FUNERAL OF PIONEER HELD.—The funeral of William T. Linn, a pioneer, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. W. Bever, at 815 Clinton street, November 28, was held yesterday afternoon at the chapel of the H. W. Linn Co., directors at 414 East Alder street. Rev. Clarence Trus Wilson conducted the service. Interment was made in Rose City cemetery. Mr. Linn was a resident of Oregon for 45 years. He first settled in the Eagle Creek district, Clackamas county, where he owned a farm. In 1863 he moved to the sawmill business, owning and operating the first sawmill erected on Kellogg Creek. He later moved to Astoria, where he operated a sawmill on the Clackamas River for several years. Since 1885 Mr. Linn lived in Portland. His wife died a year ago. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. G. W. Bever, Portland; George E. Linn, of Stevenson, Wash.; Charles A. Linn, Portland.

WOODLAWN SCHOOLS.—The old schoolhouse at Woodlawn was badly shaken in the heavy wind storm of Monday, and a scuttie was blown from the top, causing a great noise and frightening the children. The building swayed during the gale, alarming the children. Some places fell. Four classes were dismissed. When the new schoolhouse at Woodlawn was built the old four-room building, erected about 17 years ago, was retained against the protest of those who have always contended the building is not safe. An addition to the new building will be built next year and the old structure will be removed.

BRIDGE TRAVEL HEAVY.—Harry Stutsman, engineer on the Burnside bridge, reported yesterday that 31 steamers had passed through the draw in eight hours, which is a record for this time of the year. Mr. Stutsman also reported that during the rush hours, morning and evening, 100 vehicles cross the Burnside bridge every hour. Two years ago the average was 10 cars an hour. The street car company is routing the St. John cars over the Burnside bridge, and it was announced yesterday that the Montavilla cars were soon to be sent over that bridge.

F. B. HARGREAVES OF WOODSTOCK, has filed suit in the Justice Court against the Martin Furniture Company, of 168 First street, because of an unusual controversy over a range. Papers were served by Deputy Assessor Korman yesterday at noon at the store of the furniture company. Mr. Hargreaves in his complaint that he bought the range for $53 and that the salesman guaranteed that it would burn wet slabwood. After experimenting, he sought to return it, asserting that it would not consume wet slabwood, as guaranteed.

SUBURBAN HOME BURNED.—Through the explosion of a can of benzine yesterday morning, the home of Lester Burwright, on East Fifty-third street, near Washington, was destroyed by fire. The loss was $2500. The house had not been completed, and a can of benzine had been left near the stove, where there had been a fire the day before. The house was a two-story frame, and burned rapidly. Engine Company 3 responded, but the distance was too great for the firemen to reach the fire in time to do effective work.

WORLD ASKS ABOUT OREGON.—The wide publicity given the resources of Oregon was prominently demonstrated in one delivery of mail at the Portland Commercial Club yesterday. Inquiries touching upon the climatic conditions and the resources of the state were received from 16 different states in the Union; two were received from Canada, one from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, Africa; one from Grand South, Belgium, and one from Konia, Turkey-in-Asia. The last was an inquiry from Mr. H. Par Tika, a professor in the Jenentian College, who asked information on fruit culture of Oregon. He intimated that a number of his students were contemplating taking up horticulture in America, possibly in Oregon.

CHURCH REPAIRS MADE.—The repairs being made to Hawthorne Park Presbyterian Church at East Twelfth and East Taylor streets will be finished by Sunday. The gallery in the lecture-room on the east side of the auditorium has been cut out and a floor built in its place. A boys' clubroom and a number of Sunday school classrooms occupy the upper part of the lecture-room. The lecture-room has been improved, and the front vestibule has been made more convenient. It is estimated that these improvements will answer until a new edifice is erected two years hence.

DRAINAGE OF APPLE ORCHARDS.—"The question of drainage is a serious one, confronting a large number of the growers at the present time," said Messrs. C. T. Lewis, S. L. Bennett and C. C. Vincent, leading horticulturists of the Experiment Station at Corvallis. "The soils producing the largest yields are those having a good drainage. Young trees will die or grow stunted and unhealthy growth if the soil is not properly drained. Drainage removes the surplus water, that has allowed to remain, and the very injurious to the tree; it makes the soil cool and excludes the air, which contains oxygen, an element which helps to make plant-food. Drainage also removes the injurious salts which, when allowed to accumulate, often makes land unproductive. If you intend to buy apple land, inspect the soil under the trees. If you find a miniature lake, with numerous small streams and inlets and outlets, which sap the fertility from the soil, the land cannot possibly be made to apple or fruit culture. Woodburn Orchard Company tracts, at an elevation of about 200 feet, have perfect water and air drainage. We invite you on a tour of inspection, week day or Sunday, you will find the trip profitable and enjoyable. Call on us, see our liberal contract, including a guaranteed yearly income. Woodburn Orchard Company, Inc., 505-506 Henry building, Fourth and Oak streets."

The injunctive suit, brought in the Circuit Court by R. R. Duniway, was dismissed yesterday. The residents of Irvington and neighboring districts took up the subject recently and passed a resolution opposing the delay, and gave Mayor Simon a copy of the resolution. He asked all parties concerned to move paving can be had.

CHARITY BAZAAR HELD.—The women of Queen Elizabeth Halls, L. O. T. M., held a bazaar yesterday afternoon at the Lincoln Lodge Hall, at the corner of East Sixth and East Alder streets. "TAFT AND THE TRUSTS."—While the wicked old trusts are shaking in their beds, the younger kind of a lot of messengers President Taft will send them, the people of Portland are not concerned about the Beef Trust—they are letting Smith do the chumping. CONCERT NOW SOLE TOPIC

Portland Music Lovers Will Hear Kreisler Tomorrow Night.

The concert of Fritz Kreisler at the Bungalow tonight, under the direction of Lola Steers-Wynn Coman, is just now the one topic of interest in local musical circles.

"Most astonishing were his thrills upon the harmonics," says the Musical Leader and Concert-Goer of November 4, "and his double stopping of harmonics, which will have been called sensational in effect, if it were not for the tremendous dignity and interpretative genius of the artist."

"Mr. Kreisler sounded the note of his success in a few words: 'When I give a recital I always think of the beauty of the human voice, and I try to make a song recital out of a violin recital.'"

"It is certain that he succeeds, for no such singing on the violin has ever been heard as that of Kreisler last Saturday."

BUSINESS MAN'S CALENDAR

A Convenient Calendar for the Asking Now Ready.

A most convenient calendar for business men is just published by Oregon Life Insurance Company. It will be delivered to any firm sending an order for it on their own letterhead. The calendar starts with December 1, 1909, and ends with December 31, 1910, 18 months in all. The figures are large and show white on a dark blue background, extremely restful to the eye. On the last page is a resume for two years, including the last six months of 1909, 12 months of 1910 and six months of 1911. In addition to that a table, valuable for interest calculation and similar purposes, is shown, so that a person can tell at a glance the number of days between any dates in the two years mentioned. No other calendar distributed here is as complete as the Oregon Life, and the supply will undoubtedly be exhausted in a very few days.

All My Family Benefited

My family consists of seven persons. Each one of us had some difficult sickness. We had tried different remedies, but in vain to get any good. Hearing of Mrs. Dr. Chan's great cures with her medicine, I bought a bottle and I went to see her first. Sooner great improvement in a short time, I went with my husband and children, all of whom were sick. To my amazement we were entirely cured and once more free from sickness. I will never forget her wonderful cures and honest treatment, and I will gladly recommend her to all my friends. My daughter and I went to see her first.
