voices in song. The trio have good voices and interpret pleasingly "The Stein Song," "Adeste Fideles," "Birds of a Feather" and a parody on "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark."

George H. Wood, a black-faced monologist, a prologue in the line of "I'm Not Afraid of the Dark," called "Jeffries is Not Afraid of the Dark." Sydney Deane, the head of the cast, finds the audience appreciative of his interpretation of "Only One Place I Love You." Owing to the magnitude of the paraphernalia upon which Carlotta makes her loop-the-loop, and the great altitude necessary for her to make her sensational plunge, a portion of the ceiling is being removed. The work was not completed in time for her to make her appearance last evening. Carlotta is said to be the only woman who has attempted to loop-the-loop on the vaudeville stage.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

Such joyous melody and melting beauty of tone as that which comes from Kreiser's violin, is heard only a few times in a lifetime. The music of his captivating strains move the heart at will, from profound pathos to wild, exuberant gaiety, or to heights of tragic splendor. He is recognized today as ranking with the greatest of all the master violinists of the past as Paganini, Sarasate and Joachim. None living is his equal.

New French Stationery. For a desirable Christmas Gift—especially for ladies—we strongly recommend a supply of correspondence paper, stamped with monogram or address. A gift of this kind offers wide latitude in the way of expense, and it is one of those necessary things which cannot fail to please.

These French papers are strikingly novel in tints and patterns, and have an effect of smartness which is much desired. If you are interested in ordering a gift of this kind please see us about it soon. It takes time to execute these orders properly, and from now on they come in very fast. Every day you save on your order is an advantage both to you and to us.

KILHAM Stationery & Printing Co. FIFTH AND OAK STREETS

"Bay State Paint"

FISHER, THORSEN & CO. "The Big Paint Store" FRONT AND MORRISON STREETS. Manufacturers and Jobbers Everything in Paints

Christmas Presents

We have just received large shipments of Oriental Curios, suitable for Christmas presents, consisting of fine silks and satin, embroidered Mandarin Coats, Kimonos, Morning Tea Gowns, Smoking Jackets, Screens, Ivory Carvings, Satsuma, Bronze and Brassware, beautiful Carved Furniture, Tea Sets, etc. Remember, we carry the largest stock at the lowest prices in the city.

Andrew Kan & Co.

SAN FRANCISCO $5

Reduced Rates and Quick Trip to Los Angeles. S. S. ROSE CITY (E. W. MASON, Master) SAILS 4 P. M. FRIDAY, DEC. 3. M. J. ROCHE, C. T. A. J. W. RAMSON, DOCK AGENT, 142 3d St. Main 402, A 1402. Atsworth Dock, Main 288, A 1234. SAN FRANCISCO & PORTLAND STEAMSHIP CO.

A MAN is never so strong as when he stands up; have a bank account—it lends strength and gives back-bone. You will not have to stoop to any project. We invite you to open an account with this bank. We can help you. We pay interest semi-annually for the account. Also furnish any banking accommodation you may require. Hours,